

Indiana Is Band Day Foe

Clare and Fricke Are Doubtful

Pat Clare and Don Fricke are still doubtful performers for the upcoming Band Day fray with Indiana. Kickoff time at Memorial Stadium is 2 p.m. Saturday.

Fricke missed the Kansas game last week and is still bothered by a "charleyhorse". Head coach Bill Jennings said that the decision about whether Fricke would play would not be made until game time.

Clare carried the ball three times against Kansas and picked up a total of 21 yards. He has been hampered all season by a foot injury and it may keep him out of the Hoosier game.

"They're a typical Big Ten team and we'll have to play over our heads to win", was Jennings comment about the Hoosiers. Indiana has a 2-1 record with wins coming over Marquette and Illinois and losing to Minnesota.

Nebraska has defeated Minnesota and Oregon State and lost to Texas and Kansas.
