Geographer To Lecture

A Swedish geographer, Prof. Gunnar Alexandersson of the Stockholm School of Economics, will speak on "Urban Geography" at the University Monday.

The lecture which is open to the public will be given at 7:30 p.m. in 105 Geography Building. He will give a series of lectures in the department of geography while on campus.

Prof. Alexandersson, a present visiting professor of geography at the University of Wisconsin, was at the University in 1953-54 when he compiled material for a book published by the University of Nebraska Press entitled "The Structure of American Cities."

Ivy Day Sing:

AWS to Contact Houses With Ineligible Girls

"Only houses with ineligible girls will be contacted" in connection with the Ivy Day Sing Saturday, according to AWS president Polly Doering. Miss Doering explained that the ineligibility of any girl in a house does not mean that the house itself is ineligible.

Houses are reminded of the two rule changes made this year.

Outfits

No group is to wear like outfits especially purchased for the sing or have instrumental accompaniment.

Any group not ready to go on at the exact scheduled time of performance will be disqualified from participation.

Violation of either of these two rules will result in disqualification.

Judges

The judges for the sing are Jack Wells of Bellevue, Robert Van Voorhis of Albion and Randy McEwen of Norfolk.

The groups, their songs and directors in the order in which they will appear are:

Chi Omega: "We Sing of Chi Omega;" director Susan Rhodes.

Kappa Kappa Gamma: "Elijah Rock;" director, Wynn Smithberger.

Zeta Tau Alpha: "Today I Will Live;" director, Sharon Owens.

Gamma Phi Beta: "My Gamma Phi Beta Sweetheart;" director, Marcia Weichel.

Alpha Chi Omega: "May Morning;" director, Joyce Johnson.

Love Memorial Hall: "Go Down, Moses;" director, Faye Oeltjen.

Alpha Xi Delta: "Of Thee I Cherish;" director, Gretchen Blum.

Kappa Alpha Theta: "A Hymn to Music;" director, Sharon Smith.

Alpha Phi: "Row, Row, Row Your Boat;" director, Shirley Reinek.

Sigma Kappa: "The Road;" director, Paula Roehrkaske.

Pi Beta Phi: "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be;" director, Mary Ann Timmons.

Delta Delta Delta: "Heather on the Hill;" director, Glenda Klein.

Alpha Omicron Pi: "Oh Rise, Shine;" director, Sandra Reimer.

Delta Gamma: "Anchor in the Sky;" director, Nickie Christie.

Residence Halls for Women: "Clap Yo' Hands;" director, Jeanne Whitwer.

NU Bridge Team Ties For Second Nationally

By Sylvia Rodehorst

An NU bridge tea topped the 1959 District Eight National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament and then went on to tie for second place nationally.

University teams captured five out of eight possible places in the district contest, Bob Handy, Union Activities Director, announced Tuesday.

In the tournament, sponsored by the Union Recreation Committee, Nebraska competed with 1,740 students from 118 colleges and universities.

Jim Gordon and Jerry Leenerts, District Eight champions, were nosed out in the national race by a Columbia University team which scored a perfect 10 p.p.s. compared to the NU duo's 9.

Placing third in District 8 was the team of Cobe Venner and Bob Hall. Ken Worley, Jr., and Dick Sokol nabbed fifth prize, while Frank Isaacson and Roger Anderson were sixth and Howard Lange and Jim Risser seventh.

Venner and Hall scored 7 p.p.s. while Worley and Sokol had 6 1/2. The Isaacson-Anderson and Lange-Risser each had 6 p.p.s.

Iowa State, Missouri and Kansas State won the other three places.

All winners will receive 1959 Championship Contract Bridge Team Certificates from the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament.

THINKLISH
English: HILLTOP HASH HOUSE
Thinklish translation: This diner is perched on a mountain peak, which makes it a restaurant! The view is tops—but from there on, things go downhill. A typical meal includes a puny melon (scantaloupe) and your choice of sandwiches (shamburgers or rankfurters). It's all served up, naturally, on 50-yr.-old dishes (crackery). Best course to take: light up a Lucky . . . enjoy the honest taste of fine tobacco. There's no tip at the end!
English: AVERSION TO COOKING
Thinklish: PANIMOSITY
English: BUBBLE-GUM EXPERT
Thinklish: CHOMPION
English: FEATHERED MUSICAL GROUP
Thinklish: STORKESTRA
English: HAG'S TIMEPIECE
Thinklish: WITCHWATCH
HOW TO MAKE $25
Take a word—amplifier, for example. With it, you can make a wet microphone (dampifier), a torch singer's mike (vamplifier), a boxing-ring loudspeaker (champlifier) or a P.A. system in an army post (campifier). That's Thinklish—and it's that easy! We're paying $25 for the Thinklish words judged best—your check is itching to go! Send your words to Lucky Strike, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, New York. Enclose your name, address, college or university and class.
