

Husker Football Clinic Includes Scrimmage

An intrasquad scrimmage will highlight the football coaching clinic sponsored by Nebraska Saturday. The clinic is open to all high school coaches without charge.

The clinic will begin with lectures on offensive and defensive drills at 9:30 a.m. in the Social Sciences auditorium. The Nebraska varsity will show the various techniques of football in a field demonstration from 2 to 3 p.m. on the south practice field.

The scrimmage will begin at 3 p.m. and the squad will be split as evenly as possible according to Bill Jennings, Head Football Coach.

After viewing films of last Saturday's scrimmage, Jennings said, "Our blocking was weak and our ball handling needs improvement."

Pat Clare, freshman halfback from St. Louis, Mo., and Carroll Zaruba, a veteran, are both hampered by slight knee injuries but they may be ready to go Saturday.

Two players have dropped from the squad. Joe Reinhold, a freshman guard candidate from Dearborn, Michigan, checked in his equipment Wednesday. Bob Savoie, another first-year guard candidate from Marshall, Minnesota, has quit school to join the armed services. The Huskers' spring drills will end with the alumni game, May 9.

Phi Psi's Garner Volleyball Crown

Phi Kappa Psi won the intramural volleyball championship handily Wednesday night by beating Smith, the Burr-Selleck Hall Champs two straight games, 15-6 15-8, in a two out of three series.

The Phi Psis earned their final berth by tripping Acacia in the finals of the Fraternity "A" Championship. Smith gained their chance by slipping by Gus II.

Smith put up a good battle but they just didn't have the team work that the Phi Psis did. Led by Chuck Stacey the Phi Psis set up their shots perfectly and then drove home beautiful spikes. Jim Good of the Phi Psis said that he thought the victory was a team effort all the way.

Tom Kramer was the spark plug of Smith and did much to hold them together throughout the game.

Nebraska Hosts Iowa State in Big Eight Debut

Nebraska will be making its first start in Big Eight baseball competition when it entertains Iowa State at 3 p.m. this afternoon. The two teams will meet in a doubleheader at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

The scheduled Big Eight opener for Nebraska, at Colorado last weekend, was canceled when 26 inches of snow fell at Boulder.

Dean Flock (1-1) has drawn the starting nod from Coach Tony Sharpe for today's game. Flock is leading the Husker pitchers with a 2.02 earned run average and 16 strikeouts.

He will probably be opposed on the mound by Grant Halsne, owner of the Cyclones only win. Iowa State will send Bob Locker and either Jim Kudlinski or Ken Green to the hill in Saturday's twin-bill.

"I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"

More people want America's real cigarette than any other brand today. For 10 straight years, Camel has been the top-selling cigarette of all. The reason is clear: the Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. Today as always, the best tobacco makes the best smoke.

Cast off the fads and fancy stuff...

Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL
