MU Ruined Huskers Homecoming in 1958

By Hal Brown
The Nebraska gridgers will be trying to even things up when they take the field against Missouri at Columbia, tomorrow. Kickoff is at 1:30 p.m.

Missouri spoiled the Huskers homecoming last year with a 31-0 triumph. This year, it's Missouri's homecoming with Nebraska providing the opposition.

Migration
This weekend is also migration (unofficial, but who cares) and approximately 1,000 students are expected to make the trip south.

Both teams are still in the battle for the Orange Bowl berth, so the game takes on added meaning. A defeat for the Huskers would eliminate them from the race and a loss by Missouri would make it an uphill struggle for the Tigers.

If Missouri wins, the Big Eight representative probably won't be decided until November 21 when Missouri and Kansas meet in the last game of the season for both teams.

Kansas has a 2-0 conference record with wins over Nebraska and Kansas State. The Jayhawks meet Bud Wilkinson's Sooners, Saurdard, Missouri's Big Eight mark is 1-1 with a win over Iowa State and a loss to Oklahoma.

Nebraska is 0-1 in the conference with a loss to Kansas. Missouri and Nebraska have identical overall records of two wins and three losses.

Lose Opener
The Tigers lost their opener to a tough Penn State team, 19-8, but bounced back to score a 20-15 triumph over Michigan with the winning score coming in the closing seconds of the game. They opened the Big Eight campaign with a 14-0 win over

Runners Bid For 3rd Win

Nebraska's two Joe's, Mullins and American Horse, will renew their personal duel tomorrow when the Nebraska cross country team goes against Missouri at Columbia.

Mullins finished second and American Horse third in the Huskers opening meet of the season, a triangular with Kansas State and Colorado. Last weekend, Mullins nipped American Horse in a race for first place against Iowa State.

Mullins was clocked at 15:10 for the three-mile race and American Horse was right behind with a time of 15:11.

The Huskers have an undefeated string of two meets as they encounter the Tigers. Missouri handed coach Frank Sevigne's harriers their only loss last season and both teams have essentially the same runners returning.

Dwight Nichols and company. Missouri has scored only two points in their last two games while giving up a total of 46 to Southern Methodist and Oklahoma. They managed a safety against SMU in a 23-2 loss and were shut out by the Sooners last week, 23-0.

Nebraska dropped a 20-0 decision in their opener against still-unbeaten Texas and then romped to an easy 32-12 win over Minnesota. The Huskers made it two wins in a row with a 7-6 squeaker over Oregon State.

Nebraska has lost its last two games, 10-3, to Kansas and giving away a 23-7 game against Indiana last week.

The Huskers have scored more points in their lone road game than they have in four home games combined. Nebraska has scored a total of 17 points in four home games and scored 32 against the Gophers at Minnesota.

Mel West
Mel West, Missouri halfback, is the third leading rusher in the Big Eight for the first five games with a net gain of 304 yards in 60 carries.

The Tigers' Donnie Smith

is ninth with 243 yards in 46 carries. Noel Martin and Clay White are the leading Nebraska rushers with 135 yards each. This puts them 14th and 15th in the conference standings.

Phil Snowden and Bob Haas, Missouri quarterbacks, rank sixth and 11th respectively among the Big Eight passers. Snowden has completed 16 of 46 pass attempts for 214 yards while teammate Haas has thrown 16 times, completing four of them for a total of 72 yards.

The Tiger quarterbacks' favorite target is end Danny LaRose, a 220-pounder who has snagged seven passes this season for 142 yards.

Only once in the last 17 games between the two schools has Missouri failed to score at least two touchdowns and Missouri won that one, 10-6 in 1952.

Huskers Lead

The two teams have met on the gridiron 52 times since 1892 with Nebraska winning 28, Missouri winning 21 and three games ending in a tie.

The last Husker victory came in 1956 by a 15-14 margin to make it three consecutive wins over the Tigers.

Two-Sport Star Brede Bolsters NU End Corps

By Dave Wohlforth
One of the stalwarts of the Husker end corps this year is Roger Brede. Hailing from Ainsworth, he has turned in some outstanding performances from his left end slot.

In victories over Minnesota and Oregon State he cracked through the opposing line to halt several wide sweeps.

Speed is a big factor in Brede's play and he makes good use of it, both offensively and defensively. Besides a letter in football, he won an 'N' in track last spring.

He runs the hurdles and the highs and lows. He has turned the high in 15.0.

Brede tips the scales at 180 pounds, stands six feet, is 21 years old, single, and a senior in Ag College. He is active in the N Club.

Roger returned to action this fall after sitting out last year with a broken wrist. He earned his first football letter as a sophomore.

While he was attending Ainsworth, the versatile athlete received nine monograms, performing in football, basketball and track.

Roger's interests include hunting, golf and other sports. After graduation he will return to Ainsworth to ranch.

Rally At Missouri

Migrating Cornhuskers will have a chance to show their spirit to Missouri skeptics.

Nebraska cheerleaders will hold a pep rally at the Tiger's Student Union.

The rally will be at 12:30 p.m. Kick-off is at 1:30.

NU Kickers To Oppose

The Nebraska Soccer Club will begin a two-game road trip when they meet the University of South Dakota kickers at Vermillion, Saturday.

The Huskers have a 1-3 record for the season and will play in Omaha, Sunday. Nebraska defeated South Dakota last spring in the only other meeting between the two teams.

Nebraska lost its last game, 6-1, to the Lithuanians.

Do You Think for Yourself?
(BLAST OFF ON THESE QUESTIONS AND SEE IF YOU GO INTO ORBIT*)

Do you believe that when a man insists on doing what he can do best, regardless of where he finds himself, he's (A) a valuable member of the community? (B) an independent spirit? (C) apt to be pretty silly?
A B C

If you saw a fully clothed man about to jump into a river, would you (A) assume the fellow was acting and look for a movie camera? (B) dismiss the whole thing as a piece of personal exhibitionism? (C) rush to stop him?
A B C

Do you believe that "a stitch in time saves nine" is (A) an argument for daylight saving? (B) a timely blow against planned obsolescence? (C) a way of saying that when you use foresight you get along better?
A B C

In choosing a filter cigarette, would you pick one that (A) says it has a new filter? (B) merely says it tastes good? (C) does the best filtering job for the finest taste?
