QUICK CHANGE ARTISTS-Members of the prop crew for "The Diary of Anne Frank" go to work. They can clear the stage in 15 seconds. "Diary" opens Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Howell Memorial Theatre.

Curtain to Rise KK Seeks Reps On 'Diary' Set On Wednesday

The curtain will rise on the | Although "Diary" is a one-Nebraska Theater's produc- set show, the technical plot tion of "The Diary of Anne Frank" Wednesday evening changes and sound cues. at 8 and present nightly shows through Saturday in the Howell Memorial Theater.

of a little Jewish girl's faith of Leanne Jensen. in humanity and her triumph Other supervisors in the over Nazi barbarism.

which is the last of the 1959-60 season, includes John Luther Frost; scenery depart-Abrahamzon, Zeff Bernstein, ment, Dick Marrs, and light-Joe Hill, Sharron Purbaugh, ing and sound, Jim MacDon-Mary Dee Paterson, Louise ald. Shadley, James Baker, Sharon Binfield, Bill Larson and Chairman and Ken Tempero directed by Dr. production manager; Luther Frost, Morgan of the de- Margery Coffey assistant to William R. Morgan of the de- Margery Coffey assistant to partment of speech and dra- the director. The wardrobe matic arts, is an adaptation department is under the care production side of the play The cast for this play, include stage crew, Phyllis

Andy Wolvin is publicity is the house manager.

Registration for Fall, Summer Is This Week

for either the fall semester in their worksheets at 208 Ad-1960-61 or the summer ses- ministration, or no cards can sion must see their advisers be pulled, she explained. this week, according to Mrs. The schedule for turning in Irma Laase, assistant regis- worksheets is: juniors and Cards will be pulled for May 17; and freshmen, May early registration for both the 18 and 19. Late worksheets summer and fall sessions, will be accepted on May 20.

sponsible for their own work- 14-17. sheets, Mrs. Laase added.

Ag College students may leave their worksheets at the ing to the accumulated hours

3,000 Persons Attend Requiem Says Wishnow

at the Coliseum.

Prof. Emanuel Wishnow, year's attendance at the an-nual choral presentation of added, the Registrar's Office nual choral presentation of the University.

tendance, but had hoped that that time if necessary, more might attend.

Porgy and Bess fame, Rose-mary Kuhlman and John made, the Registrar's Office Alexander of New York and will call in the student for Leon Lishner, assistant professor of music, appeared in concert with the Choral Un-

Some 600 students from the Singers, Men's Varsity Glee Ballroom. Club, the two University cho-

Undergraduates registering All other students must turn seniors, May 16; sophomores,

Miss Laase pointed out that Junior Division students students not turning in their should leave their worksheets | worksheets by that time may with their advisers, while all register for summer school other undergraduates are re- on June 6 and for fall, Sept.

Accumulated Hours office of their college dean, earned by each student and the order in which worksheets are turned in. Changes may be necessary in the student's original schedule, Mrs. Laase said. To allow for these changes and still make it possible for a student to have a workable An estimated 3,000 persons schedule, she explained, stuattended the music depart- dents must see that alternament's presentation of Ver- tive courses and alternative di's Requiem Sunday night sections in multisection courses are listed.

Students must also fill in director of the performance, the bottom schedule part of said that this topped last the worksheet, she said. For must assume when time on He said he was "encour- the schedule is left blank, a aged" by the increased at- class could be scheduled at

If a student has followed Soloists Adelle Addison of these instructions and a work-

The Initiation Banquet of Sigma Xi, science scholastic Ag College Chorus, the Uni-versity Singers, Madrigal at 6:30 in the Student Union

Dr. Donald Pace, Director ruses and the University of the Cellular Research Insymphony orchestra partici- stitute, will speak on "Smoke, Smog and Cancer."

MAY 11 1960

DAILY NEBRASKAN

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

2,446 Voters Flock To Poll Student Council Election

than elections in the past two years—a total of 2,446 stu- the official notification for their representative.

