Although the semester break was greatly appreciated it caused this writer a certain amount of woe, the first time he walked into the office.

I have always been told if a news story isn't recent, don't bother with it. I don't think this is the case, however, in the field of University athletics.

A lot has happened since the last issue of first semester's Rag came out and I think somewhere on this page some credit should be given to these athletes.

After Monday night's explosive victory over Missouri, the cloud of gloom that has been floating around the Coliseum since mid December has finally lifted.

Coach Jerry Bush's boys provided a lot of excitement for Husker fans, particularly during the final half.

Many Nebraska followers are willing to forget the game with Colorado last Saturday night. Although the Huskers blew their extensive lead in the final minutes, there were a couple of things that happened during the first half, that hadn't happened all year.

For one thing, the Huskers were rebounding... all of them at the same time. The Nebraskans were up against some fairly tall boys, led by Buff Center Roger Voss a 6-7 sophomore.

Nebraska's big sophomore, 6-9 Al Buuck, caught fire during this same period. Buuck had acted reluctant to fight regularly for the rebounds prior to this game, but he forgot all about this Saturday night.

Buuck has seen how it is to scrap for the ball and evidently likes it. His actions against Missouri continued to improve, as he netted 13 points against the Tigers. The fans have tasted victory and they like it.

Other winter sports were also busy during the vacation. The wrestlers, still looking for their first victory of the season, ran up against some pretty tough competition in Kansas State. Although the grapplers won one event by forfeit, it was once again the muscular Jim Raschae who gained the varsity points.

By the way, the wrestlers will face off against the Air Force Academy Friday afternoon at the Coliseum. I'm sure the team would appreciate it if some of you fans would drop in.

The swimming team downed Pittsburgh Kansas and fell to the hands of Oklahoma during the vacation. In chalking up their ninth straight victory, the Sooner swimmers held the Husker's to only one second place, by Joe Stocker in the 200 yard breast stroke. The NU swimmers were void of first place positions and failed to win either of the relay events.

The meet against Pittsburgh was another story. Although no records were set, Nebraska picked five first place positions and grabbed the honors in the 400 yard medley relay.

Last and certainly not least on the winter sports scene is the gymnastics team. Of all the sports, only the gymnasts are undefeated.

During the break they took on Fort Hays, Kansas, and scored an overwhelming victory, 83-23.

Virgil Kubert paced the gymnasts with firsts in the high bar and the parallel bars. Fort Hays had to settle for only one first place, in the rebound tumbling.

In Big Eight activity besides Nebraska's long-awaited first conference victory Monday night, Colorado pulled the biggest surprise of the season when they knocked off Iowa State, 70-55, at Ames.

The Buffaloes stopped a second half rally by Iowa State after the Cyclones had pulled to within two points, 45-47, with 12 minutes left. The Buffs then started to move with Roger Voss and Wilky Gilmore pacing the attack. Gilmore was high scorer for Colorado with 18.

The win enabled Colorado to move from a third place tie into sole possession of the number two spot. The sophomore-laden Buffs, the hottest team in the league, now have a 4-2 conference record.

Defending champion Kansas State continues to lead the pack with a 5-0 mark. The Wildcats, ranked 15th nationally in the latest AP poll, have the second leading scorer in the conference in Wally Frank, 6' 8" forward.

Colorado is second followed by Oklahoma with a 3-2 record. The Sooners were knocked off by rival Oklahoma State last Saturday in a regionally televised battle. Following its loss to Colorado, Iowa State dropped from 2nd to 4th. The Cyclones, paced by rookie Vinnie Brewer, are 4-3 so far in league play.

Coach Hank Iba's Oklahoma State Cowboys are fifth in the Big 8, owning a 3-3 mark. The ball-control minded Cowboys are the leading defensive team in the league and one of the top defensive squads in the nation.

Although Kansas has the league's leading scorer in Wayne Hightower, the sensational sophomore from Philadelphia, they are a lowly sixth having won two and lost three. Hightower owned a 20 point plus average through the Jayhawks' first twelve games.

Nebraska and Missouri are tied for seventh with 1-5 won-lost showings. The Tigers' Charlie Henke, who hit 29 points Monday night, is the third leading scorer and Joe Scott holds the number four spot. NU's Hershell Turner is fifth in the conference.

There are four Big 8 games on tap for this weekend. The most important contest will be the K-State-Colorado battle at Boulder Saturday afternoon. This game will be regionally televised and shapes up as a tight feud. A Colorado victory would give them a 5-2 record and a good shot at the title.

In other games Saturday Iowa State will try to get back on the winning track at Kansas, Nebraska journeys to Oklahoma State and Missouri plays host to Oklahoma.

Career Booklet Now Available

Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity is making available free copies of a booklet entitled "Career: For the College Man," to all senior men and male graduate students.

The pamphlet will be available until Friday and may be obtained from fraternity presidents or from the book exchange in the old office of the Student Union, according to Steve Tempero, vice president of the organization.

Tournament Deadline Set

The Nebraska Union will hold two tournaments this weekend according to Barney Bauermeister, chairman of the Union Games Committee, sponsors of the local tourneys.

The All-Campus Bowling tournament will be held Friday, February 5, at 1 p.m. in the bowling lanes of the Nebraska Union. The Nu billiards tournaments is slated for Saturday, February 6, in the Union.

Nebraska students interested in these tourneys are urged by Bauermeister to sign up at the Union Games Desk. These tournaments are to determine Nebraska's representatives in Region 8 competition.

Winners in the Region 8 Bowling Tourney will then participate in the face-to-face tournament at Toledo, Ohio. Billiards' Region 8 winners will travel to Purdue University in Illinois to complete in the finals.

