

Football Star Noel Martin Welcome Squad Addition

By Tom Davies
Among the outstanding freshman football players that Coach Bill Jennings and the Cornhusker team is blessed with is Noel Martin.

Martin, who carries 190 pounds on a 5' 11" frame, is currently playing fullback and defensive linebacker. He started at halfback, but was later switched to his present position.

He is a product of Clay Center High School in Kansas. He was a three year letter winner in football, wrestling, and track. As a high schooler, Martin was picked on the Interscholastic All-American Football Squad. He was chosen as a member of the West team for the annual East-West high school classic. He was then named to an All-Star team which annually meets Penn's Big 33.

Here at Nebraska, Martin has already shown his ability. He is the number two fullback on the squad second only to Don Fricke. He has also shown talent at the defensive linebacker slot.

Nebraska was not the only school to bid for Martin's talents by a long shot. He received offers from all the Big Eight schools, and several southern schools including Texas University, Texas Christian University, Southern Methodist University, Arkansas University, and Tennessee University. Martin says that he chose Nebraska above all the other schools for several reasons. Some of these are: the fine coaching staff; the campus location; the beauty of the campus; the atmosphere; the good spirit; and the fine support given the teams by the student body.

His high school coach wanted him to go to Kansas University but he said, "At Kansas the main athletic emphasis is not on football but rather on basketball and track."

Martin is a member of a football family. He has an older brother, that plays football for Kansas State and a younger brother that is a sophomore in high school at Clay Center. Martin said, "My younger brother Max is better now than I ever was." As a sophomore Max started on the Clay Center team. He feels that his parents inspired him and his brothers to play football.

Martin is very glad that he chose Nebraska instead of the other schools. He said, "I like Nebraska very much and I am glad that I picked this university over the others. Every one is real friendly and I like the campus very much."

Martin has high hopes for the Cornhusker squad. He said, "The team looks good and if we stick together we will be smelling orange blossoms come Christmas." He also added that the team needs the support of the entire student body if they are to accomplish their goal.

Kickers Down Germans

The Nebraska Soccer team won their second league game of the season Sunday downing the German Falstaff team of Omaha 2-0 at Peter Pan Park. The Huskers have lost one league game and have a 4-1 season record.

Joe Luk scored both Husker goals before suffering a badly bruised leg.

Nebraska's next league game is against the Lithuanians at Omaha, Sunday. Nebraska defeated the Lithuanians 4-3 in their last encounter.

Cowboys Increase Big Eight Lead Over 2nd Place Missouri

By Hal Brown
Despite losing their first conference game of the year, Oklahoma State increased their lead over second place Missouri to two full games. Nebraska defeated the Cowboys 7-2 Friday for their first loss in the conference.

Toby Green's club came back, however, to win both ends of Saturday's doubleheader, 4-0 and 5-1 behind the pitching of Joe Horlen and Dick Soergel. The series left Oklahoma State with an 11-1 record and Nebraska in sixth place with a 3-6 mark.

Missouri also suffered their first defeat of the conference campaign when they bowed to Oklahoma 1-0 as southpaw Tom Jones threw a no-hitter.

Jones' no-hitter nearly went down the drain in the seventh inning however as the Tigers' Gene Orf hit a liner into left-center field for what should have been a triple. But Orf failed to touch first base and when the ball was returned to first, his long hit was ruled a ground out. Missouri won the opening game of the series 3-1 and the second game of the twinbill was called at the end of three innings with no score.

Colorado moved from 5th to 3rd place in the standings with a sweep of their series with the hapless Kansas Jayhawks. The scores were 15-12, 5-1 and 11-5.

The three losses gave Kansas sole possession of last place with 0-9 record. Iowa State remained in contention with two wins over Kansas State, 19-10 and 9-5. The third game was canceled by rain. The wins gave the Cyclones a 7-4 mark leaving them just 3 games behind the league leading Cowboys.

Kansas State is in seventh place with an 0-8 record only one-half game ahead of last place Kansas.

This weekend is an important one for the two leaders with Oklahoma State traveling to Colorado and Missouri going to Iowa State.

Colorado and Iowa State will each have to win two of the three games to remain in contention for the title and a chance to go to the College World Series in June.

In other league action, Nebraska will be trying to reach the .500 mark when they take the road for a series with last place Kansas. Kansas State will be at Oklahoma.

WHO SAID IT FIRST?
A column of incidental intelligence
by Jockey brand

"GENTLEMAN AND SCHOLAR"
High praise, indeed, for any man! But did you know that the description comes from Robert Burns—who said it first about a dog? Here's the quote:
"His locked, lettered, brow
brass collar
Showed him the gentleman and scholar."
You'll find the couplet in Burns' "The Two Dogs."

"THE MORNING AFTER"
This horrible time was first immortalized by George Ade in "The Sultan of Sulu." Here's the way he put it:
"But, R-E-M-O-R-S-E!
The water-wagon is the place for me;
It is no time for mirth and laughter,
The cold, gray dawn of the morning after!"

"MAN BITES DOG"
That's everybody's definition of news, and we're all indebted to John B. Bogart, city editor of the old New York Sun (1873-90) who first said:
"When a dog bites a man, that is not news, because it happens so often. But if a man bites a dog, that is news!"

Jockey Underwear
What's true about expressions is also true about styles. Somebody always got there first. Take Jockey brand underwear. Jockey brand is made only by Coopers. Coopers invented Jockey underwear—and no copy can compare with Jockey brand for quality, comfort and fit. For underwear that feels better because it fits better, insist on Jockey brand—the original comfort-tailored underwear. You'll find it at better stores everywhere. Recognize it by the Jockey trade mark.
