

Husker Cagers End Home Stand Victorious

By Dave Wohlforth
Big Bob Harry topped off a three-year basketball career at Nebraska with a stand out performance to spark the Huskers past Oklahoma State, 54-47, Saturday, in the Coliseum.

Harry was one of four seniors on the squad playing their last home game for NU. Harry, Wayne Hester, Herschell Turner and Dick Shipwright, all were instrumental in leading the Huskers to their seventh win of the season and fourth conference victory.

Harry was the man of the hour for the Huskers. The big scrapper from York was the game's high scorer with 14 points, hitting 11 of them to keep the Huskers close in the first half.

'Dock' was tough on the boards and it was during a scramble for a rebound late in the game that he injured his knee. The injury forced him out with 2:44 left in the game and the Huskers ahead 49-42. The 6'6" center received loud applause from the crowd of 4,000.

Coach Jerry Bush had unlimited praise for Harry, saying, "Bob Harry played the finest game of his career tonight."

Doubts Availability
Bush doubted if Harry would be available for the two remaining Husker games due to his knee ailment, a recurrence of an old high school injury.

The NU mentor also had praise for the other seniors. He said, "Wayne Hester played well and Turner was going off the boards like old times."

Hester hit seven points before fouling out with 7:36 remaining, and Turner, although hampered by the tough Oklahoma State defense, scored eight.

Shipwright, a sharpshooter from Pender, saw action in the final minutes in his finale before the home crowd.

The game stayed close until the Huskers spurred in the second half to gain command.

Sweet Starts Rally
Nebraska got its first good lead when Rex Sweet hit two free throws to give NU a 19-14 lead with 5:36 left in the first half.

OSU roared back as Eddie Bunch netted four quick buckets to give the Cowboys a 26-24 at halftime lead.

In the second half Nebraska cracked the tough cowboy defense and OSU cooled off after hitting a sizzling 50 per cent from the field in the first half.

Nebraska forged ahead, 30-29, when Turner tipped in a missed free throw early in the second half.

NU continued to roll and held its biggest lead with 5:42 left. Jim Kowalke hit two free throws to give the Huskers a 10-point pad, 48-38.

Maxey Hits
In the final minutes Al Maxey kept Nebraska in front, hitting six points. Maxey, who tallied 11 for the night, scored on an out-of-bounds roll out play and was fouled in the process. His bucket and charity toss gave the Huskers a 52-44 advantage with 1:28 remaining. Maxey hit a final long jumper to wrap up the game in the final seconds.

Nebraska shot 37.8 per cent from the field hitting 17 of 45 attempts at the line with 20 of 28.

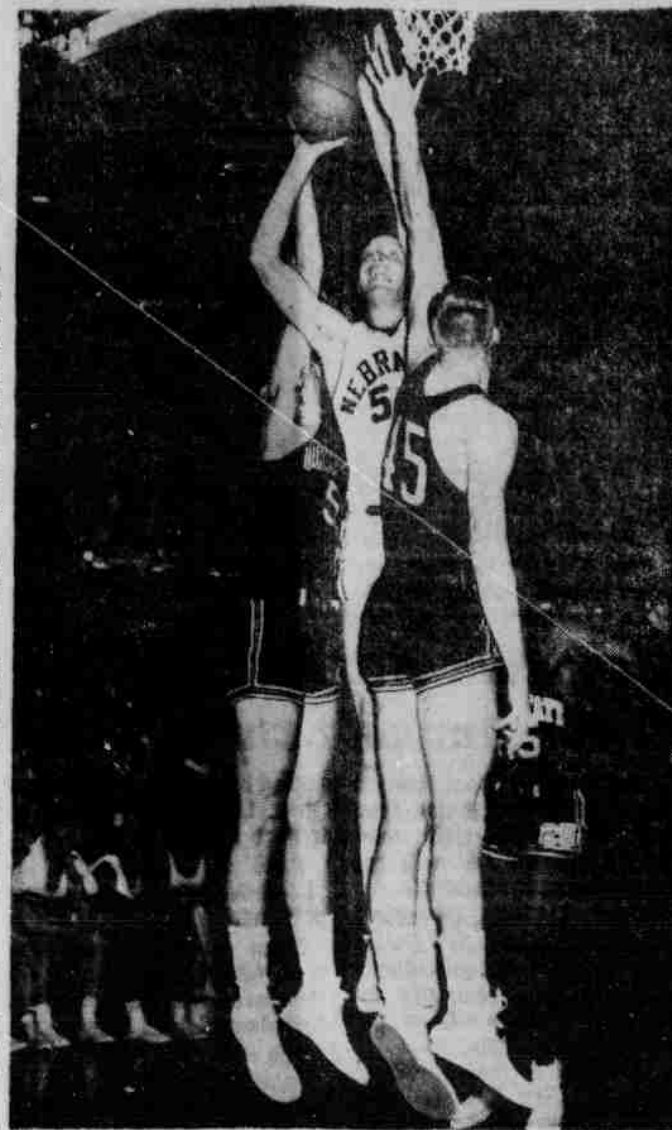

OSU had a 33.3 per cent field goal percentage and 73.9 per cent free throw accuracy. The Cowboys out-rebounded the Huskers 35 to 32.

Harry and Maxey were the top guns for Nebraska while Bunch led the Cowboy attack, scoring 12. Moe Iba, son of Coach Hank Iba, hit 10 for State.

The win boasted the Huskers into a three-way tie for sixth in the Big Eight. Nebraska, Oklahoma State and Missouri are deadlocked with 4-8 conference records.

NU travels to Manhattan to meet Kansas State Saturday. The Wildcats are tied for first with Kansas, the team which the Huskers will meet next Monday in their final game of the season.