Bowling entrants in the Nebraska tourney will pay a $2 entry fee which will include 15 lines of bowling. Deadline for entries is Thursday, 6 p.m.

Deadline for entry in the Nebraska billiards tournament is 6 p.m., Friday. It is open to men and women.

First Semester Bowling Title Won By AGRs

Alpha Gamma Rho won the first semester Intramural Bowling Roll-off with a total of 5285 pins and were awarded the All-University Championship trophy. Manatt House was runnerup with 5256 pins.

In the final league standings Phi Delta Theta took the top spot of the Tuesday League winning 34 and losing 18. Brown Palace No. 1 was close behind with a 33-19 mark. The AGR's finished 3rd during the regular season.

Theta Xi captured the Wednesday night bowlers' title posting a 35-13 record. Second place went to Manatt, who won 32 and lost 16 with Sigma Alpha Mu 3rd.

Members of the victorious Alpha Gamma Rho team are Charles Beerman, Joe Hultquist, Robert Rathjen, Robert Peterson, Donald Kavan, Ronald Einsphar, Lloyd Riddle, and Robert Jameson.

Other teams placing in the Roll-offs included Brown Palace No. 1, Brown Palace No. 2, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta, Theta Xi, and Delta Sigma Pi.

The sweat began to roll off the foreheads of some 30 baseball squad members Tuesday, out for their second night of practice.

For the first week the baseballers will confine their activities to weight training, calisthenics and pepper games.

As the physical condition of the players improves and the weather gets better, the team will step up training, according to Gail Dunne, former Husker infielder who is aiding Coach Tony Sharpe.

Dunne explained that the weight training was a method used to stretch the muscles in the legs and shoulders. The combination of this and calisthenics is used throughout the season in order to insure top physical condition.

The squad will be divided into two platoons and will work in the weight room on alternate days, Dunne said. "Since the pitchers will need more condition, their group will work Monday, Wednesday and Friday, while the other group will work on the weights on Tuesday and Friday," he added.

Eight Lettermen The Husker diamondmen have eight lettermen and five squadmen returning from the 1959 ball club. Last year the Nebraska nine finished second in the Big 8.

Looking over the prospects Coach Sharpe said, "we have a young team coming back from last year and some promising potential material coming up this year."

Sharpe was reluctant to predict the Husker's outcome but he did say that the two Oklahoma schools, OU and Oklahoma State, and Missouri will be the teams to beat in 1960.

Oklahoma State is the defending NCAA champions.

Returning lettermen include Ely Churchich, catcher, Enlow Hevner, pitcher; Dick Nelson, outfielder; Orvis Larson, pitcher; Harry Tolly, pitcher; Ken Ruisinger, infielder; Leroy Zentic, outfielder. Doug Sieler, infielder; and Bob Semin, outfielder.

Promising Sophomores

Dunne listed Dave Webster, a pitcher from Billings, Mont., Ron Cougill a pitcher from Richmond, Ind. and Elmer Takenishi an infielder from Honolulu, as promising young sophomores.

Six football players are working for a position on the squad.

Rex Swett, Phi Barth and Jan Wall will report for action as soon as the basketball season ends.

The 1960 Nebraska squad:

APPAREL OFT PROCLAIMS THE MAN

The hounds of spring are on winter's traces. Soon we will be shedding our mukluks and union suits and putting on our spring finery. And what does Dame Fashion decree for the coming season?

(Dame Fashion, incidentally, is not, as many people believe, a fictitious character. She was a real Englishwoman who lived in Elizabethan times and, indeed, England is greatly in her debt. During the invasion of the Spanish Armada, Dame Fashion—not yet a Dame but a mere, unlettered country lass named Becky Sharp—during the invasion, I say, of the Spanish Armada, this dauntless girl stood on the white cliffs of Dover and turned the tide of battle by rallying the sagging morale of the British fleet with this stirring poem of her own composition:

*Don't be gullies,
Men of Britain,
Swing your collars,
We ain't quittin'.
Smash the Spanish,
Sink their boats,
Make 'em vanish,
Like a horse makes oats.
For Good Queen Bess,
Good sirs, you gotta
Make a mess
Of that Armada.
You won't fail!
Knock 'em flat!
Then we'll drink ale
And stuff like that.*

...In 1589 she invented the egg...

As a reward for these inspirational verses Queen Elizabeth dubbed her a Dame, made her poet laureate, and gave her the Western Hemisphere except Duluth. But this was not the extent of Dame Fashion's services to queen and country. In 1589 she invented the egg. In 1590, alas, she was arrested for poaching and imprisoned for thirty years in a butt of malmsey. This later became known as Guy Fawkes Day.

But-I digress. Let us get back to spring fashions. Certain to be popular again this year is the cardigan (which, curiously enough, was named after Lord Cardigan, who commanded the English fleet against the Spanish Armada. The sweater is only one product of this fertile Briton's imagination. He also invented the ball-peen hammer, the gerund, and the molar, without which chewing, as we know it today, would not be possible).

But I digress. The cardigan, I say, will be back, which is cause for rejoicing. Why? Because the cardigan has nice big pockets in which to carry your Marlboro Cigarettes—and that, good buddies, is ample reason for celebration. Do you think flavor went out when filters came in? If so, you've got another smoke coming. I mean Marlboro—all the rich, smooth flavor of prime tobacco plus a filter that really filters. So slip into your cardigan and hie yourself to your tobacconist for some good Marlboros. They come in soft pack or flip-top box. Cardigans come in pink for girls and blue for boys. © 1960 Max Shulman

If you're a filter smoker, try Marlboros. If you're a non-filter smoker, try Philip Morris. If you're a television watcher try Max Shulman's "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis"—Tuesday nights, CBS.
