

Dr. Ashton, Women's PE Head, Selected For American Academy

Dr. Dudley Ashton, chairman of the University's department of physical education for women, has been approved as a member of the American Academy of Physical Education.

Academy membership is limited to not more than 100 leaders in physical education in the United States and Canada. Membership is one of the highest honors of the physical education profession.

80 Members

At present the academy membership consists of about 80 members.

Unanimous approval is required for candidates who are selected from about 25,000 members of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Dr. Ashton was inducted as a Fellow at the Academy's meeting in Portland, Ore.

She has edited and compiled two syllabi on women's physical education which are now used in Nebraska schools.

Study Initiated

Dr. Ashton helped initiate a study on the interrelationships between sociology and physical education now being undertaken on the West Coast.

Dr. Ashton joined the University in 1952 as departmental chairman and holds the rank of professor. She is a member of the Nebraska Governor's Committee on Fitness as well as the Lincoln Council on Youth Fitness.

She is active in the Altrusa Club of Lincoln, and is listed in "Who's Who Among American Women" and "Who's Who in Education".

Portland Meeting

She is currently attending a meeting in Portland of the National Association for Physical Education of College Women, of which she is treasurer and board member.

Following this she will attend a meeting of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Literary Critic to Speak At Thursday Convocation

Malcolm Cowley, one of America's leading literary critics, will speak at a University convocation Thursday at 11 a.m. in Love Library Auditorium.

He will talk on "The New World of the New Novelists." Wednesday he will meet with students in the English Department.

Cowley's first book to attract general attention was "Exile's Return," an account of the expatriates of the twenties. More recently he has edited a series of volumes dealing with some of America's most outstanding writers.

He is the author and editor of more than a dozen books. An advisor to the Viking Press since 1948, Cowley was associated with the New Republic from 1929 to 1944, part of that time as book editor.

He was born in Pennsylvania in 1896 and educated at Harvard and in France. At the present he is at Stanford University where he has been in residence for a quarter.

His visit is being sponsored by the English department and the faculty Committee on Convocations.

'Giant,' Cartoon Offered Sunday

Rock Hudson, Elizabeth Taylor and James Dean will star in this week's Sunday Night Movie, Giant. The movie in Warner Color is George Stevens' production of a novel by Edna Feber.

Students must show their University ID's to be admitted.

Showtime will be one hour earlier, 6:30 p.m., in the Union Ballroom.

A cartoon will also be featured.

Galleries To Gain New Art

The University art galleries will soon add 13 new paintings and sculpture to their permanent collection, according to Galleries Director Norman Geske.

The acquisition of the art, some purchased and some donated, was announced at the Nebraska Art Association 1959 Spring exhibit.

Purchased from the Thomas C. Woods fund were: "Still Form Resting," "Cafe Interior," "Evening Light," "Sounds Across the River" and "Tilted Horizon."

Purchased from the Nelle Cochrane Woods Collection was "Fourteenth of July." Donated in memory of Nella Cochrane Quick was "Douce Castle."

Given in memory of Thomas C. Woods were "Study for Girl with Chemise," and "Figure." "Peaches" was donated by Mrs. Howard S. Wilson in memory of Howard S. Wilson, and so was "Seacoast, Cape Cod."

Purchased from the Frank M. Hall Collection was "The Seasons." An anonymous last minute donation was "Blade."

Two art experts and a committee of Nebraska Art Assn. members assisted in the selections.

Three Get Army Wings

Rifle Team

Awarded Medals

Three University Army ROTC cadets were awarded full flight training wings recently by Col. V. R. Rawie, professor of military science and tactics.

Cadets R. B. Abernethy, Honor Oschner and Gilbert McGarragh successfully completed the flight training course to qualify for further flight training when ordered to active duty.

The University Army ROTC team placed second out of 19 teams in the Midwest Camp Perry Smallbore Rifle Matches.

Four basic course ROTC Cadets, who compose the University's rifle team, were honored with medals after the match.

The four cadets were Michael Flannigan, William Holland, Conley Cleveland and Howard McNiff.

Industrial Jobs Take Ag Grads

One out of five graduates in Agriculture during the last four years found jobs in business and industry, Franklin Eldridge, associate director of resident instruction, said.

A study by the Northwestern National Life Insurance company revealed that approximately 30 per cent of the agricultural college graduates in the nation entered business or industry, Eldridge added.

He explained that the University initiated an agricultural business major two years ago in view of these surveys.

Business and industry combined is the biggest single part of agriculture, according to a booklet entitled "I've Found My Future in Agriculture".

WHO SAID IT FIRST?

A column of incidental intelligence by Jockey brand

"EVERYONE TO HIS OWN TASTE"

There has never been any accounting for tastes, and the man who appreciated this truth first was Francois Rabelais. In his "Pantagruel", he coined this now-famous judgment: "Every one to his taste, at the woman said when she kissed her cow."

"PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH"

Sounds like advice right out of "Poor Richard", but Plautus said it many centuries before Ben Franklin. Classical scholars, of course, know this statement in its original Latin: "Facies ipse quod facimus avocates."

"LOVED AND LOST"

It's better than not loving of all according to Lord Tennyson's "In Memoriam", XXVII:

"I hold it true, whole 'er befall/I feel it, when I sorrow most/Tis better to have loved and lost/Than never to have loved at all."

Jockey SKANTS' striped brief

"Purely sensational"—that's the judgment of college men who have seen the new Jockey Striped SKANTS. Jockey stylists have taken this 100% stretch nylon bikini-style brief... added candy stripes... and produced a garment you'll really enjoy wearing.

SKANTS is cut high on the sides with a low waistband and comes in a choice of red, black, green, rust or blue stripes. Look for SKANTS—in stripes, or solids—in the Jockey department at your campus store.

"...and two cartons of Camels for our leader!"

More people drop in for Camels than any other cigarette on earth. It stands to reason: the best tobacco makes the best smoke. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness.

Put fads and fancy stuff in the past . . .

Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL
