

Soccer Team Wins

The Nebraska Soccer club upset a previously unbeaten Lithuania team, 4-3, Sunday afternoon in a constant drizzle. The Lithuanians have won the last three Nebraska soccer championships.

The Lithuanians scored first with a goal in the first period but Nebraska countered with three consecutive goals, two by Louis Molnar and one by Martyn Bowden with a beautiful head shot.

The Lithuanians pulled to within one point of the Huskers in the closing seconds of the first period and then came back to tie the score early in the second period.

Hermann Ridder scored the only goal in the second period to give Nebraska the win as the final period was played almost entirely in the center of the field.

Nebraska now has a 1-0 record in the Nebraska Soccer League.

Football Team Practices Despite Frigid Weather

Spring football practice wasn't hindered very much despite freezing weather conditions as coach Bill Jennings had his forces on the field approximately two and one half hours yesterday afternoon.

Emphasis was primarily placed on defensive drills and especially for the linemen on defensive tackling fundamentals. A lot of time was spent on the ends to catch passes with defensive men trying to block them.

The backs also did some polishing on their punts and ball exchanges. Blocking dummies were used later to polish the line defense and offensive movements.

A large amount of time was spent on tackling the ball carrier as a defensive team would try to stop simulated ground maneuvers of an offensive team. Another group of players received passes or the defensive would try to intercept them.

Those players still on the injured list and seeing limited action are: Carroll Zaruba, Gene Ward, Lloyd Scarrow, John Christensen and Tim Barnes.

Thirteen team members who are not out for spring ball due to injuries earlier in the year that have not yet healed or those who are out for another spring sport are: Harry Tolly, Don Stewart, Allen Wellman, Duane Mongerson, Jim Lafleur, LeRoy Zentic, Steve Olsen, Phil Case, Charlie Toogood, Anderson, Benton Cobb and Roger Brede.

Intramurals

Extreme weather conditions hampered the intramural schedule for yesterday. The softball, horse shoe doubles, and tennis doubles were cancelled. According to Ed Higginbotham, intramural director, the softball games were cancelled and not postponed.

Clean Laws—Clean Houses

Spring cleaning is required by law in Kansas.

Since 1913, a section of the Kansas Statutes has provided: "That in the month of April each year, the owners . . . of any real property . . . shall cause said premises to be cleaned up of all . . . dirt, filth, sewage, sweepings, dung excrement, compost, papers, stable manure, boxes ashes, lumber, coal, wood, kindling, grass, weeds, vegetables, slops or litter of any kind . . ." Violation will bring about either or both a $100 fine or 30 days in the county jail.

NU Thinclads In Home Debut Against K-State And Houston

Coach Frank Sevigne's outdoor thinclads will make their first appearance before the home fans when they host Kansas State and Houston today. Field events will start at 3:30 p.m. and the track events will begin at 4 p.m.

All three teams took part in the Kansas Relays the past weekend. Houston picked up three firsts, a third and two fourth places at the relays. Kansas State had two seconds and a third. Nebraska had two seconds and two fourths.

The Memorial Stadium two-mile record of 9:02.7 set by Richard Ferguson of Iowa in the NCAA meet in 1953 is in the greatest danger of being broken. Houston's John Macy and Jerry Smartt will be running against Tom Rodda of Kansas State and Joe American Horse and Bill Melody of Nebraska.

Macy shattered the two-mile record at the Kansas relays with a winning time of 8:59.2. This was more than seven seconds under the old record set by team mate Smartt in 1958.

The mile run should produce an exciting race with Macy, Smartt and Don Loading running for Houston. Tom Rodda will be the only Kansas State entry and the Huskers will send Joe Mullins, American Horse and Melody to the starting line.

Mullins ran a 4:15.1 anchor leg on the Husker 4-mile relay team in the Kansas relays. Rodda has run the mile in 4:15.8 and American Horse had a 4:19.6 at Lawrence, Kansas. American Horse was beaten by Barrie Almond, a Houston freshman and another Houston frosh runner trailed American Horse.

