Four Nominees

Continued from Page 1 of service. Her warmth, personality and love of her fellow students is constantly reflected in her activities, her attitudes and by never being too busy to talk over problems or help out a friend."

Robert Anderson is a senior in civil engineering.

He is a member of ASCE, Sigma Tau engineering honorary and Pi Mu Epsilon mathematics honorary and served as secretary-treasurer of the Civil Engineer Honor Society.

He has served as intramural chairman of Burnett House, is a past member of the RAM Glee Club and was active in E-Week.

Transferred Here

Anderson transferred to the University after two years at Wayne State Teacher's College.

Besides his regular credit hours of work, he works part time for the State Department of Roads.

Many students have been acquainted with Mrs. Irma Laase who is assistant registrar and has been in that office for 12 years.

For six years she has been in charge of registration and has been instrumental in many of the registration changes which have taken place.

Among her duties is the supervision of IBM cards for registration, grade reports, permanent records, and listing of averages.

All changes and new courses made in the college catalogs are done under her direction as well as room assignments for the courses.

Honors Convocation

A member of the Honors Day Convocation committee, she has been responsible for listing students to be honored at the convocations.

Other duties outside of administration at the University include chairman of the Group Work section of the Lincoln Community Council, past chairman of the University YWCA advisory board and present member; Community Council committee which studied and recommended financial support from the Community Council for the Y; and currently chairman of the Rocky Mountain Region advisory board for YWCA.

She is also on the advisory board for the United Student Fellowship.

Mrs. Laase graduate from Doane College with majors in chemistry and mathematics. She received her Master of Arts degree from the University of Chicago and has done additional work at the University of Wisconsin in Speech Pathology.

"When a student has a problem Mrs. Laase is always ready to stop her busy schedule and to take time to work out the best solution in the interest of the student," the letter stated.

Four of her children have graduated from the University, two with high distinction and two with distinction.

Paleontology Expedition Scholarship Is Available

Applications may now be secured for the William E. Green Paleontology Scholarship according to Dr. C. B. Schultz, Curator of Vertebrate Paleontology and director of the museum.

The scholarship provides the sum of $250 for a student participating in a Vertebrate Paleontology Expedition of the University Museum for a period not to exceed two and one half months during the summer of 1960. In addition to the $250; meals, lodging and transportation will be furnished by the Museum.

In order to qualify the applicant must be an undergraduate student registered in any school or college of the University. By the end of the current semester he must have completed at least one satisfactory year with high scholarship at the University and must show active interest in the field of vertebrate paleontology.

Students applying must send completed applications and transcripts of credits to Dr. Schultz by June 1.

The William E. Green Memorial Paleontology Scholarship award is made possible through a fund established in the University Foundation in 1945 by Dean and Mrs. Roy M. Green and their children, Nancy, Elizabeth and Thomas, in memory of their son and brother, William who lost his life in the line of duty in World War II.

Prior to entering the Army, Green had been actively interested in vertebrate paleontology and had been a member of several University State Museum expeditions.