Paul Paces Yearlings: Husker Freshmen Grab 3rd Win; Top Fairbury

By Norm Beatty
The Nebraska freshman basketball team offset a cold first half with a torrid final 20 minutes to bury Fairbury J.C. 60-47 Saturday night at the Coliseum.

The taller Husker yearlings were again led by former Lincoln High All-Stater, Chet Paul enroute to their third victory in as many games.

Paul copped scoring honors of the evening with 20 points. He was supported by teammates Sammy Kreigh and Mike Stacey who contributed 16 and 14 tallies, respectively.

The frosh jumped to an early lead, 16-9, with 11:49 left in the first half behind the shooting of Stacey, Kreigh and Tom Ernst.

Muma Connects
Fairbury bounced back to take a 17-16 lead with 9:07 left in the half. The shorter visitors maintained their edge to lead 27-22 at intermission.

Human Error Caused Loss At Colorado

"Nebraska's basketball record will stand as before" was the verdict rendered during the meeting of the Big Eight Faculty Representatives Feb. 25 in Kansas City.

The Faculty Representatives decided that errors can happen to anyone. They felt that Nebraska was the victim of unfortunate circumstances, but that they did not wish to interfere in a matter that basically involved human error.

Nebraska Athletic Director Bill Orwig said, "I am very disappointed in the faculty action, but we must abide by the decision of the Faculty Representatives." He said that although Nebraska lost the decision, the protest should prevent any recurrence of what happened to Nebraska.

The protest concerned the loss of a game to Colorado in which the timekeeper juggled the clock in the last seconds of play without informing the officials or coaches.

Sugar Ray Sued

Sugar Ray Robinson has denied bullying longshoreman, Philip Norman, 35, in Robinson's Harlem bar during a fracas.

Norman has sued Robinson for $150,000 for his injuries which include two fractured ribs.

Forward Dick Muma opened the second half with a set shot from the corner and the frosh were on their way.

After the score changed hands twice, Muma again connected with a corner shot to put Nebraska in front for keeps with 11:55 left in the game.

Fairbury threatened only once from this point via successive buckets by Dick Hoyt, Eldon Benson and Bob Mann to cut the margin to 45-44 with 9:02 left.

Paul teamed with Stacey to control both boards and Kreigh and Paul matched basket for basket to widen the gap to a 55-44 count with 5:07 remaining.

Little Substitution
The freshmen first five, Paul, Stacey, Kreigh, Ernst and Muma, played all but about two minutes of the game and accounted for all of the 60 Nebraska points.

The well-defended Fairbury team was led by Bob Mann with 14 points.

The freshmen will complete their season Thursday at Manhattan, Kans. against the Kansas State frosh.

Swimmers Split Kansas Dual Trip

Husker tankmen won and lost in the Friday and Saturday trips to Kansas State and Kansas. Friday Dick Klaas' mermen overwhelmed Kansas State 58-37. This victory evened the Husker swimming record at 6-6.

Nebraska tasted defeat the next day as Kansas won a dual meet 54-39. This was a decisive victory for Kansas as they won 8 of 11 events. Meet records were set in the 60-y a r d freestyle, 200-y a r d butterfly, 200-yard backstroke, 440-yard freestyle and 200-yard breast stroke.

These meets were tune ups for all three clubs for the Big Eight Conference meet next week in Boulder, Colorado.

Sooners Edge KU For Track Title

The University of Oklahoma ended Kansas' eight year reign of the Big Eight Indoor Track Championship Saturday night.

The Sooner tracksters took advantage of a Kansas faux pas in the mile relay to grab the title.

Nebraska thinclads advanced one notch from last years sixth place to take the fifth position.

The final scoring ended with Oklahoma winning with 61½, Kansas second with 58, Oklahoma State third with 21½, Colorado fourth with 20, Nebraska fifth with 18. Missouri, Iowa State and Kansas State rounded out the scoring with 18, 10 and 8½ respectively.

Going into the final event, the mile relay, the Jayhawks held a one point advantage. The Kansas trackmen needed only to place behind the Soon-unexpected points in the 60-yard high hurdles, first event of the evening, when Milt Haedt finished a string third.

This is the B-52. Advanced as it may be, this airplane has one thing in common with the first war-galleys of ancient Egypt... and with the air and space vehicles of the future. Someone must chart its course. Someone must navigate it.

For certain young men this presents a career of real executive opportunity. Here, perhaps you will have the chance to master a profession full of meaning, excitement and rewards... as a Navigator in the U. S. Air Force.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet you must be an American citizen between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. A high school diploma is required, but some college is highly desirable. Successful completion of the training program leads to a commission as a Second Lieutenant... and your Navigator wings.

If you think you have what it takes to measure up to the Aviation Cadet Program for Navigator training, see your local Air Force Recruiter. Or clip and mail this coupon.

There's a place for tomorrow's leaders on the Aerospace Team.

Will Harry Finish Out BB Season?

The question whether or not Bob Harry will be able to finish out the basketball season with the Huskers still remains unanswered.

Harry suffered a knee injury in Saturday's game against Oklahoma State and was forced to retire in the late minutes of the contest.

Sunday afternoon Nebraska trainer Paul Schneider reported that Harry had suffered a knee sprain.

"We can tell more about Bob's condition on Wednesday," Schneider said.

The senior center has had trouble with his knee before.

Gym Team Takes Third in All-College

The Husker gymnastic team took third place in the All-College Invitational Gymnastic meet Saturday, scoring 115 points in the two day meet held in Colorado Springs.

The Air Force Academy won the meet for the second straight year by rolling up 169 points.

Individual winners for Nebraska were Karl Byers, on the side horse, and Charles Williams, in the rope climb.
