Another practice will be Oct. 21.

On the Social Side:

Pinnings, Engagements Were Scarce Monday

Only one sorority and fraternity witnessed a pinning ceremony Monday night. The two houses were Kappa Delta and Sigma Phi Epsilon. And the candy and cigars were for a really festive occasion.
Not only did a KD and a Sig Ep get pinned Monday night; they also announced their engagement. The Alpha Phis recorded a pinning and an engagement too, but did not have a ceremony.

Pinnings
Marilyn Phillips, a Kappa Delta sophomore in Arts and Sciences from Bassett, to John Kern, a Sigma Phi Epsilon senior in Engineering from Lincoln.

Barbara Hyland, an Alpha Phi senior in Teachers from Omaha, to Bert Giebel, a Sigma Alpha Epsilon senior at Boston University.

Engagement
Diane Mertz, an Alpha Phi freshman in Teachers from Grand Island, to Dick Alderson from Grand Island.

First 'Pot-Luck' Dinner Sunday

The first "Pot-Luck with the Profs" dinner of the semester will be Sunday in the Ag Student Union.

The program will start at 5:30 p.m. and last until 7:30 p.m. Entertainment and the meal will be furnished by a faculty committee.

Student-faculty committee chairmen are Judy Griffith and Fran Johnson.

Florida Prof Plans Chem Talk

Dr. James Quagliano, associate professor of chemistry at Florida State University, will be the featured speaker at the American Chemical Society meeting.

Dr. Quagliano, an authority in the field of infrared studies, will address the group at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 324 Avery Laboratory.

Medical Schools Exam Oct. 31

The medical college admission test will be given Oct. 31. This test is required of students entering any accredited medical college in the United States and Canada.

It is the last time the test will be given for students who are applying for admittance medical college in September of 1960.

Application forms are available at 306 Bessey Hall. They must be on file at the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey, by Oct. 17, 1959.

Faculty Women Sell Used Items

Everything from baby clothes to washing machines are being sold in "The Nearly New," faculty women's shop.

The shop is located in temporary G, behind Student Health. Items are collected by faculty women.

A tea for the women's club will be held today at the home of Mrs. Clifford Hardin, wife of the Chancellor. Everyone who attends should bring items for the shop.

Hours for the shop are Thursdays, 7-9.

K-State Rally Is Pajama Game

Pajamas promote spirit? Kansas State must have thought so. They tried a Pajama Pep rally last Friday night for which 300 students turned out.

And two girls were even announced as being "best dressed."

Ag Exec Meet

Ag exec board will meet tonight in the Ag Union at 7 p.m. All members should attend.

Grad's Late Piano Study Broke Musician Tradition

Korean Kyung Ae Ko, a graduate piano major, breaks the tradition that musicians must begin their study at the age of five.

Ko, who is from Seoul, Korea, had intended to become a doctor until her sophomore year in high school.

However, her mother objected, saying that there were already 18 doctors in the family—taking into consideration her mother's side of the family as well as her father's.

And Ko's father was a doctor too!

But Mrs. Ko, who had broken the tradition of marrying a man of her parent's choice, evidently decided that her daughter could also break with the tradition of being a doctor. Mrs. Ko had been a member of the royal family of Choo.

With a little inducement and force, Mrs. Ko was sure that she could interest her daughter in piano rather than medicine. The inducement took the form of a new grand piano and the force was locking Ko in the private practice room.

But Ko wasn't impressed until she won first place in a

German Club Meets Thursday

The University German Club will hold its first meeting of the year Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in 332 Student Union.

During four years of training at Shenandoah Conservatory in Dayton, Va., she practiced from four to six hours a day. She practices at least three hours a day at the University.

And now she is considering being a concert pianist.
