

Don Purcell . . . Star of The Week

Don Purcell Is Named Daily Nebraskan Star

This week's star stands in a good position to become one of the best players ever to wear the Scarlet and Cream. He is sophomore end Don Purcell.

The 205-pounder earned a starting position on the first unit early in the season and as the Huskers go into their seventh game, the sturdy Purcell has proven his worthiness beyond any doubt.

Purcell sparked the Husker deepest penetration in last Saturday's game with a spectacular catch late in the fourth quarter. This, with his usual admirable defensive job, earned him this week's honor.

"I'm glad I came to Nebraska," said the red-haired Purcell who had offers from 11 schools. He had scholarships offered from Iowa, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Montana, Iowa State, Arizona State, U.C.L.A. and western Michigan in both football and baseball.

Due to spring practice last year, Purcell had little time for baseball but he hopes to play this year. He is a catcher.

When asked about he team spirit, Don had this to say, "It is real good, but the bad breaks are hurting us more than anything else. We got bad breaks in both of our last two games, Missouri and Indiana."

"We should win our last three games," said Purcell. "With any luck we could beat Oklahoma. I think we are up for them. If we beat Oklahoma that would make our season complete," he added.

Purcell named Indiana as the toughest team the Cornhuskers have played. "The single-wing made the difference," said Purcell.

"With a few breaks we can still make this season a good one," said Don and added, "Just watch us next year."

Don't look now, but after three Big Eight games, "po' little Iowa State is tied for second place in the conference race and with a second place finish goes a trip to the Orange Bowl.

The Cyclones have been nicknamed the "Dirty Thirty" because of their limited number and although they have some tough games remaining on the schedule, their record to date is impressive.

Head coach Clay Stapleton's hardnosed squad has scored a total of 163 points while holding their opponents to 32 points in winning five of six games. Iowa State's only loss was a 140 shutout suffered at the hands of Missouri.

The Cyclones have not allowed a point to be scored against them in their last two encounters against Colorado and Kansas State. The "Dirty Thirty" defeated Colorado, 270 and Kansas State, 260.

The Cyclones face the toughest part of their schedule in the next four weeks when they take on Kansas, Nebraska, San Jose State and Oklahoma. But, even if they don't win another game, it will be considered a successful season at Iowa State.

Last year, the Cyclones failed to win a conference game and they have already surpassed that mark this year.

Iowa State's early season success could be partially accounted for by their schedule. While other conference teams are facing big bruising teams such as Syracuse, Texas, Michigan, Indiana and others, the Cyclones take it easy against Drake, Denver and

By not playing such a bruising schedule, Iowa State is in better physical shape than teams such as Nebraska and Missouri when Big Eight play rolls around.

Another explanation may be that Stapleton has narrowed his team down to those boys who have a sincere desire to play football for Iowa State and give that little extra for the school.

Stapleton is a firm believer in physical conditioning and undoubtedly loses some boys through his strenuous fall camps but the players remaining are in peak condition.

Before making a final decision on the "Dirty Thirty," let's wait and see what happens at Lawrence, Kansas, this weekend when the Cyclones take on the Jayhawks in a vital conference game for both schools.

Linemen Zentic and Moore Will Be Co-Captains Saturday

Seniors LeRoy Zentic and Jim Moore will share the captain duties Saturday when Nebraska plays host to the Sooners of Oklahoma in the Homecoming game.

Coach Bill Jennings announced three changes in the first two line-ups effective Tuesday.

Center Darrell Cooper is slated to see defensive duty and halfback Clay White will be used frequently against Oklahoma, according to Jennings.

"Noel Martin, sophomore fullback is doubtful," said Jennings. "He is coming around pretty fast, though," he added.

Cross Country Runners Travel To Colorado

Coach Frank Sevigne will send his undefeated cross country runners against Colorado at Boulder, Saturday.

It will be the final test for the Huskers before the Big Eight championships at Lawrence, the following weekend.

Joe Mullins and Joe American Horse have led the Huskers to a triangular win over Kansas State and Colorado and dual victories over Iowa State and Missouri.

Nebraska Riflers Defeat Missouri For Second Win

The Nebraska rifle team defeated Missouri, 1486 to 1478, at Columbia Saturday.

It was the Huskers second consecutive Big Eight victory as Conley Cleaveland led the shooters with a 286. Other members of the Nebraska team were Dick Seaman, Andris Stakis, Dick Christensen and Mike Flannigan.

The Husker riflemen will take their 2-1 record to Omaha Saturday for a match with Creighton University at 9 a.m.
