

AUF Drive:

Selleck Quad Tops Its Last Donation

Selleck Quadrangle tops the All University Fund list for the greatest increase in contributions above last year's figures according to the comparative figures released to the Daily Nebraskan Saturday.

Selleck's contribution was $517.11 compared to $303.65 donated last year.

Other comparative figures show:

	This Year	Last Year
All Drive nearly completed.	$ 576.72	$ 203.65
Grad. medical and married students	40.89	32.48
Drive nearly completed.	152.50	181.32
Organized houses	216.70	271.03
Drive completed	1002.50	1434.33
Sororities	414.75	1129.29
Drive nearly completed	285.00	315.00
Organizations	152.50	1129.29
Drive nearly completed	600.00	670.25
Faculty Drive (Expected figure for the drive to begin in March.)	$3,768.68	$4,774.71

AUF officials expressed the hope that additional funds from the incomplete drives, particularly from fraternities, would bring the $5,500 goal closer.

Sue Carkoski, AUF president, said, "This year AUF emphasized the education of charity giving. We wanted the campus to be familiar with the function and purpose of each of the five charities they chose to receive their contributions."

"We feel the AUF was important to the campus in other respects," she continued. "It produced a united effort among AUF workers and volunteers."

Civil Service Ups Standards For Clericals

A new examination for stenographers and typists has been announced by the United States Civil Service Commission. New qualification standards and higher pay for those qualified to do better-than-average work have been made.

The new standards will be in effect in all parts of the country. All applicants must pass a written test covering verbal abilities, a clerical aptitude test which includes questions in arithmetic, and a typing test.

Applicants for stenographer jobs also must take a stenography test with dictation at the rate of 80 words per minute.

Announcements and application forms may be obtained from Gerald W. Valery, Civil Service Examiner in Charge, U.S. Post Office, Lincoln.

KNUS Has Disc Show From Crib

The University radio station, KNUS, has gone on the air with an evening disc jockey show originating from the Student Union Crib.

The "Campus Pop Shop," as it is called, is under the control of the station's program director, Jimmy Ray, and features the top 20 tunes of the day plus campus news and commentary.

The program is on the air from 8-9 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Disc jockies for the show are Denny Larson, Monday; Gary Dee, Tuesday; Mel Shauer, Wednesday; and Ken Allen, Thursday.

Wilson Fellows Get Assistance From Foundation

A $4,000 grant from the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation has been given to the Graduate College to assist advanced students.

A subsidy of $2,000 is given to each Wilson Fellow currently enrolled in Graduate College. Three-quarters of each $2,000 grant is to be used for assisting any students genuinely interested in a teaching career, whether or not they earlier received Wilson Fellowships. The remaining quarter is to be used at the discretion of the University to strengthen its graduate program.

Howard Carter and Kevin D. Reilly are the two Wilson Fellows at the University.

Community Concerts To Present Musical

"Voyage to the Moon," a musical fantasy based on the Jules Verne novel, will be presented tonight at 8:30 at Pershing Auditorium, the third show in the Lincoln Community Concert series.

Admission is limited to season ticket holders only. Doors will be open at 7:15 p.m. Concluding production of the series will be the National Ballet of Canada on March 28.

Short Plays To Be Given This Week

Two student-directed one-act plays will be presented by the University Laboratory Theater Friday and Saturday.

"The Traveler," by Marc Connelly, directed by Karen Walker, will be presented at 8 p.m. both nights in Room 201. The second play, "Day of Storms," an original script by Wilma Wolfe, will be presented immediately following in the Arena Theatre by Miss Wolfe.

After the performances, the audience will be invited to attend a discussion of "Day of Storms."

"The Traveler," a comedy, includes in its cast Wayne Soukup, Phil Boroff and Bob Gams. Production manager is J. William Milldyke.

The German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, murdered by Hitler in 1945, is the subject for the second play. The cast consists of Julie Williams, Jim Hamsa, Andy Wolvin, Louise Shadley and Foster (Woody) Haecker. John R. Wilson is production manager.

Rag Applications Are Due Today

Applications for paid staff positions on the Daily Nebraskan must be submitted to 311 Burnett by 5 p.m. today.

Positions and their salary on the editorial side a month include editor, $85; managing editor, $65; three copy editors, $35; news editor, $65; three staff writers, $35; and sports editor $45.

Business positions are business manager, $60; three assistants, $20 plus commissions and circulation manager, $60.

Lag in Business Closes Cafeteria

Lack of business is the reason for the closing of the Student Union cafeteria service on Saturdays.

This will not affect other food services of the Union, according to Union officials.

Orders for group luncheons and dinners will continue to be accepted for Saturdays and no change is being made in Crib service hours. The Crib is open from 7 a.m. to 1 a.m. on Saturdays.
