NU Places In College Competition

The results of both the National Intercollegiate Bridge and the Intercollegiate Bowling tournaments were returned from national headquarters last week.

In the bridge tournament Nebraska's team of Bill Hemmer and French Ross took second place in one 8, which includes most of the Big Eight schools.

In the University division Hemmer and Ross won the North-South section, and Dee Donnell and Verna Boulton won the East-West section.

Other results and a summary of the hands played are posted on the bulletin board in the Student Union Games Area.

In the bowling tournament, Nebraska placed 25th out of the 80 schools participating in the men's division. Nebraska had a total of 3235 pins; the pins.

In the women's entries Nebraska placed 16th out of 20 with a total of 2310 pins.

Ralph Holmstrom placed third in the all-events division, and Linda Joyce placed third in the women's all-events. Ralph Holmstrom and Gary Starck finished in first place in the men's doubles with a score of 1155. Marian Brayton and Carol Graves finished third in the women's doubles.

AGR Girls Swamp Campus

Tags with Alpha Gamma Rho written on them swamped the Ag campus yesterday.

Wearing these tags were high school girls who massed the campus for Home Economics Days.

The publicity-minded AGR's were instigators in starting the movement of having girls visit their house. The tags soon caught the eyes of other girls who soon wandered to the house to get their tag. Hospitality Days continues today.

Reaccreditation Given by NAAB

The University's department of Architecture has been granted a continuation of its accreditation by a vote of the National Architecture Accrediting Board.

The action was taken on the recommendation of the Board's visiting committee, which came to the campus earlier this year.

The Board reviews the architectural schools in the United States each five years. Members of the visiting committee were I. Lloyd Roark, Kansas City architect; Philpi N. Youtz, dean of the College of Architecture at the University of Michigan; and Fred L. Markham, Provo, Utah, architect and member of the National Architectural Accrediting Board.

Lucky Strike's Dr. Frood declares:

Graduation is all a matter of degree

Dear Dr. Frood: I'm working my way through college. I have delivered newspapers, worked as an usher in the local movie theater and rolled bandages for the school infirmary. What can my college life possibly prepare me for?

Dean

Dear Dean: Give him a big smile, put your arm around his shoulders and say, "How're things, pal?"

Beaver

Dear Beaver: Publishing, motion pictures, medicine.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am about to graduate top girl in my class. I have decided to take up a career, rather than squander my intellectual achievements on bawling babies, dreary housework and a sloppy husband. Don't you think I have made the right decision?

Smart Gal

Dear Smart: I do, and I feel safe in saying that I make that statement on behalf of every man in America.

Dear Dr. Frood: What a mess I have made out of college! I am flunking out because I have been so lazy. I can't get a job because I have made such a poor record. I have no friends because I have no college spirit. What is there left for me?

Chastened

Dear Chastened: You can always serve as a horrible example.

Dear Dr. Frood: I was outraged to learn that a rich, spoiled senior is planning to give sports cars as graduation presents to all the friends he has made in college. Is there any action I should take?

Dean

Dear Dean: Just what we've said all along. Parties, parties, parties!

Dear Dr. Frood: Yesterday I visited my boy friend and I saw two Lucky Strikes burning in an ash tray. One had lipstick! Was I right in slapping him in the face and leaving the room?

Scorned

Dear Scorned: No. Why get jealous just because other girls smoke the same brand you do?

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.
