Star of The Week:

Zaruba Earns Nebraskan Award for Third Time

By Dave Wohlfarth
This week's Daily Nebraskan star of the week is a familiar name in this department. He's Carroll Zaruba, who turned in an outstanding performance to spark the Huskers past Colorado, 14-12. Zaruba has been 'Star of the Week' twice before, gaining recognition for his performances in the '58 and '59 Kansas games. His play this year has enabled the veteran halfback to wind up a highly successful career at Nebraska.

He hauled in TD passes in both the Oregon State and Indiana games this year. In both games, these were the only scores for Nebraska, as the Huskers edged OS 7-6, and lost to Indiana 23-7.

73-Yard Run

Saturday, Zaruba broke through right tackle for a 73-yard TD scamper which turned out to be the winning touchdown. He picked up 129 yards in 18 carries as he led the Husker attack.

In nine games this season he has gained 337 yards in 69 carries for a respectable 4.9 average. He is the Huskers' leading scorer with 24 points.

Zaruba is a 5' 9", 200-pound, senior letterman. He is active in 'N' Club and Phi Epsilon Kappa. He is single and in Teacher's College.

'Pappy' hopes to celebrate his 26th birthday, Monday, with a victory over K-State. He states, "We have to win the K-State game to make the season even. We should do it."

Fullerton Grad

Zaruba hails from Fullerton where he received eight letters, participating in football, basketball and track. He attended Doane for one year where he lettered in track and football. Next, he played two years of football with the Camp Lejeune, N.C., Marines before coming to Nebraska.

Pappy's top thrill at Nebraska was beating Oklahoma, who he lists as the toughest team the Huskers faced this year. Gale Weidner of Colorado rates as the outstanding player Zaruba has faced this year.

Ten Seniors To Captain NU Again

By Norm Beatty

The Huskers went through a defensive scrimmage Tuesday in preparation for the Kansas State game. The stress was on the "spread formation" used by the Wildcats.

Freshman quarterbacks Ernest Bonistall and John Faiman played the role of K-State's quarterback, John Solmos.

Coach Bill Jennings put his nearly-full-strength squad through their first outside practice this week.

The only player held out of the contact drill was injured junior halfback Pat Fischer. Jennings said that he expects Fischer to be ready by Saturday.

As in last week's victory over Colorado, the 10 seniors will again share the captain duties.

A win would give Nebraska an opportunity for a four-way tie for third place in the final Big Eight standings with an overall record of 5 wins and 5 losses and a conference mark of 3-3.
