

NU Grid Record Continues To Improve

Long Runs By Zaruba And Fricke Spark Win

ZARUBA DRIVES FOR YARDAGE—Carroll "Pappy" Zaruba (31), Husker halfback bulls his way for a few extra yards with two Buffs trying to bring him down. Colorado's Walt Klinker has his hands on Zaruba and an unidentified player is at Pappy's feet. Other Buffs are Joe Romig (67) and Gale Weidner (10).

Nebraska's 14-12 win over Colorado, Saturday, assured Coach Bill Jennings of his best season since becoming head coach at Nebraska in 1957.

The win gives the Huskers a 4-5 record with Kansas State coming up Saturday at Manhattan. In his first year at the helm, Jennings' squad won only one game, that being a 14-7 win over the Wildcats at Manhattan.

Steady Improvement
Last year, Nebraska improved their record to 3-7 with big upsets over Penn State and Pittsburgh highlighting the season and with Saturday's victory over Colorado, Nebraska has improved on last year's record.

Two long runs in the first quarter gave Nebraska the win over the Buffs as the Huskers staved off a torrid Colorado passing attack in the last half.

The first score came with only 2:43 gone in the first quarter when the Husker's Don Fricke intercepted a pass from the talented arm of Colorado quarterback Gale Weidner and returned it 62 yards unmolested for the touchdown.

Sophomore quarterback Ron Meade's perfect placekick made it 7-0 in favor of Nebraska.

After the two teams exchanged punts twice, Colorado marched 38 yards for their first score with 11:21 gone in the first quarter.

Colorado Score
The Buffs took over on the Nebraska 38 and needed only six plays to push the ball over the goal line with Jerry Steffen and Dave Rife carrying the ball.

The big play was a 24-yard run by Steffen, a 191-pound junior halfback from Crofton, Neb., which put the ball on the six-yard line.

After Rife gained four yards, Steffen bulled his way over in two plays. A pass from Weidner intended for Chuck Weiss was incomplete for the extra point try and the Huskers still led 7-6.

Pappy Scores
It took Nebraska just three plays, after Gary Henson kicked off into the end zone, to score again. With a third down and three situation on the Husker 27, Carroll "Pappy" Zaruba broke loose and galloped 73 yards for the final Nebraska touchdown.

Meade's magic toe was again ushered into the game for the extra point try and he split the uprights to give the Huskers a 14-6 edge as the first quarter came to an end.

On their way, Weiss gained 20 on the first play to put the ball on the Colorado 40. Weidner took to the air but a forth down fumble by Teddy Woods gave the Huskers the ball on their own 44. Nebraska advanced to the Buff 19 before running out of downs.

Colorado took over with two and one-half minutes to play and 26,000 spectators moved to the edge of their seats as Weidner began to fill the air with footballs.

After moving to a first and ten on the Nebraska 25, the Huskers pass defense stiffened as Weidner threw four incomplete passes.

Nebraska took over with one minute remaining and Tolly just fell on the ball for two plays as the clock ran out giving Nebraska their second conference win.

Colorado led the Huskers in first downs with 16 to Nebraska's 11 and the Buffs gained a total of 371 yards to Nebraska's 240.

The Huskers outrushed Colorado 217 yards to 182 yards but were outpassed 189 to 23 yards.

Nebraska lost the ball three times on fumbles and had three passes intercepted. Both teams were penalized four times for a total of 30 yards.

Zaruba Leads
Zaruba closed out his home football career with a 7.2 yard average. He carried the ball 18 times and gained 129 yards.

Colorado used 73 plays with 37 of them being passes by Weidner. He completed 16 for 189 yards. Steffen and Weiss led the Colorado rushers with 72 and 69 yards respectively.

The win gave Nebraska a series edge over Colorado of nine wins against eight losses and one tie. It also gives Nebraska possession of the Buffalo head again.

The Nebraska victory also broke three-game winning streak for the Buffs this season and was the first Nebraska win over Colorado since 1955.

in the conference and end the Sooners' domination which began in 1948. Iowa State, Oklahoma and the winner of the Kansas-Missouri game would be tied for first place with 4-2 records.

Kansas tied for the conference championship with Oklahoma in 1946 and '47 but the Sooners have had it all to themselves since then.

In Saturday's action, Nebraska knocked Colorado out of the Orange Bowl chase with a 14-12 win. If Nebraska defeats Kansas State Saturday and Oklahoma wins over Iowa State, Nebraska would move into a four-way tie for third place in the conference.

The Huskers would be tied with Colorado, Iowa State and the loser of the Missouri-Kansas game. Kansas State is already assured of sole possession of the Big Eight cellar.

Missouri Romps
Missouri had little trouble in romping to a 26-0 win over Kansas State despite the fact that two of their first-string backs were unable to play and the other two were slowed by injuries.

Halfback Donnie Smith and fullback Ed Mehre, did not see action and halfback Mel West and quarterback Phil Snowden were hobbled by bumps and bruises.

Norris Stevenson substituting for the injured Smith scored one of the Tiger touchdowns and set up another. The Missouri defense held Kansas State to only four first downs and 94 yards rushing and passing.

Kansas broke a six-game Oklahoma State winning streak with a 28-14 win in a non-conference game. The Jayhawks first two touchdowns came on runs of 32 yards by John Hadl and 41 yards by Curtis McClinton as Kansas built up a 28-6 half-time lead.

The Cowboy's passing ace, Dick Soergel, was injured in the first half and did not play in the second half.

Cyclones Win
Iowa State racked up 55 points while holding San Jose State, the nation's number two passing team, scoreless. It was the Cyclones seventh win of the season against two losses with Oklahoma remaining on the schedule.

Iowa State scored five times in the first half to take a 34-0 lead at the half-time break. End Don Webb opened the scoring by running the opening kickoff back 77 yards for a touchdown.

Dwight Nichols, Iowa State's talented tailback, scored three touchdowns and passed for another as he gained 149 yards rushing and passing.

The victory gives Iowa State their best record since 1938 when they won seven, lost one and tied one. It was also the most points scored by an Iowa State team since 1952 and the worst defeat for San Jose since 1923.

Army Fumbles
Oklahoma scored seven points in each quarter to take a 28-20 victory over Army. Three of the Sooner scores were as a result of Army fumbles in the cool 28-degree weather at Norman.

Quarterback Bobby Boyd scored two of the Sooner TD's with runs of nine and one yards.
