'Dizzyland,' Street Hop Coming Up

Spring Day To Be Full of Frolicking

Climaxing Spring Day activities on Friday will be the Student Union's 22nd birthday party and a street dance. The birthday party will be based on a penny carnival theme, "Dizzyland." Game booths in the Pan American room will include such events as weight-lifting (testing weight by lifting girls of various sizes and shapes), mic-racing and throwing balloons at darts.

A special booth to challenge campus lovers will feature a mechanism to test individual "love appeal."

Prizes will be awarded to the winners of the Spring Day contests during the party. The winner of the men's 10 mile bicycle race will receive two tickets to Ben Hur, a free meal at an Omaha restaurant and a date with any NU coed.

After "Dizzyland," the Cellblock Seven combo will provide music for a street dance.

Dave Brubeck Quartet Appearance To Be Sponsored By Cobs, May 12

The Dave Brubeck Quartet, featuring Paul Desmond, will appear in concert as a University Corn Cobs attraction May 12 at Pershing Municipal Auditorium.

Tickets will be sold to students with I.D. cards for 75 cents and 95 cents per person. Otherwise, the prices will be $1.90 and $1.50. Tickets will be on sale in the Student Union near the Crib beginning Wednesday and lasting till noon Friday.

Low Price Cobs President Dave McConahay explained, "We are able to bring the Dave Brubeck Quartet for an unusually low admission price because of the tremendous student support of the Kingston Trio concert in February."

"Prices were set on the Trio," he added, "such that Cobs would break even on the show."

He went on to comment that Cobs' purpose in bringing outside talent to the University is "to bolster the prestige of the campus and thus improve school spirit." Brubeck has played nearly every major college and university in the country since his rise to popularity more than six years ago.

Fraternity Sing Leaders to Meet

All fraternity Ivy Day song chairmen are urged to attend an important meeting in the Student Union at 5 p.m. today, according to Joe Knoll, chairman of the sing.

Knoll said it would be the last meeting before Ivy Day, and chairmen will draw for places of order in the sing. Also, he said, last minute eligibility checks will be made. He emphasized that all chairmen should attend.

He began playing jazz in local dance bands in L. O. N. e., Calif., at the age of 13, and as a music major at the College of the Pacific, he organized a swing band.

Returning from Europe after the war, he studied theory and composition from Darius Milhaud.

"I came to Milhaud because I wanted to be a composer," Brubeck pointed out. "I do wish I could devote more time to writing — not only sketches for jazz which are really a framework for improvising, but I would like to experiment in more extended forms."

The pianist noted, "To me, the quartet is an integrated instrument consisting of four individual soloists, each of whom is a performer-composer in his own right."

CONCERT HERE — The Dave Brubeck Quartet, featuring Paul Desmond, will appear at Pershing Municipal Auditorium May 12. The University Corn Cobs will sponsor the event. Ticket sales will begin Wednesday in the Student Union.

Drive Nixed By AUF

Freedom Fund Plea Denied

All University Fund board has voted not to authorize an organized solicitation on campus for the Freedom Fund.

It was proposed that AUF either carry on an immediate emergency solicitation itself to aid the Negro students in southern universities or that AUF authorize the Student Christian Council to conduct a drive.

AUF, as the only campus organization set up to solicit students and faculty, had to give its permission before the SCC could plan a drive.

"We feel it is too late in the year to plan and conduct a successful solicitation," said AUF president Sue Koski.

"It would be too difficult to reach the entire campus in the few weeks of school left," she said. "However, we do encourage everyone who is interested in contributing to the Freedom Fund set up by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to do so," she added.

They may send their donations to the YWCA office in the city Union or in the Ag Student Union.

"Next year AUF will include the NAACP's Freedom Fund as one of the charities listed in the fall poll," Miss Koski said. "Then the campus will have an opportunity to vote for it as a recipient of a portion of next year's funds."

The Faculty Drive held this spring netted $833 from 181 contributions, drive chairman Nancy Raun reported. This was way over the goal of $700, she said.

Faculty Drive contributions bring the total for this year's AUF drive to over $4,420.
