Unregistered Easter Function Nets 4,000 in Daring Sunrise Raid

Some four thousand students were sentenced in a mass trial of the Student Tribunal Thursday for attending an unregistered Easter Sunrise Service.

Dean J. Piedmont Culvert disclosed to the Pink Rag that the student names were obtained from envelopes in the collection plate.

Red Handed
We've got them red handed Culvert said.
"That'll teach those kids to put unregistered envelopes in collection plates."

The service was held in the off limits area of Teakwood Bowl.

Spokesman for the four thousand culprits was P. U. Ballis, noted campus letter-rrriper. (Ballis was captured later at the Kappa Forest where he is believed to have consumed 17 quarts of lemon extract).

Big brother, guiding spirit of NU, decreed that the students involved were guilty of conduct unbecoming a student, U.S. citizen, Sunday School teacher, prisoner of war, or one of Chancellor Rockhard's gentleman scholars.

Specific charges filed against the students included violation of one of the following conduct rules:

1. Students must have written permission from the dean of student affairs to travel south of R St. (Letters from parents, guardians, old maid aunts, pastors and dog lovers must accompany every request for such permission.)
2. Imbibing in any beverage such as wine, Beer, Gin, Vermouth, Bourbon, Scotch, Olive Juice, or Lemon extract is strictly forbidden. (The lemon extract was recently added in an ex post facto action of Big Brother.)
3. All groups of students more or less than three or even multiple thereof must register their intentions with the administration at all times.

Big brother declined to comment on which of the conduct rules had been broken. They are all locked up and we can't get at them right now, he said.

The Star Chamberlain said that only 3,999 students had registered for the sunrise service. When we heard that there were 4,000 students out there, "we moved in" he said.

ISC Boys Announce Candidates

Crumb, Bare Up For Presidency

Officers have been slated for the Intersecurity Council. Boysies nominated for president are Cob Crumb and Bobby Bare.

"I cannot think of two boys who have done more in cooperating with all security regulations," present president Gary Catwalk said. "Under either of these men security will reach a new high."

Crumb jumped up and down four times when told of his nomination.

"Oh goody, goody and goody," he chortled. "You can't imagine how long I've been waiting for something like this. Why, all my life I've wanted to be a president."

He promised new frisbees to all members voting for him.

Bare was unavailable for comment as he was meeting for his usual five hour a day conference with Dean of Boysies, Earnest Hollerin.

"HEADS WILL ROLL," roared the Star Chamberlain of the Student-Tried Bunal at the trial of five University co-heads. "Five down and five to go," he continued.

(The Tried Bunal needs heads for its weekly ten-pin session, sponsored by Big Brother, at Catskill Heights, 4061 Preachers College.)

Weight Registration Suffers as Student Breaks Floor

By Skinny Simpson

Registration by weight suffered a profound setback today with the announcement of the University's heaviest student had fallen through the floor of the Military and Naval building.

Administrative officials had decided to register students by weight rather than alphabetically when two deans were found chained to the apple machine at Hate Library while being force-fed Alphabet Soup.

"The hole in the floor will take at least three days to repair," Boyd Goober, registrar, said. "But we still feel that the 15% minutes we save through this method is worth the extra effort."

Goober added that the students, "hadn't really given the new system a fair trial," explaining that "each new procedure takes a couple years to iron out."

The jolly administrator added that a temporary method would be worked out until the M&N building floors are strengthened.

Speculation that registration might this time be by height gained strength when workmen were seen installing eight foot doors on the building.

Goober said that this type of registration might cause a bulge for basketball classes, but that other bulges would be smoothed out.

Wonder Dog on Trial

Countie Chief, Companion Chase Student, Bump Car

Latest episode in the trials of Sargent Bomb Burrow, leader of the campus antics, and his wonder dog, is the denting of a red car by the dog as the pair were chasing a wayward student.

"Wayward!" commented Burrow. "They're all wayward! Dirty dogs everyone. Next thing you know they'll be trying to park in faculty lots! Let it never be said such a thing occurred while I was Marshal."

