Huskers End Non-Conference Action; Missouri Is Next Foe

By Hal Brown
Nebraska's gridder will enter the conference race in full swing this week as they travel to Missouri for a very important encounter with the Tigers.

The 23-7 loss to Indiana, Saturday, was the last of the Huskers' non-conference games. After Missouri, Nebraska entertains Oklahoma in the homecoming game and then meets Iowa State, Colorado and Kansas State.

The Indiana game was a case of Nebraska not being able to do anything right and the Hoosiers being able to do no wrong. Indiana scored on the second play of the game after recovering a Nebraska fumble on the Husker four-yard line.

The Huskers fumbled seven times during the afternoon with Indiana recovering four of them. The Hoosiers dominated play throughout the game running a total of 84 plays of only 39 by Nebraska and picking up 20 first downs while holding Nebraska to six, three of them by penalties.

The only Nebraska touchdown came on a 19-yard pass play from Harry Tolly to Carroll Zaruba with Zaruba bulging his way into the end zone.

Missouri's 23-0 loss to Oklahoma evened their conference record at 1-1 with the win coming against Iowa State.

a 2-0 conference mark and must play Oklahoma, Saturday.

Help Choose The Queen

Nebraska has no wins and one loss in conference action and another loss would completely eliminate them from any possibilities of a bowl trip.

The game is equally important to Missouri since they must win to keep pace with Kansas. The Jayhawks have

NU Runners Edge Past Iowa State

Joe Mullins of Nebraska nipped the Huskers' Joe American Horse by .01 seconds for first place in Nebraska's cross country victory over Iowa State. Mullins' time was 15:10.

It was the third consecutive year that the Huskers have beaten the Cyclones by one point. This year it was 27-28 with the low score winning.

Jennings Calls First Half Of Season A Tough One

By Herb Probasco
"We've gone through half the season and it's been a tough half," mused the dejected Husker Coach Bill Jennings, as he sat in the fieldhouse after his team's loss to Indiana.

"You don't play people like this every week and not get beat up," he added.

The Nebraska mentor wasn't making any excuses about Saturday's loss.

"Indiana's about as good as anything we've seen next to Texas," he commented.

"We never got out of the hole," he noted. "We gave them a break and it was a big break."

Husker fullback Noel Martin commented on the tackling and blocking of the Hoosiers. "That's the hardest I've been hit in quite a while," he said.

"It just wasn't our day," moaned halfback Dallas Dyer. "They hit pretty hard, but they weren't too fast," he added.

"Everything went wrong," said tackle Roland McDole. "They don't get any easier," he added, as was evident by the numerous bumps and bruises the Husker's picked up in the rugged game.

Frosh Gridders Impressive In 33-13 Win Over Cyclones

By Dave Wohlforth
In their first outing of the year, the Nebraska Freshman team exploded for five touchdowns to smother the Iowa State Frosh, 33-13, Friday at Memorial Stadium.

The decisive victory was the third straight for Husker freshmen, as the '58 squad knocked off Iowa State and Kansas State.

Going into the second quarter trailing 7-6 the Huskers exploded for two quick TD's to break the game wide open. After a scoreless third period Nebraska scored twice more in the final stanza to ice it up.

Three intercepted passes and a blocked punt by Nebraska played an important part in the game.

Thornton Plunges
The Huskers plunged early in the game as Thunder Thornton capped a 45-yard drive with a one-yard plunge. John Faiman's extra point kick was blocked.

Late in the first quarter, Bill Comstock intercepted a Cyclone pass to give the Huskers the ball on their own 22. From here they marched to paydirt in 14 plays with 9:25 left in the first half.

Ernie Bonistall did the signal-calling and the score came on an 18 yard pass from Bonistall to Bill McDonald. Isaac Newton was the receiver of Bonistall's x-tra pass which put Nebraska ahead 14-6.

Minutes later, a blocked Omaha set up another Nebraska score. Guard Doug Kluck scooped up the loose ball and hustled 36 yards to the Iowa State 7. After penalties against both teams, Bonistall plunged over from the one.

The Husker's next score came in the fourth quarter on a 13-yard power play by Newton, who had given the Cornhuskers the ball with a sensational pass interception at the Cyclone 45.

The final score of the day came on a 52-yard interception runback by Jim Burd.

Just four years out of college...
He heads a team of 63 people

L. Dean Darbe graduated from Kansas State U. in 1955 with a B. S. degree in electrical engineering. Today he is Supervising Service Foreman for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hutchinson, Kansas. Dean has five Foremen and 58 craftsmen reporting to him. He's got full responsibility—covering installation, maintenance, testing and repair—for 21,000 telephones and all the equipment that serves them.

"It's interesting work," says Dean, "and it keeps me on the go. Here are a few of my activities during a recent day on the job."

"8:30 a.m. I meet with one of our Foremen at the plant garage to discuss a cable-pessurizing job. We're putting all aerial cable in Hutchinson under air pressure to keep out moisture which causes cable failure and costly service interruptions."

"10:15 a.m. My boss, District Plant Superintendent Randy Barron, and I go over plans for an addition to our dial central office. Several pieces of large and complex switching equipment will have to be rearranged to tie in with the new facilities."

"1:30 p.m. After lunch, I drive out to the new plant of a mobile home manufacturer. My men are completing installation of a new-type cordless switchboard. I discuss features of the new equipment with the firm's Vice President and Plant Manager."

"3:00 p.m. At our toll center we'll soon be adding another test desk to increase our facilities for 'trouble shooting' Long Distance circuits. Here, with our Chief Testboardman, I go over some of the board changes which will have to be made."

"That's about it for one day. Tomorrow's schedule will be different. I'm doing interesting, challenging work all the time—and I'm given plenty of responsibility. That's what I like about my job."

There are countless young men like Dean Darbe who are moving ahead in supervisory careers with the Bell Telephone Companies. You could be one of them. Talk it over with the Bell interviewer when he visits your campus—and read the Bell Telephone booklet on file in your Placement Office.
