

Teachers College Conference to Open

Teachers and administrators from all over the state will be attending the All Teachers College Conference to begin next Wednesday, July 8.

The conference will feature several of the nation's top-level educators and will concern itself with ideas basic to strengthening education in our communities.

The opening session of the Conference will feature a talk by Herbert A. Smith who is the Chief of the Science, Mathematics and Foreign Language Section in the United States Office of Education.

Dr. Smith, who is a native of Clatonia, Neb. will speak on "The Progress in the Teaching of Math, Science and the Foreign Languages." Formerly, Dr. Smith taught at the University of Kansas and the University of Nebraska where he obtained his

Herbert Smith

Ph.D. in 1948.

Dr. Charles O. Neidt, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Education Psychology and Measurements at Nebraska, will be the featured speaker at the dinner session. He will speak on "Design for the First Middle States Institute on Guidance and Counseling."

Speaking at the second general session on Thursday morning, will be Wallace Ann Wesley, Hs.D., who is the Educational Consultant of the American Medical Association in Chicago. Her topic is "Progress in the Development of Health and Physical Fitness in Youth."

The noon luncheon session will feature Walter K. Beggs, Dean of the Teachers College, speaking on the "Fundamental Questions Educators Must Answer in the Decade Ahead." Thursday afternoon at the closing session, former chancellor of the University of Nebraska, R. G. Gustavson, will discuss "Education Tomorrow." He is now president and executive director of Resources for the Future, Inc., in Washington, D.C.

R. G. Gustavson

All sessions of the Conference will meet in the Student Union, beginning at 2 p.m., Wednesday. Reservations for the dinner and luncheon sessions may be made by calling extensions 3135 or 3131 or by signing up in the summer sessions office, room 412 of Administration.

The first general session lasts from 2 to 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday and the dinner is scheduled from 6 to 7:45 p.m. On Thursday the second general session is from 9 to 11:45 a.m. The luncheon is 12 to 1:45 p.m.

Summer

Lincoln, Nebraska

NEBRASKAN

JULY 2, 1959

Historian Examines Far Eastern Policy

A nationally recognized expert on foreign policy in the Far East, Paul N. Clyde, will examine the assumption on which American Far Eastern policy is based at the National Affairs Preview, Monday.

Dr. Clyde, a noted historian, is the author of the textbook, "The Far East," which is being used in connection with the Far Eastern Institute in session this summer.

The talk will be at 2 p.m., July 6, in Love Library Auditorium rather than the Union Ballroom as previously announced.

Dr. Clyde is presently Professor of History and Director of the Summer Session at Duke University. He has written several books and contributed

Union Schedules Two Artist Series Programs

Next week the Union will have two feature presentations in their Summer Artist Series. On Tuesday they will present the Summer Chorale Concert and on Wednesday the Boston Concert Ensemble will perform.

Included in the Ensemble are Nancy Cirillo, violinist; John Hornor, baritone; William Stevens, pianist and Lanalee Litz, harpist.

The members of the Boston Concert Ensemble make nearly three hundred solo appearances a season. Individually, they have been heard in Washington, D.C., New York, Boston, Toronto, and Montreal. They have been soloists with orchestras at Carnegie Hall and Town Hall, New York; Symphony Hall and Jordan

Hall, Boston; Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Canada, music festivals at Tanglewood, Mass., Brevard, N.C., Venice, Italy and many others.

Award Winner

Miss Cirillo has been a winner of numerous competitive prizes, including the Walter W. N. a u m b e r g Foundation Award and has toured extensively in both the United States and Italy.

Hornor while yet a student at the New England Conservatory in Boston, became the first, and still is the only man to win the Eleanor Steber Singing Award, judged in competition by Charles Munch of the Boston Symphony and Arthur Fiedler of the Boston Pops Orchestra. Since then, he has been a frequent soloist with the Boston Pops Orchestra.

Stevens, a Canadian, has been a soloist with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Orchestra and has given recitals in New York's Town Hall and Boston's Jordan Hall. He has recently recorded for International Records.

Miss Litz, a new member of the Boston Concert Ensemble, is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. She has made frequent radio and television appearances and has won the praise of Charles Munch of the Boston Symphony.

Chorale Presented

The chorale which is made up of summer session students, is directed by Dale Ganz.

The program includes: Requiem Mass in C Minor by Cherubini, Introit, Graduale, Dies Irae and features Harvey Hinshaw at the piano; and the Sonata in F Major, K332 by Mozart, Allegro, Adagio, Allegro Assai, Offertorium, Sanctus, Pie Jusu, and Agnus Dei.

Members of the chorale are:

Soprano: Marilyn Braught, Charlotte Couway, Florence Erickson, Carol Riech, Velma Matchett, Adele Copenhagen, Jeanne Whitmer, Gayle Johnson, Lucy Webster, Maudie Erickson, Daisy Ferguson, Grace Nelson, Diane Cassler, Annabel Zikmund, Leola Long, Matilda Dickmann, Hazel Arple, Lorna Lee Shull, Maryann Mauer, Sherry Will, Sue Booth, Alice Munia, Nancy Booth, Delores Gade, Kay Green, Sus Worley, Mary Namage, and Sandra Reimers.

Alto: Pat Erickson, Maia Kalsim, Fern Harok, Betty Burkland, Elaine Peterson, Pat Arnold, Janet Anderson, Pat McIntyre, Sandra Waldo, Sara Luzzo, Sue Myers, Jan Juffer, Beth Wilson, Mrs. John Lindell, Helen Levin, Cynthia Hansen, Louise Preva, and Kathryn White.

Tenors: John Nelson, Gordon Lamb, Morris Anderson, Wesley Peavoe, Edward Kumble, Donald Kitchin, Eusebio McEwen, Allen Barnard, Bill Jenkins, Herman Larsen, Michae Kulha, Donald Raymer, William Spencer, Amer Lincoln, Donald Goodrich, Roger Brendie, Riner Andersen, and Norbert Schuurman.

Basses: Larry Mackenstadt, Warren Seger, Bob Heimsoth, Wesley Gross, Lee Carr, Michael Johnson, Leonard Breda, Roger Weschmeier, Don Vander Hamn, Clarence Goebel, Joseph Crawford, William Carsons, Ron Becker, Phil Coffman, Marvin Genschi, Arnold Bacchetti, Robert Patterson, John Cole, Kent Phillips, James Eno, John Rogers, Norman Rigas, and William Hatcher.

Accompanists: Howard Johnson, piano, Roger Wachsmier, organ, and Phil Coffman, tympani.

Chinese Films To be Presented

"Peiping Family," and "Sampan Family," will be the two movies shown next week in connection with the Far Eastern Institute. The first film describes middle-class family customs and attitudes and the second film tells the story of families who live aboard small river boats.

The movies will be presented Wednesday, July 8, at 3 p.m., in Love Library Auditorium.

Luncheon to Feature Bedell

Featured speaker at the Superintendent's Round Table Luncheon this noon will be Dr. Ralph Bedell of the U.S. Department of Education and formerly a member of the University of Nebraska faculty.

In Dr. Bedell's speech, "The National Interest in Guidance and Counseling," he will relate the provisions of the National Defense Act to educational guidance. In addition, Mrs. Bedell will speak to wives of the superintendents on "Lasting Impressions of the South Pacific."

Both luncheons will be at the Student Union.

William Stevens

John Hornor

Nancy Cirillo

Lanalee Litz

Paul Clyde