Disappointed Cornhuskers Say "We're Still Better"

By Herb Probasco
"Football's a funny game, some days you win, some days you lose."

This was Pat Fischer's reaction to the Husker's 10-3 loss to a tough band of Kansas Jayhawks Saturday afternoon.

"They were a good team, but I still think we're better," a disappointed Clay White said.

"We just lost our trip to the Orange Bowl," Jon Poncego added. "It didn't seem like we wanted to win as bad as Kansas," he said.

Center Jim Moore said, "It's hard to tell what went wrong. We're a better ball club."

The hardest blow to the Cornhusker cause was the loss of senior quarterback Tom Kramer, who snapped a tendon in his leg just below the calf.

Kramer will be in a cast for four weeks, according to Coach Bill Jennings, and it is unlikely that he will be able to play in the last two games.

"They (Kansas) were a little bigger and stronger than we were," assistant coach Don Strasheim said, and "they played better than we did," he added.

"They'd make three yards and fall for four more," Strasheim pointed out.

Jennings summed it up, saying, "They were able to make the big play on the goal line, and we weren't."

The Nebraska mentor called Jayhawk halfback Curtis McClinton "as good a power back" as he has seen all season.

McClinton almost enrolled at NU, before he was enticed back to Kansas.

Asked if he thought Kansas was a better ball club than

Nebraska, Jennings retorted, "Today they were better."

Carroll Zaruba, who was the Husker's big ground gainer, said, "They just out-fought us."

Dick Kosier said, "It's hard to say what went wrong. No comment, I guess," he added.

With Kramer out for the season, the number two quarterback responsibility falls on sophomore Ron Meade.

Jennings said he thought Meade, who kicked the field goal for the Huskers' three points, would be able to handle the job.

"He'll have to be ready," Jennings added.

Nebraska Wins Opening Cross Country Contest

Coach Frank Sevigne's cross country runners won their opening meet of the season in a triangular with Kansas State and Colorado at Manhattan, Saturday.

The Huskers scored 32 points with five runners finishing in the top ten. Colorado was second with 35 and Kansas State finished with 61 points.

Duane Holman of Kansas State won the race with a time of 15:56.9 over the three-mile course. He was followed by Joe Mullins and Joe American Horse of Nebraska.

Other Nebraska finishers in the top ten were Richard Kier, 8th; Paul Nielson, 9th; and Ken Ash, 10th. Kier and Nielson are sophomores.

Nebraska's next meet will be against the Air Force Academy, Saturday, at Boulder.

Chamberlain To Appear In Lincoln

Wilt Chamberlain will be making his only appearance of the year in Lincoln when he comes to town tonight for a pre-season professional exhibition game.

Chamberlain scored 22 points as he led the Philadelphia Warriors to a 106-105 win over the St. Louis Hawks at Kansas City, Sunday.

The St. Louis Hawks feature Clyde Lovellette, another former Kansas star.

Game time is 8 p.m. and tickets are still available at the Pershing Municipal Auditorium Box Office.

CLARE CARRIES—Pat Clare, sophomore halfback, tries to elude Jayhawk tackler, Gilbert Wilson (43) as one of the officials hustles to get out of the way. Jayhawkers Lee Flachsbarth (11) and Ron Michaels (22) move up to help. Clare picked up 21 yards in three carries against Kansas.

Huskers Lose, 10-3; Indiana Will Be Band Day Opponent

By Hal Brown

After a 10-3 loss to Kansas in the Big Eight opener for both schools, Nebraska returns to non-conference action this weekend when they take on Band Day foe, Indiana.

The loss evened the Huskers' record at 2-2 for the season and dimmed their hopes of a trip to the Orange Bowl.

Although Kansas coach Jack Mitchell refused to talk in terms of a berth in the Orange Bowl, the Jayhawks must be rated co-favorites with Missouri.

The eventual winner probably won't be decided until the final game of the season when Kansas takes on the Tigers at Lawrence, Kan. Kansas and Missouri now boast 1-0 records in the conference with Kansas playing Kansas State, next, and Missouri meeting Oklahoma.

Indiana, Nebraska's Band Day opponent, will bring a 2-1 record to Lincoln, Saturday. They hold wins over Illinois, 20-0, and Marquette, 33-13, while losing to Minnesota, 14-24. The loss to Minnesota came one week after Nebraska had triumphed over the Gophers, 32-12.

Nebraska, with the exception of the Minnesota game, has yet to score more than a touchdown in any game and Saturday's game was a case of not being able to push the ball those final few yards into the end zone.

The Huskers had first downs twice in the second half near the Kansas goal line, but the Jayhawk defense stiffened and stopped the drives.

After battling to a 3-3 deadlock in the first half, Nebraska took the second half kickoff with Pat Fischer returning the ball to the Kansas 46.

The Huskers then moved to a first and ten on the Jayhawk 10-yard line as the Nebraska partisans began yelling for a touchdown. But Nebraska lost 20 yards on the next three plays with Tolly punting into the end zone on fourth down.

Kansas took over and went 80 yards in 18 plays for the winning TD with the scoring play being a pass from John Hadi to Dale Remsberg, who caught the ball while lying down in the end zone.

Omar Khayyam writes a new jingle

A jug of Wine,
A loaf of Bread and Winston's
Filter-Blend!

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should"? We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking. Winston is designed to taste good. Or, as Omar puts it: The Moving Lighter lights; and having lit, Flicks off. Then you draw on IT, And bit by bit smoking pleasure mounts; With Filter-Blend up front, Winston's got what counts!

Meet a Young Executive on the Champs Elysees

(SHE COULD BE YOU!)

Not long ago this young lady was a college senior. Today, she handles the responsibilities and decisions of an executive in one of the world's largest organizations. Today, she's an Army officer in Paris... a Lieutenant in the Women's Army Corps.

Her professional and social life is busy... exciting... happily balanced.

On duty, this young executive occupies a position requiring education, initiative and intelligence. The high salary and traditional privileges of an Army officer are hers.

Off duty, she enjoys her leisure time. (Free evenings and weekends plus 30 days annual paid vacation.) Perhaps she'll attend evening classes at the Sorbonne. Or make a skiing trip to St. Moritz. Or spend a holiday on the French Riviera. Whatever she does, she'll find a world of fun!

Of course, her assignment didn't have to be Paris. It might have been Heidelberg, Honolulu, Tokyo... even New York or Los Angeles.

But wherever this young lady goes, she enjoys a feeling of individual accomplishment. Because she began her career as an executive... an officer in the Women's Army Corps.

She could be you... this young executive on the Champs Elysees.

Special...1960 Summer Program for Juniors:

Want a special preview of Army life? Why not see it for yourself this summer? If you qualify for this limited program, you'll receive 4 weeks of orientation training during the summer of 1960—without any commitment. The sole purpose of this program is to help you decide—with confidence—if you want to apply for a commission after you graduate. If you're interested, today is the day to mail the coupon. There's no obligation.
