

Coach of The Week Award Goes to Nebraska Mentor

UPI Honors Jennings Third Consecutive Year

Bill Jennings was named Coach of The Week by United Press International Wednesday for the third time in as many years.

Jennings received the honor from UPI for Nebraska's upset win over Texas Saturday. The Husker leader was named Coach of The Week by UPI after the 14-7 win over Penn State in 1958 and after the 25-21 triumph over Oklahoma last year.

"Defeating Texas ranks right along with the win over Oklahoma," said Jennings. A short third-down quick kick put Nebraska in position for its second touchdown in the third quarter.

"That was the first and only gift the Texans ever made to us in the two games we have played them," Jennings said. "They don't give you the ball on your side of the field often."

The win over Texas brought Jennings' won-lost record at Nebraska to nine wins against 22 defeats. Four of the nine wins have been victories that stunned the football world.

Wins over Penn State and Pittsburgh in 1958, last year's win over Oklahoma and Saturday's victory over Texas were all of the major upset variety.

The 1960 edition of the Nebraska grid squad is the first team that has been completely recruited under the Jennings regime. Jennings came to Nebraska as an assistant to Pete Elliott in 1956 and took over the top spot in 1957 when Elliott moved to California.

The Nebraska record has improved progressively during Jennings' first three years starting with a 1-9 record, followed by seasons of 3-7 and 4-6.

Jackpot Bowling on TV from California will be shown in the north party room of the Nebraska Union every Monday night at 9:30, according to Merle Reiling.

Milton Berle will emcee the show which will feature the world's greatest bowlers.

"This program will give the students an opportunity to watch the professionals in action," said Reiling.

The winner of Jackpot Bowling will be determined by the number of strikes in nine frames. The participants will shoot for strikes only.

Jackpot Bowling Set for Viewing

Pat Fischer is the winner of the first Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week award for this season with his performance against Texas.

The Husker quarterback led Nebraska to its first victory of the season and tied for the lead in the Big Eight scoring race with two touchdowns.

Fischer also jumped to the lead in punt returns with his 36.5 average on two returns.

"We all played good ball, but we are going to have to play better ball," said Fischer.

Fischer Receives Nebraskan Award

Physical examinations for all tennis players, both varsity and freshmen, will be given at the Student Health Center at 7 p.m. Friday and at 7 a.m. Sept. 30, according to Ed Higginbotham, tennis coach.

When queried about the Nebraska showing against Texas.

When asked about a possible letdown against Minnesota, Fischer said, "We have let the poor teams beat us in the past while we beat the best, but this year we are going to take every team as it comes along."

The little quarterback who uncorked a touchdown bound punt return to snap Nebraska's spirits back after early game fumbles and a Texas score is a Business Administration student.

Bowling Entries Due Sept. 28

Deadline for league bowling entries in the Student Union is September 28, according to Ron Gould, games chairman.

Golf Meeting

A meeting for all men interested in varsity or freshman golf will be held at 5:15 p.m. Thursday in Room 114 of the Physical Education Building, according to Harry Good, golf coach.

AP Places Huskers 12th

Nebraska, a 14-13 upset winner over Texas, is ranked 12th nationally in the first weekly Associated Press poll of the season.

The Huskers with 59 points are just one point away from Penn State in 11th place and only three points shy of the top ten. Kansas is rated seventh while Missouri ranks 15th with Texas in the 14th slot.

The Longhorns were in the top ten in the pre-season poll but dropped to 14th as the result of their opening game loss to the Huskers.

Daily Nebraskan Sports

Iowa State Works Hard

Iowa State mentor Clay Stapleton is pushing his squad through a rigorous training schedule in preparation for the Detroit game Friday night.

"We made too many mistakes against Drake," Stapleton told his squad Monday. "So we will plan on three hard days of work to get ready for Detroit."

Although the Cyclones have not had a look at Detroit this year, the Iowa State staff expects Jim Miller, Detroit coach, to field a strong squad with a rugged defense.

Recreational Swim Times Announced

Recreational swimming for men students and faculty will begin October 10 at the Coliseum Pool.

The pool will be open Monday through Friday from 12-12:45 p.m. and from 4-5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and 10-11:30 a.m. Saturday, according to Dick Klaas, swimming coach.

Gopher Forward Wall Includes Six Over 210

By Hal Brown

Minnesota's seven-man forward wall that Nebraska will be running against Saturday is one of the heaviest in Gopher football history averaging 221 pounds per man.

The starting backfield combination also averages over 200 pounds per man with quarterback Sandy Stephens tipping the scales at 212 pounds, left halfback Judge Dickson at 208, right halfback Bill Kauth at 180 and fullback Roger Hagberg at 206.

Nebraska's gridders went through a rugged two-hour Coach Bill Jennings indicated that he would probably start the same lineup against Minnesota Saturday that opened the Texas game.

Quarterback Ron Meade is confined to Student Health for observation. Meade spent two days last week in Student Health and was released just in time to make the trip to Texas.
