

Freshmen Seek Win Number 2

Cagers To Host McCook Wednesday

The University of Nebraska freshman basketball team will meet McCook Junior College here Wednesday night at the Coliseum. Tipoff time is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

The Husker frosh were victorious against the Iowa State freshmen quintet last Saturday, 56-53.

Chet Paul, 6-5 all-stater from Lincoln High, led the NU team with 25 points. Tom Ernst and Sammy Kreigh were next in the scoring column with 11 each.

Marvin Teel and Burdette Malleck will be leading the McCook squad.

Admission is one dollar with students to be admitted for 50 cents. All student and faculty season books will be honored.

Schneider Turns Down Job Offer

Head trainer, Paul Schneider, has turned down a job offer from the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

Schneider made the announcement Saturday night. He had visited Toronto last week for an interview with officials of the team.

NU Gymnasts Take 2nd Place

Nebraska's 756 points gave the Cornhuskers an easy second place at the annual Northwest Gymnastic meet Saturday in Minneapolis.

Duane Hoecherl, Warren Rolek and Dick Stone of Minnesota led the Gophers to a victory over Nebraska, Wisconsin, and Mankato State.

The Gophers piled up 827 points, Nebraska had 756, Wisconsin 706 and Mankato State 19.

Hoecherl topped the medal winners with 277 points, while Rolek was second with 270.

The Gophers bested Nebraska and Wisconsin in a triangular held in conjunction with the meet.

The Huskers entered Saturday's meet unbeaten in dual competition.

Inside Intramurals by dave wohlfarth

The All-University Intramural Basketball Tourney begins Wednesday. Thirty-six teams are in the race for the 'A' crown, 16 squads will be competing in the 'B' tourney and eight 'C' teams are in the chase. The tourney will last till Mar. 12.

The tourney should be a close-packed because of the tight competition and outstanding games in the league battles this season and the extra pressure now in tourney games. Teams which have so-so records and have just qualified for the tourney have been known to sweep it all.

The top four teams from each league are entered in the tournament. Here is a rundown of the teams in the tourney and their records:

League 1-A—Kappa Sigma (5-0), Phi Kappa Psi (4-1), Sigma Phi Epsilon (3-2), Beta Theta Pi (2-3).

League 2-A—Alpha Tau Omega (6-0), Sigma Nu (4-2), Delta Upsilon (3-3), Phi Gamma Delta (3-3).

League 3-A—Farm House (5-1), Alpha Gamma Rho (4-2), Beta Sigma Psi (4-2), Cornhusker Co-op (4-2).

League 4-A—Sigma Alpha Mu (5-1), Pioneer Co-op (5-1), Acacia (4-2), Pi Kappa Phi (3-3).

League 5-A—Hitchcock (5-0), Gus II (4-1), Seaton I (2-3), Gus I (2-3).

League 6-A—Avery (5-0), Manatt (4-1), MacLean (3-2), Bessey (2-3).

League 7-A—Selleck (6-0), Seaton II (5-1), Smith (3-3), Boucher (2-4).

League 8—Phi Epsilon Kappa (5-0), Law College (4-1), Geographers (3-2), Dental College (3-3).

League 9—The Losers (6-0), Pathogens (5-1), Wesley House (4-2), Clatians (3-3).

League 10-B—Phi Delta Theta (4-0), Phi Kappa Psi (2-1), Sigma Phi Epsilon (2-2), Kappa Sigma (1-2).

League 11-B—Sigma Nu (4-1), Delta Tau Delta (4-1), Beta Theta Pi (3-2), Delta Upsilon (2-3).

League 12-B—Alpha Gamma Rho (4-1), Farm House (4-1), Phi Gamma Delta (0-5), Beta Sigma Psi (0-5).

League 13-B—Gus I (5-0), Selleck (5-1), Hitchcock (4-1), Manatt (2-3) or Seaton II (2-3).

League 14-C—Sigma Phi Epsilon (5-0), Beta Theta Pi (3-1), Phi Kappa Psi (3-1), Phi Delta Theta (1-3) or Alpha Tau Omega (1-3).

League 15-C—Delta Upsilon (3-0), Delta Tau Delta (3-1), Theta Xi (2-1), Sigma Nu (1-3).

These entries may be changed slightly because of league windup games played Monday night and more scheduled for tonight. These games will have some bearing on the number four in two leagues, position changes in others and final won-lost records.

Based on season's performances, these teams will be the top contenders in the 'A' championship: Kappa Sigma, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Nu, Farm House, Hitchcock, Avery, Selleck, Phi Epsilon Kappa, Sigma Alpha Mu, and the Losers. This writer will go out on a limb and pick the ATO's to take the Fraternity and All-University titles.

