

Wrestling Entries Due Friday Noon

Entry blanks for the intramural wrestling tournament are due in Room 402 of the Physical Education Building by noon Friday.

Organizations may enter as many wrestlers in any weight class as they wish but a contestant may enter only one weight. The weight classes are as follows: 123 lbs., 130 lbs., 137 lbs., 147 lbs., 157 lbs., 167 lbs., 177 lbs. and heavy-weight.

All contestants must have a minimum of five practice sessions before Dec. 6 on the varsity mats in the Coliseum basement. Practice sessions are held between 3 and 6 p.m. The wrestling manager will take roll and anyone who has not attended five practices will be ineligible for intramural wrestling.

Contestants will weigh in between 3 and 6 p.m. Dec. 7 and preliminary matches will begin Dec. 8 at 7 p.m.

The scoring will be as follows: First place counts 10 points, second place 7 points, third place 5 points and fourth place 3 points. One additional point shall be awarded for each fall secured throughout the meet.

Alpha Gamma Rho won the all-University championship last year while Gus II captured the Selleck crown and Phi Epsilon Kappa was the independent champion.

A trophy will be awarded to the team champions with medals going to individual champions in each weight class.

Blistering Second Half Singes Golden Falcons

By Hal Brown
Nebraska roared back from a 30-26 halftime deficit with a blistering second half to take a 73-46 victory over Stewart Air Force Base in the opening game of the cage season for the Huskers before an estimated crowd of 5,500 Tuesday night.

Jerry Bush's cagers ripped the nets for 47 points in the second half with 30 of them coming in the last eight minutes. Al Maxey and Hersch Turner led the second half surge with 13 and nine points respectively.

Maxey Leads
Maxey topped the evening's scoring with 18 points. Turner was a close second with 17.

Nebraska took a 2-0 lead with one minute gone in the game on a short jump shot by Turner but the Golden Falcons fired right back to tie it up on a long jump shot by Don Davidson.

The Huskers regained the lead at 5-4 on another jump shot by Turner and a free throw by Maxey only to fall behind again when Ted Switzer hit a long jump shot for Stewart.

Nebraska held the lead only twice more during the cold first half. The Huskers led 13-12 and 15-14. Trailing 15-14 with 10 minutes remaining in the half, the Golden Falcons pumped seven straight points through the basket while holding the Huskers scoreless to take a 21-15 lead.

Turner Ties
Stewart led from that point until five minutes after the second half opened when Turner scored on a tip-in to tie the score at 34-all. Turner was also fouled and the Husker captain hit the free throw to make it 35-34 in favor of Nebraska.

Dave Mowbray connected on a jump shot to give the Golden Falcons the lead for the final time at 36-35 as the Huskers raced to a 43-36 lead on a jump shot by Turner, a lay in by Maxey, a lay in and a free throw by Turner and another jump shot by Maxey.

From that point on, Nebraska continued to increase the lead over the winless Stewart team. The Golden Falcons suffered losses to Geneva College 70-68, Iowa 69-63 and Tuck Tapers 111-98 prior to last night's game.

Nebraska hit only 10 of 29 field goals the first half for a 34.5 percentage while Stewart found the range on 14 of 34 for a 41.2 mark.

Both teams had trouble from the free throw line during the first half with Nebraska connecting on 6 of 15 attempts for 40 per cent and the Golden Falcons finding the mark on 2 of 5 for 40 per cent also.

Nebraska out-rebounded their opponents during the first half 31-21.

For the entire game, the Huskers hit 30 of 76 field goal attempts for a percentage of 39.5 and had 13 of 31 from the charity stripe for 41.9 per cent. Nebraska dominated the boards throughout the game gathering in 77 rebounds to only 44 for the Stewart quintet.

Maxey, Turner and Bob Harry tied for the lead in rebounds for the Huskers with 10 each, followed by Jim Kowalke with seven and Rex Swett with six.

All-Big Seven
Virg Riley led the Stewart scoring with 11 points and Mowbray, an all-Big Seven choice while playing collegiate ball at Colorado added 10 for the Golden Falcons. Riley led the Stewart five in rebounding with 10.
