

17 Prospective Golfers Vie For Squad Positions

By Cloyd Clark

The 1960 Nebraska golf season will begin at Stillwater Oklahoma Saturday — rain or shine. This winter has given every spring athlete trouble, but without a doubt, it has plagued the golfer the most.

There are seven prospective golfers on the 1960 roster. Larry Romjue, Tom Fulkerson, and Dennis Mullins have won two letters in varsity golf.

This week will be the debut for the 1960 golfers. From Monday and through Thursday, there will be an intersquad tournament that will decide which golfers will make the southern trip during Spring vacation.

The two-letter winners, Romjue, Fulkerson, and Mullins, should rank 1, 2, 3 on the five man squad. The other two slots will be filled by any one of a number of promising underclass golfers.

Dave McConahay, a junior from Holdrege, will be a top contender for the top five. Dave will probably fill one of the slots left by Mike McCuiston and Bob Epstein. McCuiston, a three-year letterman graduated, while Epstein was lost because of ineligibility.

When questioned about the 1960 prospects, Coach Bill

Smith said, "We really don't know for sure what we have this season because we cannot get outside. But we should have a fairly good year. . . . We have been improving each year, and last year we won seven of our last eight matches."

Coach Smith is starting his third year as Husker golf coach. Smith is a former Olympic wrestling champion (1952). In addition to his golf coaching duties, he serves as Husker wrestling coach.

Smith's squad had a seven and four season last year and finished sixth in the conference meet.

The Nebraska squad has always been handicapped by the weather. This week will

Glenn Wearer, Polly Doering Lead Bowlers

Glenn Wearer bowled both the high game and the high series last week in league bowling at the Union Allies. His high game was 256 and his high series was 626.

Polly Doering bowled the women's high game with 195 and the high series with 474.

The leading teams and their records in each league are: Quadrangle, Benton (23-9); Cornhusker No. 1, Delta Sigma Pi (25-7); Cornhusker, No. 2, Beta Sigma Psi (25-7); Independent, Five Pros (19-5); Coed Bowlerettes, Alpha Omicron Pi (18-6); Ag Union, Home Ec (14-6); and Guys and Dolls, King Pins (27-5).

Ralph H. Paces Husker Victory

By Janet Sack

Saturday afternoon the Nebraska Union bowling team edged out Omaha University and Concordia Teachers College for the Nebraska Collegiate Bowling Championship. Final point standings were NU, 57.59; OU, 56.67 and CTC 51.67.

High for the 6 game series were Husker's Ralph Holmstrom, who rolled a 1139 and Bill Vacek, who rolled a 1124.

The First Annual Nebraska Collegiate Bowling Tournament was held in the Student Union. The scoring was one point for each game won and one point for every 100 total pins.

In the first match Omaha U drew Concordia Teachers College. Omaha U won 2 and CTC won 1. The total after 3 games was OU 28.00 and CTC 26.56.

In the second match the Huskers swept the 3 game series from CTC. Total standings were then NU 29.99 and CTC 24.85.

The third match pitted Omaha U against Nebraska. Omaha U took 2 games and the Huskers 1. The standings after that series were OU 28.67 and NU 27.60.

The Huskers are now eligible to bowl against other state winners in the East of the Rocky Mountain Division. The East of the Rocky Mountain finals will be held at Colorado University on April 30 and May 1. Following that tournament, the winner of the Eastern Division will meet the winner of the Western Division for the East-West Inter-Mountain Collegiate Bowling Congress Championship.

Merv Johnson and Charlie Rash, newest members of Missouri's football coaching staff, formerly captained Tiger football teams.

Game Postponed

The opening of the baseball season for Nebraska has been postponed until Tuesday, at least, because of wet grounds.

The Huskers will try to play their opener with South Dakota State Tuesday if the weatherman cooperates. Game time will be 3 p.m.

If they cannot play Tuesday, baseball coach Tony Sharpe said they will try again Wednesday and Thursday. The Huskers are scheduled to open the conference race Friday against Kansas State at Manhattan.

For the first time since the Orf twins played end on the same football team at the University of Missouri—some 21 years ago—the Tigers have another twin act in batterymates Bob and John Payne on the 1960 M.U. baseball team.

C. G. Simpson, Missouri golf coach, has made two holes-in-one during his playing career, both on the No. 3 hole at the Columbia Country Club.

Charlie James, former Mizou halfback and outfielder, won Rookie-of-the-Year honors in the Texas league during 1958, and in the International league last year.

Golf roster: Bruce Allacher, Soph., Lincoln. Bill Benson, Jr., Norfolk. Art Blackman, Sr., Lincoln. Bob Epstein, Jr., Omaha. Cliff Fullhart, Soph., Alliance. Tom Frank, Soph., Scottsbluff. Nebraska Tennis Team Beats Creighton, Falls To Wichita

The Nebraska tennis team opened its season by splitting two meets over the weekend. The Husker netters downed Creighton University 10-0, Saturday, after dropping a 7-0 opener to Wichita Friday.

Neil Roush, talented Wichita sophomore net man, led his mates in the shutout over NU. For Wichita, the defending Missouri Valley Conference Champion, the meet was the fourth this season.

Coach Ed Higginbotham's netters got on the winning side Saturday when they won seven singles and three doubles matches to stop Creighton. The finals doubles matches were shortened due to the length of the match.

Nebraska's next meet is an encounter at Creighton Friday before leaving on the southern trip through Kansas and Oklahoma during Spring Vacation.

No Baseball For Hevner?

Coach Tony Sharpe has announced that Enlow Hevner may not be able to compete in baseball this spring. Hevner, a two letter winner, is the only Husker southpaw pitcher.

He has had mononucleosis and has not been able to work out for some time.
