The Intramural Paddle Ball Tourney began yesterday with competition in six singles and doubles divisions.

Delta Upsilon is the All-University title holder from last year. DU was sparked by a singles crown from George Fisk and a doubles title by Fisk and Doug Youngdahl.

This year the DUs look tough as Youngdahl teams with Myron Papadakis, Intramural Handball champ, in doubles and both will be threats in singles play.

Square Dance

A square dance is scheduled in the Student Union Ballroom Friday evening at 7:30. The event will be sponsored by the University Square Dance Club.

KU's Hightower Led Conference Scoring; Turner, Maxey In Top 10

Wayne Hightower of the Conference Champion Kansas Jayhawks led the Big Eight basketball scoring sheet. Hightower accumulated 527 points during season games with a 21 point per game average to lead the conference.

He also lead the Big Eight in the freethrow department, scoring a 175 point total.

The only departments the Jayhawk didn't lead were the percentage of free throws made and the total number of fouls committed.

Turner Fifth Herschell Turner ranked fifth with a 399 total point accumulation, hitting a 15.9 point per game clip. Maxey finished eighth and Kowalke came in number twelve.

Turner and Maxey both made the ratings in the rebound department. Turner grabbed an even 200 rebounds to finish sixth in the conference. Maxey was eighth with 177.

Bridges of Kansas was the king of the boards with 340 rebounds and a 13.6 rebound per game average.

Hightower Rebounds The Jayhawk scoring champion also scored in the rebound department. Hightower was fourth in a line led by his teammate, Bridges.

The final team rankings placed Kansas, Kansas St., Oklahoma, Iowa State, Colorado, Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma State in that order. The championship was decided by a playoff between Kansas and Kansas State. Kansas won 82-80 in an overtime period.

Kansas represented the Big Eight in the NCAA national basketball tourney. They won their first game against Texas, but the Big O and the Cincinnati team proved too much for the Mid-Westerners.

Robertson Named As Year's Best

Oscar Robertson, who plans to turn professional after his graduation from Cincinnati was named by United Press International as college basketball's player-of-the-year.

Big O grabbed 78 per cent of the votes cast in a nationwide poll of sportswriters and broadcasters to win the honor for the third straight year.

Robertson, who will be competing in the NCAA championships this weekend in San Francisco, has set his sights for a berth on the United States Olympic basketball team.

Robertson has decided to enter the pro ranks after graduation, but he has not said which team he will play for.

It is reported that he has had job offers from the Cincinnati Royals of the National Basketball Association and from Abe Saperstein's Harlem Globetrotters.
