Union Plans Annual Trip For Skiers

The Student Union has a suggestion for a perfect Christmas gift for students this year.

The annual Union ski trip will be held during Christmas vacation this year.

Participants will leave Lincoln Dec. 29 and return Jan. 2, the Saturday before classes resume. Three days will be spent in the Winter Park ski area near Denver, Colo., which features ski slopes for all types of skiers from the beginner to the professional.

Expert ski instruction as well as all necessary ski equipment will be included in a $65 rate for each person taking the trip, the Union said.

Besides lessons and equipment, this rate also will cover board and room at Winter Park Lodge, ski lift fees, entertainment and transportation costs to and from Colorado.

Entertainment available at the area includes ice-skating, sleigh riding and facilities for group socializing.

Anyone interested in signing up for the trip should contact John Schroeder at 2-6523, or Sharon DeMars at 2-3287. The deadline for signing up is Dec. 1.

Stars of The Week:

Daily Nebraskan Awards Go To Entire Grid Team

This week's Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week award goes to the entire Nebraska football team for their resounding upset of Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma Sooners.

It was a team victory all the way with Harry Tolly's punting keeping the Sooners in the hole. Ron Meade's two field goals and one extra point kick were of vital concern.

Pat Fischer played probably the best game of his career and exemplified the Husker spirit when he waved a stretcher away and hobbled off the field with a sprained knee, only to come back later and set up a touchdown with a beautiful pun return.

LeRoy Zentic alertly grabbed a partially blocked punt and carried it into the end zone for a Husker touchdown. The linemen were just as tough as usual and went the last few minutes on desire and instinct.

Mention must also be given to the reserves who never got into the game but who played a vital part with their encouragement and their work in practice sessions.

This Husker football team gave the students, alumni and guests something they will never forget, a victory over Oklahoma. The entire state owes Coach Bill Jennings and his band of Huskers a sincere thanks for giving them a chance to hold their heads high again.

ey, Duane Mongerson, Russ Edeal and Leon Janvoy.

Centers: Jim Moore, Mick Tingelhoff, Darrell Cooper, Brue O'Callaghan and Roland Wallick.

Right guards: LeRoy Zentic, Dick Kosier, Don Houser, Pete Williams and Jed Rood.

Right tackles: Roland McDole, Joe Gacusana, Al Wellman, Jim Raschke and Al Harants.

Quarterbacks: Harry Tolly, Ron Meade and Joe Rutigliano.

Right halfbacks: Clay White, Gene Ward, Jack Conger and Carroll Zaruba.

Fullbacks: Don Fricke, Bob Kitchen, Dave Roberts, Bill Bohanan, Don Jordan and Noel Martin.

Jennings Sticks With Moore And Zentic as Co-Captains

Nebraska head football coach Bill Jennings decided not to change a winning formula and named seniors im Moore and LeRoy Zentic co-captains for the second consecutive week.

Moore and Zentic were co-captains in the 25-21 upset win over Oklahoma Saturday and they will lead the Huskers again this weekend against Iowa State at Ames. Nebraska must win to keep their Orange Bowl hopes flickering.

"It worked well last week, why not try it again," said Jennings as he announced the game captains for the Cyclone fray.

The Huskers went through a rough scrimmage session Tuesday with the stress on pass defense. Iowa State is ranked high in the Big Eight offensive statistics with many of those yards coming via the airways.

"They have the first, second and fourth best passers in the Big Eight. They also have good receivers," said Jennings.

Jennings feels that the Nebraska pass defense has been "spotty" up-to-date but "fairly satisfactory" and is somewhat improved.

Tuesday's scrimmage was the last of the week for the Huskers.

Fullback Noel Martin, end Roger Brede, and halfback Gene Ward and Pat Fischer were held out of the heavy work Tuesday. Pat Clare, who has been slowed by a bad foot this fall, was given the go-ahead sign in the contact drill.

Nebraska will outweigh the Dirty Thirty nearly 20 pounds in the line and about 12 pounds in the backfield as both teams have outside chances for the Orange Bowl berth from the Big Eight.

The Huskers will leave Lincoln Friday and work out on the Drake University gridiron in Des Moines before going on to Ames.

Swim Meet Will Start Monday

Preliminaries in the intramural swimming meet will begin Monday with the 50-yard free style and the 200-yard medley relay.

Preliminaries will continue every Monday until Dec. 8 when finals will be held.

Entries will be accepted at the time the preliminaries are held with no one being allowed to compete in more than three swimming events. An individual may participate in three swimming events plus diving.

Finalists will be determined on the basis of time with the six fastest times qualifying for the finals. The seven highest scores in diving will advance to the finals.

Each diver must perform the five following dives during preliminaries: front dive, back dive, inward dive, reverse dive and half twist. Those qualifying for the finals must do the five mentioned above plus any other three dives.

The Coliseum pool is open for practice from 12:00 noon to 12:45 Monday through Friday and from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

Intramural Basketball Opens Soon

An intramural managers meet regarding basketball will be held at 5 p.m. Monday in Room 114 of the Physical Education Building.

The intramural basketball program will be organized into leagues of the following classes: Fraternity A, G, and C; Resident Halls; and Independents. A single round robin schedule will be played plus a double elimination tournament for the championship.

Players may be moved up from C to B or B to A but they may not be moved down and they may not play for any team other than the one with whom they began the season.

Last year all-university champions were the Chemists. Other leagues and their champions were: Fraternity A-Sigma Nu; Fraternity B-Sigma Nu; Fraternity C-Delta Upsilon.

Ag College-Kieselbach; Selleck Hall A-Gus II; Selleck Hall B-Gus I; Burr Hall-Kieselbach; Independents-Chemists.

Cobs, Tassels Seek 'N' Flags

Tassels and Corn Cobs are attempting to locate nine white flags with red "N's" which were taken from the Homecoming Dance Saturday night.

The flags were borrowed from Gold & Co. and must be returned, according to Winston Wade of Corn Cobs. He asked that the flags be returned into the main desk of the Student Union.

Aqualettes Tryout

Aqualettes will hold an open tryout tonight at 7 p.m. in the Coliseum pool.