The following results are near future to determine Fred Rickers Pamela Hollow long during a sunny day for voting. Last years total of 1,986 voters amassed during rainy weather. The zational voting, Two girls Clare Vrba 1958 total of voters in the each received seven votes for June Struve Council election was 1,908.

A total of 455 ballots were invalidated by the Student Council due to the neglect of the voters to read the ballot al changes-were invalidated due to the lack of a mark either for or against the proposed changes. Of the total, 114 ballots were invalidated in the constitutional change

Votes were tabulated by

For Fall Show

Kosmet Klub will hold a meeting today at 3 p.m. for all skitmasters or repre-sentatives of fraternity houses interested in competing in the Kosmet Klub fall show.

The meeting will be in the Student Union, room

Half Body

Costly Mannequin Taken Saturday

The campus police are currently seeking a pair of ban-dits that stole the lower half of a mannequin from a car parked in front of the Student Union Saturday night. The mannequin, which is estimated at costing $150, was stolen sometime between 11:15-11:30 p.m. during University High's Jr.-Sr. Ban-

The two thieves, who were the Selleck Quadrangle where the trail disappeared, according to Richard Hart of University High.

'It is not known as of yet whether the two boys are college or high school students," said Mr. Hart.

The theft of the mannequin, which will have to be unless it is returned, is in the area of grand larceny and will be treated as such unless returned, according to Mr. Hart.

Kosmet Klub

all Kosmet Klub members in event. Room 349 of the Student Union at 5 p.m. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

dent voters went to the polls. those elected. Students elect- Election results are as fol- Linda Sawvell Students flocked to the ed are to attend the next lows: (those elected are in Evelyn Eisenhart polls during the mid-morning. meeting of the Student Coun- bold face) The afternoon lines were cil, which will be held in 235 Student Union at 4 p.m. Deon Stuthman Wednesday.

One tie resulted in organi- Roger Phipps Tassel representative. Build- Marjorie Goman ers have not elected their Invalid representative yet, but are ARTS and SCIENCES expected to do so at their James Samples next regular meeting. Tas- Alan Plummer

Student Council elections the University's IBM Data sels will be required to hold Joanie Davies yesterday drew more voters Processing Department. a "run-off" election in the Ann Moyer

AGRICULTURE Sara Rhodes

Some ballots had an insufficient number of votes for the number elected in that college and others—those ballots dealing with constitution. Nominations Are Open Nominations are now being professor of secondary eduaccepted by the Daily Ne- cation; Frank Hallgren, as-braskan for its Outstanding sistant dean of student af-Nebraskan awards to be pre- fairs.

Student Union.

Letters should be signed property of the Nebraskan. The names of those persons nominating will be kept confidential.

Nominations will be accepted until 5 p.m., May 17. Any or all parts of the let-Nebraskan.

nounced in the final issue, May 20. Certificate awards will be presented to the "Out-will be pre luncheon in the Union the Faculty members nominated must have been on the University staff for at least two years. Student candidates may not be paid staff members of the Daily Nebraskan. Columnists are eligible.

Dick Basoco and Professor of English Karl Shapiro were last semesters honorees. Past faculty recipients of the award include Dallas Williams, director of University Theater; Dr. George Rosenlof, dean of admissions; the Rev. Rex Knowles, former student pastor of the seen wearing green and white Congregational-Presby t e r-jackets, were followed into ian House; Mary Melenz,

Six J-Schoolers Are Honored

Six students in the top 10 per cent of the junior and senior classes in the School of Journalism were initiated into Kappa Tau Alpha schoreplaced by the junior class lastic journalism honorary, Sunday.

They were Barbara Barker, Mary Blake, Mary Lou Reese, Carroll Kraus, Ingrid Leder and Larry Novicki.

