By Dave Wohlforth
Duane Mongerson, 6' 4", 210 pound tackle, is playing his third straight year for the Huskers, having won two previous football letters. Mongerson, who also participated in track last spring, is one of the big barriers in the surprisingly tough NU line this year. Last year, Duane saw 463 minutes of action and was a big factor in the Huskers' outstanding line play in the Pittsburgh game. He lists this 14-6 upset as his top thrill at Nebraska. Of this year's opponents, Duane believes the Texas backfield and offense the best, while Indiana had the best line and defense.

Mongerson attended Omaha North, where he was outstanding in football and track, winning two letters in each sport. He was selected as tackle for the Intercity League Grid Team and the All-State squad plus earning a High School All-American Award. In track, his discus toss of 148' 6" set a school record. Duane is 21 years old, married and a senior in Teacher's College. He is a member of 'N' Club and has a 5.5 scholastic average. His plans for the future are to teach Industrial Arts and coach track and football. Besides these sports, Mongerson enjoys swimming, fishing and hunting.

Frosh Gridders In Season Finale

Undefeated Season Is Nebraska Goal

A second consecutive undefeated season will be the goal of Nebraska's freshman footballers when they clash with the Kansas State yearlings at Manhattan today. Kickoff time is 3 p.m. Last year's frosh defeated Iowa State and Kansas State for an unbeaten season and this year's squad holds a 33-13 win over the Cyclones. Nebraska held the Wildcats to a safety last year in taking a 19-2 victory.

K-State Loss

Kansas State dropped their opener to Kansas, 27-12, after holding a 12-7 lead midway in the third quarter. Wildcat freshman coach Ed Dissinger has juggled his lineup considerably since the Jayhawk encounter. Five new faces will be in the Kansas State starting lineup. Starting their first game for the Wildcats will be Mike Justice, quarterback; Benny Cochran, left halfback; Darrell Shurtz, left tackle; Ted Ziekle, center; and Mike Corazin, left end.

Rounding out the starting unit for Kansas State will be Dennis Winfrey, right end;

Sonny Calta of Omaha will be on the second unit for the Wildcats and he will be opposing three high school teammates now on the Husker roster. Calta attended Omaha South with Huskers John Faiman, Jack Fiscoan and Ron Eissler.

Calta broke up the Nebraska high school all-star game with a 77-yard punt return. He started against Kansas but has been dropped to the alternate unit for the Nebraska game.

Freshman coach Warren Schmackel announced tri-captains for the battle with Kansas State. They are Ernie Bonistall, John Faiman and Eddie McBride.

Bonistall and Faiman are quarterbacks and McBride is a center. Bonistall hails from Williamsville, N.Y. and received the Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week award for his performance against Iowa State. Faiman was the starting quarterback against the Cyclones and will start again today. He was an all-state quarterback at Omaha South. McBride is a 6-0, 205-pounder from Muskegon Heights, Michigan. Starters Schmackel announced the following probably starting lineup: Bill McDonald, left end; Bill Schachel, left tackle; Bob Jones, left

Simmons Wins Championship

Jerry Simmons, Delta Tau Delta, won the intramural free throw championship here Monday night.

Sport Signals

by Hal Brown

The Big Eight spotlight this weekend will be focused on Lawrence, Kansas, where the Jayhawks entertain Iowa State's Cyclones in a battle for second place in the conference.

Iowa State, Kansas and Missouri are currently tied for second with Missouri playing Colorado at Boulder. The Cyclones have wins over Colorado and Kansas State and a loss to Missouri.

Missouri has defeated Nebraska and Iowa State with a loss to Oklahoma. Kansas boasts victories over Nebraska and Kansas State with their only conference loss being to Oklahoma.

Last week, this corner picked all five games right involving conference teams bringing the season record to 30 right and eight wrong for a percentage of .789.

This week's picture looks like this: OKLAHOMA STATE 28, MARQUETTE 6 — The Cowboys in their eyes after last week's 7-6 squeaker over Kansas and Nebraska doesn't seem to be able to find the goal line.

KANSAS 14, IOWA STATE 6 — The Cyclones dream will come to an end Saturday but it was nice while it lasted.

MISSOURI 21, COLORADO 7 — The Tigers are still looking forward to the Orange Bowl and should romp over the Buffs.

IOWA 42, KANSAS STATE 0 — Kansas State's only win of the season came against South Dakota State and the Wildcats will be hopelessly outclassed this week.

OKLAHOMA STATE 28, MARQUETTE 6 — The Cowboys are working on a four-game winning string and should have little trouble in extending it to five.

NEBRASKA FROSH 27, KANSAS STATE FROSH 13 — The Husker yearlings should complete their second successive undefeated season today.

Intramural Coverage

I realize that the intramural coverage in the Daily Nebraskan has been practically nil. This has been mainly because of two things.

Number one is time. There are only so many hours in the day and I can't cover all the intramurals and varsity sports at the same time. It would be like Gregg McBride trying to cover all the high school teams in the state without getting any correspondence from them.

The second reason is that very few organized houses have turned in any intramural news. I have always run any intramural stories turned into my office and will continue to do so, but this is a two-way street.

I can't write the stories without information and since there is a time problem, I will leave it up to the houses to turn in their intramural sports news with this promise. If it is turned in by noon of the day after the event, I will run a story of it.

The Daily Nebraskan sports desk scheduled a meeting of intramural managers about three weeks ago. The meeting received adequate publicity but only four houses bothered to send representatives.

If this is an indication of the interest in intramural sports coverage, then maybe the few inches it has received has been too much.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Remember two years ago when we defeated Kansas in basketball and Chancellor Clifford Hardin gave us a day off from school on the condition that we not ask for another until we beat Oklahoma in football. Enough said!

Undefeated NU Harriers Meet Buffs

Nebraska's cross country runners will be trying to complete an undefeated dual and triangular season when they journey to Boulder for a match with Colorado at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Nebraska finished ahead of Colorado, 32-35, in a triangular meet with Kansas State earlier this fall. Since then the Buffs have won a pair of duals from the Air Force Academy.

The Huskers opened the season with a triangular win over the Buffs and Wildcats and hold dual victories over Iowa State and Missouri.

Joe Mullins and Joe American Horse are the leading Nebraska point winners. Mullins has a 1st place finish and two 2nd places to his credit and American Horse has finished 2nd once and 3rd twice. Saturday's match will end the dual season with the Big Eight Championships being held at Lawrence, Kansas, Nov. 7.

The following runners will make the Colorado trip: Mullins, American Horse, Bill Melody, Ken Ash, Paul Nielsen, Dick Kier and Jerry Marples.

Cross Country Run Draws 22 High Schools

Twenty-two high schools will compete in the annual Nebraska fall cross country run Saturday morning at 10:45.

It will be held over the University of Nebraska course but the high school runners will compete at 1.9 miles.

Schools who will be represented include Lincoln Southeast, Tekamah, Lincoln High, Hyannis, Hastings, O'Neill, Boys Town, Lincoln Northeast, Valentine, Seward, Butte, Crofton, Creighton Prep, Plattsmouth, Kearney, Aurora, Rock County (Basset), Hebron, Friend, Randolph, Grand Island and Omaha North.
