

Miss Hill, Teacher Extraordinary, Plans Retirement After 42 Years

After 42 years of teaching and serving as department chairman, associate professor Miss Luvicy Hill of Teachers College will retire this year.

Miss Hill joined the University staff in 1917 as an instructor in the then department of commercial education. She became chairman of the department in the middle 1920's. In 1957 she became an associate professor of business education.

PBK in 1926

Among the many honors bestowed on Miss Hill was election to Phi Beta Kappa in 1926.

Miss Hill was also instrumental in the founding of the Nebraska Business Education Association and the Mountain Plains Division of the United Business Education Association.

In 1956 the Nebraska BEA honored Miss Hill as the "Nebraska Teacher of the Year".

Junior High Teacher Miss Hill taught in the first junior high school in Lincoln, McKinley Junior High, in 1915 when teachers had to pass a certificate test every year. Miss Hill was also a student in the University that year.

Later she went to Harvard University for her graduate work.

New Fund Announced At Banquet

"Her integrity and steadfastness of purpose and patience as a teacher and administrator have been not only an inspiration to those who studied and worked under her but she has also served as an example of leadership at its best."

These were the words of Dean Frank Henzlik of Teachers College as he paid tribute to Miss Luvicy Hill at a banquet in her honor at the Union Saturday.

Miss Hill will retire this year.

Announcement of a $4,800 scholarship fund in the names of Miss Hill and the late Miss Gertrude Beers, former teacher in the department, was made by Mrs. A. P. Guidinger of Lincoln. Mrs. Guidinger also presented a scroll, which listed 400 contributors to the fund.

Miss Hill was honored by friends and colleagues and former students from all over the country. She also was presented a portfolio of letters from several hundred students who could not attend.

Bloodmobile 'Too Tough To Chew' for Joe Knoll

Greek Week chairman Joe Knoll bit off more than he could conveniently masticate when he attempted to obtain a bloodmobile for Greek Week.

Knoll, in a report to the IFC Wednesday, said that it was "almost impossible" to give blood away.

Action Begins Knoll talked to what he thought was the manager of the Douglas County bloodmobile. When the manager turned out to be the assistant manager, things began to happen.

Knoll learned that Lancaster is not a "participating" county and in order to get the bloodmobile from Douglas County, the permission of every medical society in Lancaster County would be required.

The consent of all participating counties also would be required.

Joe found that non-participating counties do not contribute or draw blood from the bloodmobile. The non-participating counties have private blood banks which they use or can purchase from participating counties.

Top Setback The supreme setback to the whole bloodmobile program came when Knoll found out that only fraternity men whose permanent residence is in participating counties could give blood in the first place. This stipulation coupled with the fact that donors must be 21 years old or have their parents' permission made the whole project look less inviting.

ENTER OFTEN—HAVE FUN—AND WIN! But think carefully! This puzzle is not as easy as it looks. At first the DOWN and ACROSS clues may appear simple. There may appear to be more than one "right" answer. For example, the clue might read: "Many a coed will be given her best date's P-N." Either "T" (PIN) or "E" (PEN) would seem to fit. But only one answer is apt and logical as decided by the judging staff, and therefore correct. Read the rules carefully. ENTER AS OFTEN AS YOU WISH. Good luck!