Neither of the freshmen will be running in the mile today but a special race may be set up for them.

Nebraska captain Ken Pollard will be trying to make up for his poor showing at the KU relays in the pole vault today. Pollard will not be running in any track events so he can concentrate on the vault. Pollard ran on the 440-yard relay team at Kansas, Saturday.

During the indoor season, Pollard had a poor showing in the pole vault against Colorado and Oklahoma with a vault of only 13 feet. This was attributed to his other activity in the high and low hurdles.

The next week against Oklahoma State, he bypassed the running events and devoted the afternoon to the pole vault. Pollard broke Don Cooper's eight year record of 14-5 1/2 that afternoon with a leap of 14-6. Maybe history will repeat today.

Cafeteria Seeks May 1 Debut

Duane Lake, managing director of the Union, expressed "strong hopes" that the new Union cafeteria would be open by May 1 for the Union Birthday Party.

"However because of so many setbacks, I can't guarantee the date," Lake said.

The cafeteria was originally scheduled to open March 30, the day after Easter vacation. The deadline was then postponed to mid-April. Equipment troubles are the cause of the new postponement.

Four Big Eight basketball players will be among the high jumpers. Basketballers Ced Price and Jerry Johnson will jump for the Wildcats along with Steve French, Hersch Turner and Al Maxey are the Nebraska basketballers entered in the high jump along with Bob Lammel and Larry Janda.

Price is a three-sport athlete. He was an end on the K-State football team last fall. French was in a 4-way tie for second place in the KU relays at 6-2 1/2. It will be the first appearance for Maxey in a Husker track uniform.

Jim Cain is a near cinch to win the shot put. The K-State star was third in the KU relays with a toss of 53-5/8. Neither Al Wellman or Don Nelson of Nebraska has approached that distance.

There aren't many college baseball teams that could lose two front-line pitchers and five regulars and still come back with a powerhouse, but Missouri is doing it.

Missouri lost Sonny Siebert (.386), Bo Toft (.395) and catcher Hank Kuhlman (.357), all juniors, to the pro ranks. They signed bonus contracts totaling $125,000.

Captain Ray Uriarte (.397), an All-American third baseman, graduated and Bob Meyers (.297) ran into scholastic trouble. Also missing are pitchers Ernie Nevers (5-0) and Doug Gulick (3-1).

With losses such as these, many baseball coaches would be looking for greener pastures or possibly more snow to delay the season but not John "Hi" Simmons of Missouri. "Hi" still has plenty of good ball players as attested by the lacings they handed to Kansas State two weeks ago.

The Tigers walloped K-State, 3-0, 26-3, and 22-0. It is true that Kansas State finished last in the conference race last year and are expected to occupy the same position this season. Nevertheless, scores such as these are impressive regardless of who is furnishing the opposition.

The Tigers have a 9-0 record this spring with victories over Arkansas State, Memphis State, Arkansas, Washington

U. of St. Louis in addition to Kansas State.

Murderers Row

A look at their batting averages gives an indication that they aren't going to miss the departed players. John Snowcroft (.647), Ralph Hochgrebe (.528), Gene Orf (.395), Bob Haas (.364), Steve Lewis (.359) and Roger Brodbeck (.310) present a formidable foe for any pitcher.

Missouri was runnerup to Southern California in last year's College World Series at Omaha. The Tigers went 12 innings before succumbing to Southern California, 8-7. Missouri's season record was 22-7.

Since "Hi" Simmons came to Missouri 23 years ago, the Tigers have won 250 games and lost 113. "Hi" has been in the College World Series three of the last seven years. His teams have won seven conference titles and were runners-up on six other occasions.

Simmons peak year was in 1954 when his Missouri team won the College World Series, defeating Rollins College of Florida. "Hi" was designated Coach-of-the-year.

Individual honors were won by Banks of Kansas State with a high aggregate score of 484. Burkholder of Creighton finished second with a score of 481, followed in third and fourth places by Erway of Kansas State with 480 points and Sultor of Kansas State with 477 points.
