MAN, THAT'S JAZZ—Jim Herbert and his Varsity Five show University students the form they intend to take to the Collegiate Jazz Festival at Notre Dame University.

They presented an hour program Thursday in the Pan American Room of the Union.

Varsity Five Raise $41.50 At Concert

Jim Herbert and his Varsity Five put on a fund raising concert Thursday, from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., in the Pan American Room of the Student Union.

The concert, which had an admission of 25 cents, was designed to help finance Herbert's combo on their trip to the Collegiate Jazz Festival at Notre Dame, Mar. 18-19. Jim and his group were selected to participate in the Dixieland section of the festival, which has as top prize for the best group an engagement at the Blue Note Club in Chicago.

Additional contributions for the trip may be made at the office of William McKinnon, Union program chairman, according to Sharon Janike, chairman of the Union general entertainment committee which sponsored Thursday's benefit concert.

'Keep Youth in State', Conrad Tells YoungD's

Robert B. Conrad, administrative assistant to Gov. Ralph G. Brooks, spoke for the first time as a candidate for political office before the Young Democrats Wednesday evening in the Student Union.

Conrad, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, told the Y.D.'s that "Nebraska must concentrate on developing a sound program to keep our youth in the state."

N. U. Graduate
A graduate of the University's Law College and former Nance County Attorney, Conrad said that too often young Nebraskans "leave the state which gave them their education immediately after graduation for higher pay and better jobs."

The 37-year-old attorney, who recently announced his filing for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the May primary, explained that an incentive to young people to stay in Nebraska would be the promoting of new industry in the state.

Conrad went on to say that he would be in favor of the issuance of interim reports on the progress of the state government by the governor's office.

"The hassle over the interstate is an example of a situation where a lack of information created a statewide problem," Conrad pointed out. "A great deal of discussion was caused by not knowing how highway decisions are made and construction priorities appointed."

Better Informed

"I feel that Nebraskans can be further informed on the working of state government and that the administration has a responsibility to explain fully and accurately the progress of such items as highway development, public spending, institutional management, industrial growth, agricultural productivity and welfare," Conrad told the Y.D.'s.

He commented that one of the planks on his platform calls for public expression of sentiment regarding every project undertaken by the state government. Conrad particularly sighted the problem of widening the tax base that should be put before the public in the form of a referendum.

Conrad also proposed a state-wide minimum wage "with equal pay for equal work."

In conclusion, Conrad called for continued active participation in government and politics by young people. He stated that the Democratic party "has long recognized the value of our youth both from the standpoint of their devotion to hard work and their outstanding record in public office."

April 2 Set For YD's Workshop

The theme for the Young Democrat's statewide workshop to be held April 2 will be "Victory in 60."

All candidates for governor, United States Senate and House of Representatives will be invited to speak at the noon luncheon. Robert B. Conrad and Frank B. Morrison have already accepted speaking positions at the luncheon.

Candidates, both state and national, will also be asked to set up campaign booths in the lobby of the Lincoln Hotel.

Don Geis, University YD president, will act as presiding chairman of the workshop.

A keynote speaker for the event has not yet been announced.

Panels planned for the workshop include: fund raising and finance, recruitment of workers and candidates, women's projects, campaign activity, getting out the vote, and fun in politics.

YRs Name Membership Chairman

Bill Meyer, junior in Arts and Sciences, was announced last night as the new membership chairman of Young Republicans. Meyer replaces Vivian Reppert, who recently resigned.

Other appointments named by the YR executive council were Karen Long, junior in Teachers as campaign director and Gary Rodgers Senior in Business Administration, as Nixon reception chairman.

Charles E. Stenicka, Omaha attorney representative of the Political Education Council, told the Young Republicans at their Thursday night meeting that, "Politics is government, and its everyone's business."

The Council is a non-partisan and non-profit association whose main function is to encourage people to be active in politics.

Tour Planned

Delta Sigma Pi will take a professional tour of three Cedar Rapids, Iowa, manufacturing firms.

The tour will include the Quaker Oats Co., the Square D Co., and the Cherry Burrell Co.

The tour will begin Thursday and end Saturday morning. LaVerne Cox, faculty adviser, will accompany the tour.

Interviews Set Saturday Morn

Interviews for the eight positions on the Student Union Board of Managers will start at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Ogallala Room of the Union, according to Karen Peterson, president of the Union Activities Board.

Managers positions must be made prior to the interviews. Requirements for the board include one year of Union experience, sophomore or junior standing, a 5.7 scholastic average and the ability to attend board meetings on Tuesday evenings throughout the school year.
