

Husker Trackmen Defeat K-State for 3rd Win

By Dave Calhoun

The Husker track team continued on their winning ways Tuesday night by dropping Kansas State 69 and two-thirds to 52 and one-third.

Nebraska racked up victory number three for the season.

Three meet records were set and one meet record was tied.

At the end of nine events Nebraska held a slim four lished a new meet record for the event.

The Huskers continued to dominate the middle distances as Joe Mullins and Ken Ash place first and second, respectively, in the 800. For the third time in as many meets Husker Coach Sevigne scratched Nebraska's mile relay team. The Wildcats ran the event against the clock to pick up the five points.

Highlight of the field events was in the pole vault. Nebraska's Jim Kraft soared over 13-6 to take first place honors. This has been Kraft's best showing this season. Last year the junior vaulter cleared 13-8½.

Nebraska's team captain Joe Mullins continued to cut his time in the 600 yard run. In Tuesday night's contest Mullins, current hold of the Big 8 conference record, made the tour in 1:12.3, three tenths of a second under his conference record.

The next match for the Huskers will be against Missouri, Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m. The NU team will bowl in the Student Union, then mail their scores in for comparison with Missouri's.

Wrestlers Needed

Nebraska's wrestling coach, Bill Smith, needs grapplers. Any sophomore, junior or senior interested in competing for the Husker varsity wrestling team should contact Smith.

In Nebraska's last meet with South Dakota State, the Huskers forfeited the 157, 167 and 177 pound classes.

Smith noted that applicants must be scholastically eligible to compete.