Russell Weber, editor of the Fremont Guide and Tribune, There will be a meeting of was guest speaker at the Other undergraduate members of the society are Diana Maxwell, Gretchen Sides and Sony Whalen.

sented to a faculty member Ferris Norris, chairman of and a student who have dis- the electrical engineering de- George Moyer tinguished themselves on the partment; Duane Lake, for- William Gourlay Any student or faculty mer managing director of the Union; Dr. O. K. Bouwsma, member may nominate a professor of philosophy; Dr. candidate in the form of a Carl Georgi, chairman of the letter addressed to the Ne-braskan office in Room 51 Emaneul Wishnow, chairman Dave Myers of the music department.

Donald Olson, assistant proby the person making the fessor of speech; W. V. Lamnomination and become the bert, dean of the College of Pat Mullen Agriculture; and Bob Handy, Nichole Christie former activities director of Letty Hubka the Student Union. Student winners of the Out- Gayle Branigan standing Nebraskan award in- Helen Glenn clude Steve Schultz, Sandra Paul Johns Reimers, Diane Knotek Buth- Jean Carlson ters may be reprinted in the erus, Gail Katske Wishnow, lebraskan.

The winners will be an Bob Novak, Mary Stromer, Invalid

Catherine Stuart Invalid lis Bonner.

Nebraskan Applications Are Sought

Applications are still being accepted for paid positions on the fall semester staff of the Daily Nebraskan.

Students wishing to apply should pick up an applica-tion in the School of Journalism office in the west corridor of the third floor of Burnett Hall.

The completed form should be returned to the J-School office by 5 p.m. Thursday.

Positions available and the salaries per month in-clude: editor, $85; manag-ing editor, $65; news editor, $65; sports editor, $45; three copy editors, $35; four staff writers, $35; business manager, $65; three assistant business managers, $20 plus commissions; and circulation manager, $60.

For any further information, call the Daily Nebraskan office any afternoon except Wednesday, HE 2-7631, ext. 4225, 4226, 4227, or the School of Journalism, HE 2-7631, ext. 3156

A person will be eliminated for running off the track, breaking another runner's eggs or breaking his own eggs. The winner must have the egg in his

Judith Hansen Stanley Wilson Jeffery Orr Invalid DENTISTRY Bryan Ericson Tom Evans

Pamela Holloway

Bill Connell

Philip Johnson

Gaylan Abood

Raymond Bulin

177

BUSINESS

ADMINISTRATION

ENGINEERING Neil Ferguson Steve Gage Chip Kuklin Milton Rogge Leon Olsen John Musselman Invalid

LAW PHARMACY Robert Atkins Roger Prochazka TEACHERS

Joel Meier Jean Morrison Kathy Madsen Patricia McOstrich

Alfreda Stute Vera Egger Gisela Stark INTER CO-OP COUNCIL Dave Bliss

Jerome Stam CORN COBS Roy Arnold

Ron Gould Bob Shapiro RAM COUNCIL. Don Witt

Bill Holland PANHELLENIC Sharon Rogers Judy Means

Diane Tinan Jeanne Garner COUNCIL ON RELIGION Alan Kreuger

Marcia Weber

Mike Milroy

Booths Used In Ag Rodeo Eleven clubs set up booths to represent Ag College dur-ing the Rodeo Friday and Saturday.

Sponsored by the Ag Exec-Board, the booths were deand departments in the Col-There was a competition for the best booths in which Corn Cobs; IWA; IFC; Inter Block and Bridle club took Co-op Council; Nebraska Unfirst place followed by Ag ion Board of Managers; Pan-Union, second, and Wildlife hellenic Council; RAM; Tas-Club third.

Plaques were awarded by Roger Wehrbein of the Ag eign Students. Exec Board at the afternoon performance.

Judges of the booth competition were members of the faculty and staff and included R. B. Warren, assistant professor of animal husbandry; Richard Trickey, assistant professor of art; and For Masquers Deloris Clouse, professor of

According to Mylon Filkins, the booths were so successful nual event at the rodeo

Lending Library Pictures Are Due

the music control room be- ater season. charged for overdue pictures. quers' worker for $3.

