Basketball Wizard Tops NU Athletes

Hersch Turner, Nebraska basketball star, has been selected as the Outstanding Athlete of the Year by the Daily Nebraskan sports staff.

Turner was picked for his record breaking performances and his leadership of the Nebraska basketball team. Turner was named on several all-American teams for his basketball ability. He is also a high jumper on Frank Sevigne's track squad.

Hersch broke Jim Buchanan's single season scoring record with 428 points to lead the Huskers in scoring. He also set a Nebraska record for most field goals in a single game with 14 against Detroit. Turner led the Huskers in rebounding with 244.

Turner was named to the Helms Athletic Foundation All-American Basketball third team, to the United Press International Big Eight first team, to Look magazine's district five all-star team and to several all-opponent teams. Hersch also received the Walter Dobbins memorial award as the most valuable basketball player at Nebraska.

He was only one of three Big Eight players picked by the Helms Foundation. Bob Boozer of Kansas State was a first team choice and Arlen Clark of Oklahoma State joined Turner on the third team. Turner and Boozer were the only Big Eight players named by Look magazine.

Turner is a near cinch to shatter the Nebraska three-season scoring record next year. He needs only 181 points to break the record of 854 held by Rex Ekwall.

Hersch thinks the Huskers will be improved next year. He says, "I think we will be vastly improved. We will have more height and more bench strength, something which has been lacking the past two years."

He will receive the award at a Daily Nebraskan luncheon today noon. Turner is majoring in Commercial Arts and is a junior in Teachers College.

The award was started by Bob Cook, Daily Nebraskan sports editor in 1954-55 with Gymnast Bruce Riley receiving the first award. Rex Ekwall and Keith Gardner have won the other Outstanding Athlete Awards. Ekwall won the award in 1957 and Keith Gardner was last year's winner. No award was given in 1956. Turner is the first junior to win the award.

Basketball Is Hersch's Big Sport

Royal Canadians Take Hockey Championships

Hockey, the newest and most exciting of the intramural sports closed its first season Wednesday night with a game between the champion Royal Canadians and the All-Stars. The Royal Canadians started fast and protected their perfect 12-0 season.

Most of the scoring took place in the first period and it was in this period that the Royal Canadians copped the advantage.

Dick Thompson of the Royal Canadians opened the scoring early in the first period with a goal. Terry Moshier added another for the Canadians and Ron Mitsch drove in another to give the Canadians a 3-0 lead. However, the All-Stars flashed back on goals by Joe Vaccaro and Lance Reeder to close the gap to 3-2 before Mitsch added his 2nd score of the match to give the Canadians a 4-2 lead.

Harvey Jensen of the All-Stars opened the second period with an unassisted goal but Ron Mitsch added one for the Canadians to push the score to 5-3.

The third period was the most spirited and yet the one with the least scoring. Up to the third period, there were no penalties called on either team; but in the third there were three.

With ten minutes left in the game Wally Bryans sank a goal but it was nullified for an infraction of the rules. Then with eight minutes left, Lance Reeder hit a goal to cut the Canadian lead to 5-4.

With seven minutes remaining, a tripping penalty was called against the Canadians and they were forced to play with only four men. However the All-Stars were unable to press their advantage and the final horn sounded with the Royal Canadians out in front 5-4.

The two goalies Bob Otten of the Canadians and Steve Cohen of the All-Stars performed brilliantly throughout the game. Both made several saves that could have changed the whole outlook of the game.

Next year, the intramural department hopes to add another league. This year, there was just one league composed of eight teams. In regular season play, the teams played three 15 minute periods but in Wednesday's game they played three 20 minute periods.

Ron Mitsch, who was the league's high scorer with 42 goals and who sank three more for the Canadians in the championship game, is working for his Ph.D.

High Jumps For Track Team

Dear Sports Editor

It gives us great pleasure to place in nomination for this year's Outstanding Intramural Athlete the name of James L. Harpstreith. "Blond, athletic Jim Harpstreith" (we are quoting an official United Press-International wire release) has brought much glory and fame to this campus through his internationally acclaimed exploits on the coveted field of competition. His accomplishments range from the famed probosots promenade to aggressive frog-leaping. They constitute an infamous chapter in the accounts of championship athletic endeavors. Jim's (or "Harp" as he is affectionately called by his avid assemblage of fans) is truly deserving of the I-M award.

Baseballers Make Bid Today

By Hal Brown

Harry Tolly (2-1) has been given the starting nod by Baseball Coach Tony Sharpe for the opening game of a crucial three-game series against Kansas State. Friday's game will start at 3 p.m. and Saturday's doubleheader will get underway at 10 a.m.

The Huskers must win all three games while Missouri must take three from league leading Oklahoma State for Nebraska to get a trip to the College World Series. Nebraska moved into contention via three Missouri forfeits and a three game sweep from Oklahoma last weekend.

The Big Eight winner must meet Bradley in a regional playoff with the winner going to the College World Series. Bradley was the Missouri Valley winner.

Sharp announced the following lineup for Friday's game: Doug Sells, 3b; Dave Murakami, ss; Jerry Harris, rf; LeRoy Zentic, lf; Ely Churchich, c; Ken Ruisinger, 1b; Gil Dunne, ss; Bob Semin, cf; Harry Tolly, p.

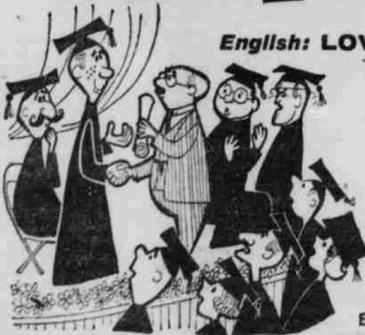

Gleason

Bob Gleason (1-4) has been designated to work the first game of Saturday's doubleheader and Sharpe wasn't sure who would go in the second game.

Gleason won his first game of the season last Saturday morning, setting the Sooners down on three hits to take a 2-1 victory.
