Petersen and Castle Pace Sig Ep Win

The daring running and passing of Ron Castle and the deft pass receiving of Gayle Petersen led the Sig Ep's to a 26-7 first-round victory over Delta Upsilon in intramural action Wednesday night.

Castle ran for one touchdown and passed for three others with Petersen on the receiving end of two of the pay-off pitches. Chuck Koopman grabbed the other scoring strike.

Delta Upsilon failed on two serious threats early in the game, and finally came back in the third period to score on a long pass from Tom Hooker to Don Smidt. Hooker added the PAT on a run.

Haggard added the last two points for Sig Ep when he nailed Ken Pollard in the end zone for a safety.

NEBRASKA HEAD TRAINER—Paul Schneider is in his seventh year as head trainer at Nebraska. Schneider was assistant trainer for three years before taking over the duties of head trainer.

Seven of the eight teams in the Big Eight conference will be looking for their first win when they take to the gridiron this weekend.

Iowa State was the only Big Eight winner last week. Colorado, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Kansas State and Oklahoma State lost their opening games while Oklahoma was idle.

All Big Eight teams with the exception of Colorado are on the road this weekend. Colorado plays host to Baylor of the Southwest Conference.

Night Games

Kansas State and Iowa State will be playing night games with the Cyclones playing at Denver tonight and Kansas State traveling to Brookings, S.D., for a Saturday night encounter against South Dakota State.

Other games find Oklahoma opening the season at Northwestern, Missouri journeying to Michigan, Kansas at Syracuse, Nebraska at Minnesota and Oklahoma State at Arkansas.

Last week, my crystal ball picked five of the seven winners for a .714 percentage. So, encouraged by the success (short-lived as it may be), here we go again.

Nebraska 14, Minnesota 13—The Huskers will win their first of the season in a close and bruising game.

Oklahoma 21, Northwestern 14—Sooner fullback Prentice Gault should make the difference in this nationally televised game.

Missouri 22, Michigan 20—Missouri will be seeking revenge for the 42-7 drubbing by Michigan the last time these two met, four years ago.

Kansas State 28, South Dakota State 0—The Jackrabbits haven't scored yet in two ball games. Should be an easy one for Bus Mertens and his Wildcats.

Iowa State 27, Denver 6—Iowa State continues to build its record against second class opposition.

Baylor 28, Colorado 13—Baylor to win this battle of aerial fireworks.

Syracuse 21, Kansas 7—Syracuse is one of the top teams in the East.

Arkansas 20, Oklahoma State 7—The Cowboys will have to wait at least another week to get their first win.

Top Twenty

Three of last week's Big Eight opponents are rated in the top twenty by both United Press International and Associated Press.

Texas is rated 8th by UPI and 15th by AP. Texas Christian is ranked 9th by AP and is tied for 15th according to the UPI poll. Penn State is 17th in the UPI ratings and 18th in the AP voting.

Midwestern World Series

If Milwaukee wins the National League pennant, it will mark the first time since 1945 that two midwestern cities have been in the World Series.

The Detroit Tigers defeated the Chicago Cubs four games to three in that series.

The three contending teams each have three games remaining on the schedule. The schedule favors Milwaukee to a slight extent since the Braves' remaining games are at home against the cellar dwelling Philadelphia Phillies.

Los Angeles, tied with Milwaukee for first, plays at Chicago against the 5th place Cubs. San Francisco goes against the 7th place Cardinals at St. Louis.

Although the Giants are two games behind with only three games left, don't count them out yet. If you are a Dodger fan, I hope recalling the 1951 season doesn't upset you too much.

Bobby Thomson

The Giants overcame a 13½ game deficit during the final two months of that season to tie the Dodgers on the last day. The Giants then won the playoff on a 9th-inning home run by Bobby Thomson.

The White Sox, having already clinched the American League flag, give the Chicago Southsiders their first pennant since 1919.

