NU Attempts To Snap Five-Game Loss String

By Hal Brown

Harry Tolly will be making his first start of the season today as the Husker baseballers try to snap their five-game losing streak against Iowa State at Ames.

The Huskers are 3-3 in the conference and 7-5 overall. The two teams will meet in a nine-inning game today and will play two seven-inning games tomorrow.

Tolly has made six relief appearances winning two games and dropping one decision. He has pitched 17 2-3 innings and leads the team with a 2.00 earned run average.

Coach Tony Sharpe has juggled his lineup in an effort to shake the losing bug. Doug Sieler has been moved to centerfield and Dick Becher has been installed at the keystone in the major move.

Lineup

Today's probable starting lineup finds Sieler leading off in centerfield. Sieler is hitting .256. The rest of the lineup with their batting averages will be: Jerry Harris (.239), rf; Ken Ruisinger (.435), 1b; Ely Churchich (.357), c; LeRoy Zentic (.290), lf; Becher (.394), 2b; Phil Barth (.229), 3b; Rex Swett (.227), ss; and Tolly. Ruisinger, the teams leading hitter, will be back in the lineup after missing five games with a foot injury. Harris and Barth are leading the team in four-baggers with four and Churchich leads in base hits with 15.

Sharpe did not name his pitchers for Saturday's twin-bill but the choice will probably be made from Don Purcell, Jan Wall or Dave Webster.

Wall's three wins tops the Nebraska pitching staff. He has two losses. Purcell is 1-0 and Webster has no decisions.

Husker Netters Now Stand 4-8 After Split

The Nebraska tennis team split a pair of mid-week matches, defeating Omaha University 4-3 then losing to Bethany College, Kans. by the same score Thursday. NU has now won four and lost eight.

Al Arrigunaga and Stan Kruschwitz continue to pace the Huskers as both won singles matches against Bethany. The two then combined to post the Huskers' only doubles victory of the week.

Kruschwitz has the best singles record on the team this year with eight wins and two losses. Arrigunaga, the only other consistent Husker winner, has posted six victories against five losses.

BETHANY RESULTS

Singles
Arrigunaga (N) def. Ron Dahlsen (B), 6-1, 6-2. Gary Robinson (B) def. Bill Kendall (N), 4-6, 6-3, 6-2. Jim Pitts (B) def. Dave Calhoun (N), 7-5, 6-0. Kruschwitz (N) def. Merrill Larson (B), 6-4, 1-2. John Lindahl (B) def. John Naei (N), 6-2, 6-4.

Doubles
Arrigunaga-Kruschwitz (N) def. Dahlsen-Robinson (B), 7-5, 6-4. Pitts-Larson (B) def. Kendall-Tom Johnson (N), 6-4, 6-2.

Nebraska Tracksters Enter Kansas Relays

Track coach Frank Sevigne will take two relay teams, hurdlers and field event men to the Kansas Relays at Lawrence today and tomorrow.

Bob Cross, Dick Kier, Joe Mullins and Joe American Horse will compose the Husker distance medley relay team and Ken Ash will replace Cross in the two-mile relay.

American Horse set a Nebraska record in the two-mile run with a 9:20.5 clocking against Oklahoma in a recent dual meet. Tony Divis broke the discus record with a toss of 164-5.

The Nebraska javelin record is also being threatened with Al Roots and Howard Nellor pushing the 216-4 mark set by Herb Grote behind with a 208 toss to his credit.

DIANA MAXWELL LOOKS AT LIFE

CARNEGIE'S TENANTS—

The words Carnegie Hall conjure up strains of the New York Philharmonic, Tchaikovsky and Benny Goodman's jazz concert. But to a strangely assorted group captured in LIFE's April 25 edition, the old Hall means home.

In the 154 studios over and around the auditorium itself, the tenants range from Ly-lah Tiffany, an old, old woman who pays her $150 a month rent by begging with her accordion, to a spiritualist church which meets its rent by subletting to Alcoholics Anonymous. In the past these same rooms housed by names as John Barrymore and Isadora Duncan.

POLITICAL PRIMER

For Poli Sci majors or just plain voters, Leonard Hall's article in this week's LIFE is must election reading. Hall, who masterminded Eisenhower's 1956 campaign, discusses how politics has changed in the U.S.

The "Old Pro" discusses in not-so-bookish terms just what television and airplanes have meant to election years. The whistlestop campaign is out, he says, and closed circuit television is definitely "in."

Comments Hall about his own kind—the professional politician:

"It is a popular pastime among some people to ridicule the professional politician, but the pro does far more to get people to vote than all the do-gooders put together. If it were not for the danger involved, I would make an experiment to prove this point. I would like to take a specific area and say to the pro in charge, 'Now don't bring out the vote on election day. Don't do anything. Just let the people come out if they want to. If they don't, let them stay home.' If that experiment were tried in a local election, I think the percentage of voters would drop to 30%."

WANDERLUST

LIFE in the spring has a severe case of wanderlust, and instead of the traditional Europe trip after graduation, a swing through the south has been mapped out. In case anyone has enough funds left in June to take up traveling, an 80 item checklist of sights-not-to-be missed has been included.

Even the restaurant which in its earlier days as a seaman's tavern was the legendary death place of Treasure Island's Captain Flint has been booked for the tour.

BABY PICTURES

Personal nomination for Baby Picture of the year goes to the shot of a six month old gorilla in this week's issue. Although not the pink and white type baby, Goma still has that baby gift for evoking an "Ohhh, isn't she cute..."
