

Conference Mat Title To Oklahoma, NU Last

Oklahoma gained Big Eight Conference Wrestling supremacy Saturday by defeating the 1959 NCAA wrestling champion, Oklahoma State. Oklahoma scored 83 points before a crowd of only 423 fans to accomplish the feat.

Oklahoma State followed closely with 73 points, while Iowa State had 58, Kansas State 28, Colorado 25, and Nebraska 10.

The ten individual titles were split between Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Iowa State, and Kansas State. Oklahoma and Oklahoma State each won four titles while Iowa State and Kansas State each won one.

Rascke Downed
Husker Jim Rascke almost won the heavyweight title, but lost after an overtime period by an officials' decision.

OU heavyweight, Dale Lewis was leading with an escape point but Rascke evaded the match by scoring on the same maneuver to send the match into an overtime period.

Rascke picked up the advantage in the overtime by scoring escape point with 1:54 left, but Lewis was able to tie the match and gain the officials' unanimous decision for victory.

The only regular season defeat for Lewis was dealt by Rascke.

The defending cowboys, despite their loss of four of their top wrestlers because of ineligibilities, nearly repeated their conference Championship, but there were just too many good wrestlers to cope with.

Sooner Scores Upset
The surprise of the finals was the upset of defending 177 pound champ Ron Meloney of Iowa State by Dave Campell, a lanky (6-5) Sooner.

NCAA champ Larry Hayes of Iowa State was forced into an overtime to defeat OSU's Bob Wilson in the 147-pound class.

There were no pins in the finals.

Nebraska's only chance for a pin came when Rascke was wrestling Iowa State's Jan Schwitter in the semifinals, but Jim settled for a 9-5 decision.

Raske was Nebraska's lone bright spot, John Dooley of Kansas State pinned Ted Rothmeier of NU in 3:48 in semifinal action.

NCAA champ Stan Abel of Oklahoma dropped Husker Faber Jenkins with a pin in 53 seconds.

POINT, NEBRASKA . . . Husker heavyweight Jim Rascke picks up his semifinal bout with Jan Schwitters from Iowa State during the Big 8 Championships last weekend. Rascke won this match, but lost in the finals to Dale Lewis of Oklahoma.

NU Falls To K-State: Turner, Hester, Shipwright End Careers At KU Tonight

Kansas State assured itself of at least a tie for the Big Eight Basketball Championship by beating Nebraska 83-74, at Manhattan Saturday night.

The Wildcats now have a conference record of 10-4.

If Kansas, Nebraska's foe tonight, beats the Cornhuskers, the regular conference season would end in a tie between the two Kansas schools.

The Wildcats had to fight Nebraska off in the first half, and for a while it looked like it would be a repeat of the Nebraska-K-State game at Lincoln. Nebraska upset the Wildcats 70-60.

Wildcats Roll
However, with 2:45 left in the first half, the Staters, behind the sharp shooting of Mike Wroblewski, caught fire. The score was 29-28, with K-State holding the advantage, when Wroblewski hit a jumper to start the Wildcat rally.

Kansas State hit lay-ups, jumpers, stole Nebraska passes and when the gun finally sounded the Wildcats had completely overwhelmed the Huskers, holding an unbelievable 42-28 halftime score.

During the second half Nebraska jumped back into the contest, with Herschell Turner leading the Huskers rally attempt.

Turner Gets Hot
Turner, who had been held to only one point in the first half, exploded in the second canto to dump in 19. Several times in the late minutes of the game the Huskers roared to within seven points of the Wildcats, but Wroblewski and company doused the rally fire with quick fielders.

Wroblewski took the evening's scoring honors with 28 for the winners, while team mate Steve Douglas added 13 to the K-State total.

Turner paced the Huskers in his next to last game for Nebraska with 20 points, while Albert Maxey pumped in 19.

Tonight the Huskers face Kansas at Lawrence. A victory by Nebraska would give the Conference title to Kansas State.

Turner, Wayne Hester and Dick Shipwright will be finishing their college basketball careers in the contest. Another senior, Bob Harry was injured last week in the game against Oklahoma State and has not played in the final two contests.

Sooners Capture Loop Swim Meet; Huskers 5th

Nebraska's swimming team closed their 1959-1960 season by coping fifth place in the Big Eight Conference finale at Boulder last weekend.

The Huskers scored 22 points in three events and followed Oklahoma with 195 points, Kansas with 58, Iowa state with 56 1/2 and Colorado with 27. Kansas State placed sixth with 11 1/2 counters. Missouri and Oklahoma State did not enter the three-day meet.

Diver Jim Frank made the best individual showing for Nebraska with a fourth place in the one meter diving event.

Another Husker individual point getter was Larry McClean. McClean picked up sixth place in the 100-yard butterfly.

In addition to Frank's and McClean's performances, the N.U. 400-yard medley relay team composed of Frank Tomson, Joe Stocker, Larry McClean and Jim Pickett, won fourth place.

Nebraska's breast stroke ace, Joe Stocker, placed fourth in the 200-yard event to round out the Nebraska score sheet.

The Sooners of Oklahoma took firsts in 12 of 15 events in the three day meet to dominate the swimming championships for the second straight year.

Three of Oklahoma's firsts were good for new conference records. Sophomore Carl Zahn accounted for two of them in the two butterfly events.

The only two other loop records that were bettered came from Iowa State's Paul Witherell in the 200-yard individual medley and the 100-yard freestyle.

Track Clinic To Be Held Saturday

The University of Nebraska athletic department and the District I Nebraska Coaches Association will sponsor a track clinic Saturday at the indoor track, according to NU track coach Frank Seigine.

Seigine said the clinic will be held in the morning due to the State Basketball Tournament finals in the afternoon and evening.

Eight experts on each phase of track and field will present the four hour program. They are: Charles Foster, Woody Greeno, Keith Gardner, Willis Jones, Ike Hanscom, Harold Scott, Wayne Binfield and George Sullivan.

The clinic will start at 8:30 a.m. There will be no registration fee, Seigine said.

'Celestial Circus' Explains Zodiac

'Celestial Circus, the Zodiac' is the title of the March sky show featured at the Ralph Mueller Planetarium.

The show explains the path or Zodiac followed by the planets as they move through the sky from west to east. The constellations occupying the area are known as the "signs of the Zodiac." Most of them are named after animals.

The sky show may be seen this week at 8 p.m. Wednesday and 2:45 p.m. Saturday.

University Bowlers Meet 'Unseen' Foes

By Cloyd Clark

Every Saturday at 9:00 a.m. the University Bowling team rolls off against unseen opponents. At the same time another Big Eight bowling team is rolling on their alleys against the Cornhuskers. This action is the Big Eight bowling postal competition.

The university team has bowed face-to-face matches with several schools, but these matches were extra-curricular.

The Big Eight bowling league is entirely "mail-in." Each week's results are sent to Lawrence, Kan., to be matched with the results of the other conference teams.

Jerry King, Ralph Holmstrom, Stu Suttler, Bill Vacek, Gary Starck, and Jerry Dondlinger makeup the University's team.

Holmstrom is leading the conference with a 192 for high game average.

The ability of Nebraska's bowlers is shown by the fact that members of the team are required to maintain at least a 170 average.

Coach and manager, Merle Reiling praised the bowlers for their steady improvement and persistent practice. He said, "the boys are expected to spend at least 9 hours a week open bowling under supervision. This minimum is always met and is very often exceeded."

Reiling went on to say that on March 24th, the team will travel to Iowa University and Iowa State University for match games. In addition he commented that, "Our team deserved more support. They work hard and competition against unseen opponents isn't ideal."
