

Nearly New Shop Moves Quarters

... Profit May Be Used for Scholarship, Eventually

The Nearly New Shop, sponsored by the Faculty Women's Club in order to aid University students, is now located in new headquarters at 1610 R St.

The shop sells good used articles of clothing and household items at a low cost.

Emergency Loan
Profit is used for an emergency student loan fund and eventually the money also may be used to sponsor a scholarship, according to Mrs. Lyle Young, chairman of the project.

All items sold by the shop are donated by the Faculty Women's Club and other friends of the University, she said. These include baby clothes, women's clothing, men's suits and overcoats, broken sets of dishes, lamps, irons, kettles, croquet sets, curtains and occasionally drapes and rugs.

Any student presenting an ID card may purchase the items which range in price from 5c to $5.00, Mrs. Young said. Shop hours are from 7-9 p.m. on Thursday. Although most of the merchandise is "used", several new items of furniture were recently donated by a Lincoln business.

Pick-up Service
Persons wishing to donate articles may bring them to the shop during regular hours or call Mrs. Paul Mattern, GA 3-9909, or Mrs. David Cook, IV 8-1475, for pick-up service.

Social Work Association To Be Here

Bertrand Beck, associate executive director of the National Association of Social Workers, will conduct a two-day institute in Social Case-work Friday and Saturday.

The institute will concern multi-problem families, the techniques useful in helping them and the organization of community services to reach the inaccessible problem-ridden family.

Beck has practiced social work in a wide variety of settings, including a family service agency, an institution for delinquent boys and psychiatric clinics. He also has served as director of a special juvenile delinquency project.

In connection with the institute, the National Association of Social Workers is sponsoring a dinner Friday at 6 p.m. at which Beck will speak.

Weather Experts To Speak Here

In connection with a North Central Regional Committee meeting on weather, a group of weather authorities will speak Thursday in the Keim Hall auditorium at 8 p.m.

Authorities include Dr. V. E. Suomi, University of Wisconsin; Dr. Robert Dale, U. S. Weather Bureau; and Dr. Robert Shaw, Iowa State University.

The discussion will include current research conducted by one of the U. S. weather satellites which has been aloft for four months.

Interested members of the University staff are invited.

The idea for the project began 11 months ago at a Faculty Women's Club meeting. Members decided to bring bundles of clothing to send to the wives of University medical students in Omaha who operated a used articles shop. Later they adapted the idea for use on the Lincoln campus.

Members of the club help staff the shop on Thursday night and serve on the Board of Advisers. In addition, two members of the Dames Club clerk in the store each Thursday.

Originally located in Temporary G across from University High, the shop has sold hundreds of items for a profit of $270, Mrs. Young said.

The student loan fund supported by this amount is handled through the Division of Student Affairs, she added.

WAYWARD WIZARD—Delmer McClaren, "The Wayward Wizard," will be part of the entertainment of this year's IFC Orphan's Party, Saturday from 2-4 p.m. in the Student Union Games Room. University gymnasts will also perform and refreshments will be served at the annual event.

Student Christian Council Begins Discussion Groups

Discussions on subjects from Communism to politics and evangelism are being conducted by University leaders in weekly one hour sessions.

The groups, which grew out of topics discussed at the Athens Ecumenical Conference, are being sponsored by the Student Christian Council and are open to anyone who is interested in racial tensions, Communism, university community, politics and evangelism, militant non Christian faiths, and Bible study.

Ho-Downers To Appear At Ag Union
Groups, leaders and times are:

"Racial Tensions", Monday, 3 p.m. Presby House, the Rev. Everett Reynolds, pastor of Newman Methodist Church, leader.

"Communism", Tuesday, 4 p.m. 232 Burnett Hall, Dr. Robert Koehl, associate professor of history, leader.

"Faiths", Friday, 4 p.m., Episcopal Chapel, Father Gilbert Armstrong, pastor at the Episcopal Chapel, leader.

Hadley provides an atmosphere of the old west and has repeatedly been selected as background music for many of the top recording stars. He appears weekly on radio and television in western Nebraska.

Tickets are now on sale in both city and Ag Unions.

A pie social originally scheduled Friday night has been canceled.

Ann Zeilinger Is New 'Dream Girl'
Ann Zeilinger, freshman in Teachers College from David City, was crowned 1960 Dream Girl of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity last weekend.

Miss Zeilinger was crowned by Cathy Scott, Alpha Xi Delta, who was last year's Dream Girl. The crowning took place at the annual Delta Sigma Phi Carnation Ball.

New Pieces Composed For Concert

The sixth annual Collegiate Band Concert will be held in the Student Union Ballroom at 4 p.m. Feb. 21.

The band, directed by Jack Snider, will perform several newly-composed pieces, written originally for the band by American composers. These numbers include "Chester Overture for Band" by William Schuman, "Portrait of the Land" by J. Mark Quinn and "Intermezzo for Band" by Donald Bruce Thompson.

The concert will feature a clarinet solo by Wesley Reist, who will play "Serenade" and "Junior Miss." Also featured will be a trumpet sextet performing "The Three Trumpeters."

Members of the sextet are Ronald Elmsouder, Allen Epstein, Robert Kovarik, Don Morgan, Robert Nison and Rickard Sepicka.

Admission to the concert is free and no tickets are needed according to Julie Kay, music committee chairman.

Two $100 Aids; Blanks Available Tri-Deltas Offer

Applications are now available for two $100 scholarships offered each year by Delta Delta Delta sorority.

The scholarships are available to any woman student. Independent women as well as sorority women may apply for the scholarships.

The grants will be awarded according to financial need, scholarship and future service.

Applications may be obtained at the office of the Division of Student Affairs in Administration or the Ag Home Economics office. They will be due March 1.

McGaffin was managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan, a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and Innocents society, while he was at the University.

He was the first recipient of the Gilbert M. Hitchcock scholarship for graduate study at the Columbia School of Journalism.

In 1935, he joined the Associated Press and was named European features editor, headquartered in London. During the war he was a foreign correspondent for the AP and covered action in Paris and London, plus visits across all of Europe and various points in Asia and the Near East.

He joined the Daily News in 1950 as its London correspondent.

Since returning to the United States he has covered the United Nations and now covers Washington affairs.

Educational TV Series Plans Made

"Hinshaw Plays Ives," a series of four television programs performed by Harvey Hinshaw, has been requested by the National Educational Television and Radio Center.

Hinshaw is the assistant professor of piano at the University.

The four half-hour recitals, based on the musical compositions of Charles Ives, will be videotaped at the KUON-TV station. Leon Lishner is the narrator for the series to be broadcast on the 45-station network.

Professor Hinshaw has had an extensive professional career. He served as accompanist to John Charles Thomas both in his concerts and in his teachings.

From 1952-55, Professor Hinshaw was Igor Gorin's accompanist. He also soloed for Mr. Gorin's concerts.

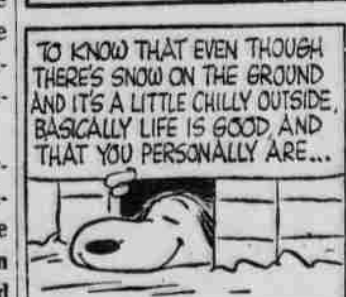

Professor Hinshaw's formal education was obtained at Pasadena Junior College, Occidental College, where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in June, 1949, and the University of California, where he earned his Master of Music degree in 1956.