Duke has been bumping into a number of things lately since the canine got his gallon license.

This time, Burrow said Duke had been making the nightly patrol of campus cell blocks when he discovered a student double parked in front of the Women's Pestilence Halls.

Double parking is our most serious offense," Burrow said. "It nets us enough for two extra hounds and five dog sleds a year."

Tussel Head Will Reign as Queen

The Tussel president will now be automatically named as Homecoming Queen, organization announced.

"We want to eliminate all unnecessary discussion," Saveyourself, Tussel president, said. "After all, do the students know it anyway? How many of them have ever been a Homecoming Queen?"

He explained that the President usually had the most points in the organization. Points are obtained by selling "Rah, Nebraska" at football games and selling Pogo buttons. Two thousand points are necessary for nomination.

The Corn Clods will escort the queen in a body to her home at the football game. This gives more people an opportunity to share the honor. Miss Saveyourself said,

Mall to Get Pretty Pool

Ethereal Confirms Beautification Hope

Earnest Ethereal, chairman of the campus beautification committee has confirmed that a reflecting pool will be built on the mall.

According to Ethereal the main reason for not building the pool was that it might become filled with empty La Botas and such.

How ever since the recent administration crackup, this problem has been eliminated.

Originally the pool was to be built so that Mueller Tower would be reflected from a library vantage point and the library would be reflected when seen from Mueller Tower.

Under the new plan the pool will be turned sideways so that instead of reflecting the Mueller tower and the library it will reflect Andrews and Burnett Halls.

The reason for turning the pool sideways is to keep the sun from reflecting in students eyes as they walk to class Ethereal said.

Ethereal since the recent administration crackup, this problem has been eliminated.

Kellogg Fund Not For Corn Flakes

General Mills has announced that the Bunglers sponsored Kellogg foundation drive will not be used for Corn Flakes as previously announced.

Dick Aca Pulco, Bunglers president confirmed that a large brewery would be built instead.

Dean Earnest Hollerin was unavailable for comment.

Story Deadline Set For Pity Press

The Pity Press, publication of campus organization, Pie Xi, has announced story deadlines as April 28.

Positively no stories will be accepted after this date.

ISC Rushing Proposals Answer Deans' Edict of 'Obey or Leave'

By G. D. Indecision

New rushing proposals have been drafted by a secret committee of the Intersecurity Council for presentation at the next meeting.

The works have been drawn up in answer to the Administration's "Obey or Leave" edict.

Suggested Changes

In a 5,000 word scroll sent to all houses, the committee suggested the following changes:

"There shall be no rushing of high school students."

"There shall be no rushing of out of state students."

"There shall be no rushing of anyone except on the following occasions:

1. Christmas morning.
2. New Years, between the first peal of midnight and the last.
3. State High School Basketball Tournament of Georgia.
4. Rush Week Dec. 28, 3-4 a.m.

Rushing Defined

Rushing shall be defined as:

1. Talking with any non-fraternity personage.
2. Writing to any non-fraternity personage.
3. Listening to any non-fraternity personage.

During rush week the following rules will be in effect.

1. Blood test for alcohol content given each rushee when he enters and again when he leaves, to be recorded in indelible ink and forwarded to the State Patrol.
2. Prohibition of deals with automotive companies to buy new autos by lots for the purpose of distribution to rushees.
3. Luring of rushees to houses with hired bathing beauties posing near doors is also to be stopped.

GOP Picks Duck Pres

Shagrin Promises Rise in Fortunes

Duck Shagrin has been named president of the University Young Republicans.

He succeeds Rapheal "Babbling" Brookes.

Duck told a Pink Rag reporter "it is a real honor to have been chosen for this post. Under my reign, the Young Democrats, that is the Young Republicans, will rise to a campus height to which they have never attained."

He did not say how he intended to accomplish this feat.

Young Democrats also have an upcoming election next Thursday. Their president, Roman "Ike" Curtis, was thrown out of office last month for what was called "high treason."
