

NU Takes 3-6 Record To Kansas

—Nebraska's baseball team moves to Lawrence Friday and Saturday for a three-game set against the University of Kansas. The Huskers are 3-6 in the conference, 7-10 overall.

The Cornhuskers, with Harry Tolly at the pitching controls, placed the first stain on the record of league-leading Oklahoma State last week-end.

Dave Murakami, sophomore shortstop, and LeRoy Zentic, junior outfielder, both improved their batting status against Oklahoma State, which possesses the stoutest pitching corps in the league.

Coch Tony Sharpe will switch his batting order slightly for the Jayhawk games. Don Vogel will go to third base and Doug Sieler will be in centerfield.

The Huskers will lead off with Sieler, followed by Murakami, Ken Ruisinger, 1b; Zentic, lf; Dick Nelson, rf; Gil Dunne, 2b; Ely Churchich, c; Vogel, 3b. Tolly will pitch the opener Friday.

Youth Fitness Week: Ike Proclaims May 3-9 As Youth Fitness Week

By Randall Lambert
"Whereas the ongoing strength of our Nation depends upon the health of our young people." That was how it began. After three more short phrases it ended, "Now, therefore, I, Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning May 3, 1959, as National Youth Fitness Week."

What is National Youth Fitness week? This week was set aside by the President to promote a national program of physical fitness and test the fitness of the youth of this nation.

Most of the work is and has been done through the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation (AAHPER). Through this organization a research committee has set up a test that can be given to elementary and high school students.

The results of these tests can also be compared to similar tests given in other countries. That way goals can be set in order that United States can take seat among the leaders in world physical education.

Forty-Seven Husker Alumni Prepared For All-Sports Day

Harshman, Vacanti to Test NU Pass Defense

By Tom Davies
With a gleam in their eyes and memories of past Husker glory, the Alums will meet one of the most highly touted Cornhusker teams in many years in the All-Sports Day Classic, Saturday, May 9.

Since the inaugural of the game in 1951, the Alums have been able to win only once and that was in 1956 against a Pete Elliott team. In 1954 and '55, the spring game was played as an intra-squad contest.

Forty-Seven alumni have signed for the game thus far. Among these 47 is Ed Husmann, star lineman for the Chicago Cardinals.

Old timers that have signed to participate in the game are: Marlin Hilding, Roy Stinnett, Max Kitzelman, Bob (Moon) Mullins, Rex Hoy, Carl Samuelson, Sam Vacanti, Clarence Cook, Jerry Peterson, Jack Carroll, Don Kampe, John Bordogna.

Joe Ponsiego, Dennis Korinek, Dr. Arden Means, Jerry Brown, Larry Naviau, Frank Simon, Don Glantz, Tom Novak, Ed Husmann, Jerry Minnick, John Edwards, Ted Britt, Bill Halloran, Bob Wagner, Cliff Dale, Bill Schabacker, Bill Hawkins, Gene Sandage, Ralph Damkroger, Larry Jones, Dennis Emanuel, George Harshman, Verl Scott, Bob Lyall, Ron Clark, Sylvester Harris, on McWilliams, Art Bauer, Rex Fish-Loeher, Dick McCashland, and Larry Naviaux.

Don Boll, Washington Redskins tackle, will not be able to play in this year's game. He suffered a dislocated shoulder during the regular season and wants to give it full time to heal without aggravation.

Varsity Coach Bill Jennings is looking forward to the game as the first real test for his squad. He said, "You can't tell much when you are playing among yourselves." With Harshman and Vacanti available, the alums will probably keep the ball in the air a majority of the time. Thus providing a test for the Varsity defense.

An added incentive for the players given to the outstanding lineman and the outstanding back in the game. The Lincoln Promotion Council will make the presentation.

Jerry Jacupke, now a resident as a guard at Nebraska in 1944-47-48, offered this little thought as he returned his card notifying that he would play again in the game:

Youth is gone
So's my zip
But to see old friends
It's worth the trip.
Nebraska's football coach will use a first unit of 22

George Harshman

lettered as a guard at Nebraska in 1944-47-48, offered this little thought as he returned his card notifying that he would play again in the game:

Youth is gone
So's my zip
But to see old friends
It's worth the trip.
Nebraska's football coach will use a first unit of 22

Dick McCashland

players, not all at once, and then will have a relieving unit of 11 players.

The first 22 will be mixed and used as needed. They are listed alphabetically and not necessarily in the order they will be used. This unit has:

Left tackle—Russ Edeal, George Haney.
Left guard—Don Houser, John Ponsiego.
Center—Darrell Cooper, Jim Moore.

Right guard—Dick Koser, Dale Siemer.
Right tackle—Joe Gacusana, Roland McDole.
Right end—John Bond, Max Martz.

Quarterback—Dean Cozine, Tom Kramer.
Left halfback—Dalls Dyer, Pat Fischer.
Right halfback—Clay White, Carroll Zaruba.
Fullback—Don Fricke, Noel Martin.

The relieving unit, which will be used intact, has:
Left end—Albert Long.
Left tackle—Jim Raschke.
Left guard—Warren Dobry.
Center—Mik Tinglehoff.
Right guard—Allan Fischer.
Right tackle—Duane Dubois.

Right end—Don Purcell.
Quarterback—Ron Meade.
Right halfback—Pat Clare.
Fullback—Dave Roberts.