235 | Jay Snell TASSELS Nancy Tederman Gaylan Wells

Pat O'Dell

Muriel Lelchesk

Letty Hubka Jean Hinman ' Cindy Peterson The Student Council constitutional changes were approved by a vote of 1.783 to

Also elected in voting yesterday were the members of the Business Administration Student Advisory Board.

Students eligible were to vote for two from each class. There were 32 invalid votes. Students elected are in bold type. Results were as follows:

SOPHOMORE Judith Hansen247 Michael Miner 193 Stanley Navrude 153 Janice Dean366 Lloyd Sauter366 SENIOR Roberta Knaup366 Steve Stumpff 366

Voters in the Student Council election this year once 225 again used the new ballot in-196 troduced last year, the fa-112 miliar IBM card.

Formerly ballots were counted by Student Council 70 members and the counting 69 ran far into the night in 68 many cases. Four IBM machines are required for the tabulations.

First the ballots are run through a mark sensing machine which transfers the 22 pencil marks into appropriate holes in the card which

6 by college. A third machine, an electronic calculator, adds the total number of votes on such ballots ot be sure that the ballots are filled out correct-

The fourth machine, a statistical sorter tabulates the number of votes given each candidate and prints the re-

Total time elapsed, 11/2

11 Council 11 Changes Approved

Representative List Revised

Student voters also approved the proposed Student Council constitutional changes in the election held yesterday, according to Kathy Roach, Council Elections Roach, committee chairman.

Proposed Council constitution changes included a revised list of Organizations Board, the booths were designed to promote Ag clubs Each newly approved group will be entitled to one representative on the Council.

These groups are: AWS: sels; Builders; University Council on Religion and For-

Other changes in the constitution which were approved were primarily changes of the wording for

Annual Banquet To Be May 21

Tickets are now on sale for that they will become an an- the 16th annual Nebraska Masquer's award banquet which will be held May 21 in the Pan American Room of the Student Union.

Featured at the banquet will be the presentation of The pictures checked out the awards for best actor from the Student Union pic- and actress, best supporting ture lending library are due actor and actress, technical and experimental theater dur-They should be turned into ing the past University the-tween the hours of 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. A fine will be from any Masquer or Mas-

-Charioteers Start Practicing-

Jr. IFC Plans Greek Games

The annual "Greek Games," sponsored e a ch year by the Junior IFC, will be held May 13 at the south end of the football practice field. A football throw, chariot the featured events of the 1960 all-Greek day. A traveling trophy will be awarded to the winner of the entire games. In addition, individual trophies will be awarded for first, sec-ond and third places.

race, egg race, chug race and a pyramid race will be

The different contests will be scored on a point basis, with the chariot race carrying the most points for the winning Greek house. Chariot Race

The chariot race will consist of four fraternity men pulling, while the sorority girl of their choice rides.

The chariot cannot exceed the maximum of ten feet from the axle to the end of the tongue and the four men will be required to pull the chariot by means of a tongue which cannot exceed seven feet in length. These four men must be in a row, not in tandem positions.

his bottle. The egg race will be run over a 150 yard course and Chug race requires participation of three fraternity members and three sorority members. The beverage used will be contained in baby bottles and the participants must tag the next person in the race only after he has finished requires one runner from each house. Eggs will be placed in the runners'

mouths and in each eloow

with the arms crossed.

mouth intact. The last three runners of the race will eat Pyramid Race The pyramid race will require six members from a house. Five will carry the other participant with no support other than hands for a distance of 50 yards.

require distance, not ac-The football throw will require distance, not accuracy. Each contestant will receive two throws and the winner will be determined from these throws.

Preliminaries in the chariot, egg and pyramid races will preceed the finals of these events and the activities begin at 2 p.m.