Cincinnati won that series five games to three as some members of the White Sox sold out to gamblers.

Chuckle for The Week—A couple of kids, playing football in a vacant lot, kicked the pigskin into a nearby chicken yard. The rooster, puzzled, sidled up to it. Firmly convinced of what he saw, he ran over to the hen house and stuck his head in the door.

"Hey, you gals," he crackled, "think you're pretty hot, eh? Well, get a load of what they're turning out in the next yard!"

Burnett Defeats Gooding Behind Passing of Ray

Burnett defeated Gooding, 21-0, in an intramural football game played Wednesday night. All the scoring came in the first two periods.

The passing of Jim Ray accounted for all the Burnett scoring. The first touchdown came on a 20 yard pass play from Ray to Lyle Spence.

Dennis Boesiger caught a five yard pass from Ray for the second TD and a 35 yard pass from Ray to Boesiger gave Burnett their final touchdown.

All three extra points were scored on passes from Ray. On the receiving end of the extra point passes were Bruce Sebek, Bob Anderson and Bernie Rohrig.

The second half was a defensive battle with neither team being able to penetrate past the others goal line.

Gophers Outweigh Nebraska As Huskers Seek First Win

By Hal Brown

Coach Bill Jennings' Huskers will be looking for their first win of the season when they take the field against Minnesota at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Nebraska dropped a 20-0 decision to Texas last Saturday while Minnesota was idle. Saturday's game is rated a tossup by the oddsmakers.

"We don't know a thing about them," said Jennings, "It's just another dark opener."

Jennings has only seen a Minnesota team play once and that was in the early '50's when he scouted a Nebraska-Minnesota game for Oklahoma.

Outweighed

The Huskers will be outweighed by 18 pounds per man with Minnesota's average team weight listed at 217 and the Huskers at 199.

The Gopher line averages

218, tackle-to-tackle 223 and backs 192. Nebraska's line averages 203, tackle-to-tackle 215 and backs 185.

Minnesota, which lost six of seven starting linemen plus their number one quarterback, will probably start this way:

Left end, Dick Johnson; left tackle, Mike Wright; left guard, Gerry Shetler; center, Greg Larson; right guard, Tom Brown; right tackle, Arnie Osmundson; right end, Tom Moe; quarterback, Sandy Stephens; left halfback, Arlie Bomstad; right halfback, Bill Kauth and fullback, Tom Robbins.

Bill Bohanan is becoming the Huskers most versatile player. In the latest move, he is running as the number three fullback.

Jennings moved Bohanan to the fullback post when Steve Olsen suffered a face injury. Olsen will miss the Gopher trip.

Co-Captains

Nebraska co-captains for the Minnesota game are seniors LeRoy Zentic and Roger Brede. Brede has earned one football letter and performed as a hurdler on Frank Sevine's track squad last year.

Zentic is a two-letter winner from Rock Island, Illinois. He doubles as an outfielder on Tony Sharpe's baseball team in the spring.

Nebraska held a light, one-hour workout Thursday afternoon and will hold another practice session after arriving in Minneapolis. The team is due in Minneapolis at about 3 p.m. Friday.

Jennings named 38 players to the traveling squad. They are:

Right Guard; LeRoy Zentic, Dick Kosier, Don Houser, Al Fischer.

Right Tackle; Roland McDole, Joe Gacusana, Al Wellman.

Right End; Don Purcell, Max Martz, Dick McDaniel.

Fullback; Don Fricke, Noel Martin, Bill Bohanan.

Gene Ward, right halfback, will make the trip if he recovers from the flu. He was admitted to Student Health Thursday.

Salerno will be ready to go at either end slot if the need arises.

Nebraska is far behind in the won-lost standing of the series. The Huskers have won five, lost 28 with two tie games. The last Husker victory over Minnesota came in 1950 by the score of 32-26.

Minnesota won the last game 19-7 in 1954, the year Nebraska went to the Orange Bowl.
