Dr. Keys To Make English Trip

Leaving on a clinic and lecture tour to England in August is Dr. Donald A. Keys, chairman of the department of operative dentistry.

Dr. Keys has received an invitation to attend the 100th anniversary of the Swedish Dental Society and to give a clinical demonstration on the "physical properties of restorative materials in dental practice."

He also will present the clinic at the University of London and will visit the school of dentistry at the University of Edinburgh and the Dental School of Oslo, Norway.

YWCA Cabinet Pre-interview Briefing Planned

All girls who intend to apply for YWCA cabinet positions must attend a pre-interview briefing at 1:30 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union.

Those who wish to apply but cannot attend must make other arrangements with the YWCA office or president Janet Hansen before Sunday.

Explanations of next year's program and positions available will be announced.

Individual interviews will be held May 13 and 14. Each applicant must submit a short written outline of the group program they would propose if they were to be chosen for that position.

Stewart Awarded Princeton Grant

Dennis Stewart, mid-term honors graduate, has been awarded the George McClean Harper fellowship to Princeton University.

The fellowship is one of the most coveted at the eastern school, according to Dr. Paul Olson, associate professor of English. A grant of $2,450, is awarded periodically to a graduate student who shows exceptional creative ability and good scholarship.

Stewart will use the fellowship to study for his Ph. D. in English at Princeton.

'Diary' Will Star New Theatricals

The cast of the coming University theatre production, "The Diary of Anne Frank" will feature a group of newcomers to the Howell Theatre stage.

Miss Sharon Purbaugh will play the part of Anne Frank. Miss Purbaugh is a freshman theatre major and appeared previously in University Theatre's "Three Men on a Horse."

The part of Margot Frank is played by Lesly Smith. This will be her first appearance on the Howell Theatre Stage although she has appeared in several lab productions this year.

Mrs. Frank will be depicted by Louise Shadley, a freshman in Teachers College.

Mrs. Van Daans will be played by freshman Sharon Binfield, and Peter Van Daans by John Abrahamson, also a freshman.

More seasoned actors appearing in the production will include Joe Hill as Mr. Van Daans. Hill recently returned from a trip to Israel. An owner-director of the Dark Horse Theatre in Estes Park, he recently appeared in the Kosmet Klub spring show and is a member of Masquers.

Mary Dee Paterson will play the part of the secretary, Miet. Miss Paterson is a senior speech major and has accepted an assistantship with the University speech department for next year.

Bill Larson, also a senior theatre major will play Mr. Kraler. Larson spent last summer in North Carolina doing summer stock work and plans to study theatre at