In 'B' action, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu, Delta Tau Delta, Alpha Gamma Rho and Gus I are the teams to watch. The 'C' titles will be a two-league chase with Sigma Phi Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Upsilon and Delta Tau Delta the top threats.

Tomorrow's opening round action in the double-elimination tourney will feature eight 'A' team games at the PE Building. These are: Kappa Sigma vs. Phi Kappa Psi; Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Beta Theta Pi.

Farm House vs. Cornhusker; Beta Sigma Psi vs. Alpha Gamma Rho.

Sigma Alpha Mu vs. Pioneer Co-op; Acacia vs. Pi Kappa Phi; Alpha Tau Omega vs. Sigma Nu.

Delta Upsilon vs. Phi Gamma Delta.

Monday night in the Intramural Ag Tourney began with all houses and residence halls on Ag College competing.

Intramural Activities Ed Higgenbotham has also mentioned the possibility of a Corn-Slucks Tourney being held. This tourney would include all teams that did not qualify for the regular tourney. It would be interesting and will provide a chance for many teams to play another game.

The Intramural Handball Tourney has boiled down to a two-team race between Delta Upsilon and Phi Delta Theta. The singles title was decided Monday with Myron Papadakos, DU, facing Ron Congil, Theta Xi. The doubles title will be decided today when Phi Deltas Dick Chamberlain and Al Cummings meet the winner of the Jack Homes-Dick Jacobs (Phi Delta Theta) vs. Steve Cass-Wayne Hastings (Delta Upsilon).

Yearling Thinclads Top OS

Gunter Sets Record In 95-19 Postal

Nebraska's freshman track team overwhelmed Oklahoma State 95-19, in the Husker's first postal meet of the season.

Pacing the Husker yearlings was Ernest Gunter, sprinting ace from Philadelphia, Pa. Gunter won all three of the 60-yard dashes, the 60-yard dash, the highs and the low hurdles. He also ran on the winning Nebraska mile relay team and placed second in the 440.

Gunter's time of :06.8 in winning the 60-yard low hurdles, is a tenth of a second under the Big 8 postal record set by Nebraska's Keith Gardner, Bob Derrick of Oklahoma, Charlie Tidwell and Erne Shelby, both of Kansas University.

The yearling cindermen swept six events. Two of them, the pole vault and the shotput were uncontested victories.

Gunter, Ron Moore and Fred Wilke teamed up to bring home all three places for Nebraska in both the 60-yard highs and the 60-yard lows.

John Silveira grabbed first place honors in the 600-yard run, while Clarence Scott and Bill Kenny finished second and third respectively.

In the 880-yard run Clarence's twin brother, Joe, finished first, Kenny finished second and Clarence Scott took third.

In the distance events, Nebraska's Ray Stevens grabbed blue ribbons in the mile and two mile events.

The Husker freshmen also proved strong in the field events. Wilke, a graduate of Omaha North, took firsts in the broad jump and the high jump. Larry Tomlinson, from O'Neill placed the shotputters, winning the event with a toss of 45'1/2.

Larry Donovan vaulted his way to first place in the pole vault, reaching a height of 12-7.

Colorado Tied For First; Kansas Jumps To Third In Conference

The Big Eight Conference lead was all knotted up going into Monday night's games. Kansas State and Colorado both had won six and lost two as the league headed into a crucial week's schedule.

K-State topped Missouri 89-80, Saturday, to stay in a first place tie. Earlier in the week the defending champion Wildcats dropped a 64-62 thriller to rival Kansas. The Wildcats traveled to Ames, Iowa, Monday, to meet the skidding Iowa State Cyclones.

Colorado continued its amazing play last week, decisively Oklahoma State 48-40. The Buffs, with two protested games on the record against them, have high hopes for the Big Eight crown. Monday night's action pitted CU against Missouri at Boulder.

Kansas made the biggest jump last week, moving to week the Sooners defeated Nebraska, 63-54.

Tied for fifth with 4-5 marks are Iowa State and Oklahoma State. The Cyclones have been on the down-grade lately. The Big Eight Tourney Champs last December were crushed 69-49 by Nebraska last weekend.

Oklahoma State dropped two last week, losing to Kansas and Colorado. The Cowboys are second only to Oklahoma in opposing points allowed as they continue their defensive ball-control type play. Missouri leads Nebraska.

Bowling Team Faces K-State

The Nebraska bowling team will host the Kansas State bowlers at the Nebraska Union this Saturday.

The match will have no bearing on Big Eight standings. It is only a return match to the one held in Manhattan during the Nebraska-Kansas State football game. That meet ended in a tie.

The match will begin with team competition at 9:30 a.m. Doubles will be held at 1:00 p.m. and singles at 2:00 p.m.
