Husker Wrestlers Host Mankato State Tonight

Jim Raschke . . . Husker Heavyweight

Nebraska Still Needs First Win

Nebraska's grapplers are still looking for their first victory of the season as they take on Mankato (Minn.) State Teachers College at 7:30 tonight at the Coliseum.

Mankato has held the NAIA championship the last two years and are led by two outstanding sophomores. Mankato's top wrestlers, according to Husker wrestling coach Bill Smith, are Al DeLeon and Monte Peterson.

Prep Champion

DeLeon wrestles as an 130-pounder and Peterson is in the 157-pound class. Both were outstanding wrestlers in Minnesota prep rings with DeLeon being a three-time Minnesota High School Champion.

The Huskers have dropped matches to Oklahoma State, Oklahoma and Colorado Mines. Nebraska is led by sophomore heavyweight Jim Raschke who pushed Ted Ellis, Oklahoma State's NCAA champion, to the limit before losing an 8-6 decision.

On the same southern trip, Raschke defeated Dale Lewis of Oklahoma 6-5. Lewis is the Pan-American Games heavyweight champion.

First Start

Raschke is the only Nebraska matman with a win to his credit. He has won one, lost one and tied one. Harley will be making his first start for Smith's wrestlers.

Harley is a sophomore and a transfer from Hastings College. He wrestled one year in high school at Grand Island.

Nebraska Five To Clash With Jayhawks Saturday

By Hal Brown
Nebraska and Kansas basketballers will both be looking for their first wins in league competition when they take to the maples at the Coliseum Saturday. The tip-off is slated for 8:05 p.m.

Nebraska lost their first game of the conference campaign dropping a 57-53 decision to Big Eight tourney champs Iowa State Monday night at Ames. Saturday's game will be the first loop encounter for the Jayhawks.

Kansas was runnerup in the Big Eight tournament losing an 83-70 game to Iowa State in the championships. The Jayhawks defeated both Oklahoma schools enroute to the championship contest.

Coach Dick Harp's tall casters have won seven and lost four including wins over Northwestern, North Carolina State and San Francisco.

The Jayhawks present a formidable front line with Wayne Hightower (6-8½), Alan Donaghue (6-5) and Bill Bridges (6-5½). In the backcourt will be Jerry Gardner (6-0) and Butch Myers (6-1).

Hightower and Gardner are sophomores, Myers is a junior College graduate, Bridges is a junior letterman and Donaghue is the only senior on the starting unit.

The Huskers, under the tutelage of Jerry Bush, started the season with three consecutive victories but then hit a slump and lost seven in a row before coming up with a victory over Missouri for seventh place in the pre-season tourney at Kansas City.

Saturday's game will be the first home appearance for the road-weary Huskers since Dec. 17 when they lost a double overtime thriller to Michigan State when the Spartans scored the winning field goal as the buzzer went off.

Captain Herschell Turner is the leading Nebraska scorer going into the Kansas affair with 205 points for a 17.1 points per game average. He is followed by Al Maxey with 170 points for a 14.5 average.

Turner and Maxey have scored nearly half of the Nebraska total of 791 points. Jim Kowalke holds down the third spot with 89 points followed by Bob Harry with 63, Jan Wall with 62 and Rex Sweet with 52.

Fourteen Nebraska players have entered the scoring column thus far. The Huskers have hit 187 of 300 attempts from the charity stripe for a percentage of .623.

Oklahoma Is Placed On Probation

Jennings Is Blamed

Arthur L. Wood of Oklahoma City, the main figure in the probation ruling against Oklahoma, has blamed Nebraska football coach Bill Jennings for the NCAA action.

"I would say this whole thing probably has been brought on by Jennings disclosing information to the NCAA," said Woods.

The Sooners were slapped with an indefinite probation and banned from post season bowl games and television appearances for failure to disclose details of a fund for recruiting athletes.

The fund was administered by Wood and was found to have provided improper financial aid to a student athlete. Wood refused to open his records to the NCAA claiming that by so doing he would be subject to a $10,000 fine because he is a certified public accountant.

Wood claimed the money involved was money which he gave to Jennings personally to defray travel expenses for prospective athletes during a period from 1952 to 1954.

According to Woods, the contributions which he made was a violation of the Big Eight rules but not of the NCAA rules.
