

Greek Residences Present New Faces To Campus

By Jim Forrest

Facelifting activities were prominent on campus this summer in fraternity and sorority houses as re-decoration ranged from new furnaces to new additions.

The sororities were the most vigorous redecorators with Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi and Delta Gamma building new additions on to their houses.

Completion Soon

Alpha Chi Omega's new addition on the corner of 15th and Vine is scheduled for completion by the first of November. The structure will house a new kitchen, dining room, second floor and front entrance. Improved parking facilities have also been made.

In January the Alpha Phi's hope to move into their new addition, which includes bedrooms and a dining room in its three floor interior. Besides the new addition, Alpha Phi is also repainting the outside of their house white.

Delta Gamma is now using the first floor of their new addition for a dining room and kitchen. The other two floors, which will house bedrooms for eighteen girls, are not expected to be completed until the later part of October.

Gamma Phi Beta is planning to start construction on their new addition this spring. The structure will include kitchen-dining room area, bedrooms and a sundeck. They have also refurbished and re-carpeted the second and third floors of the present house.

No Addition
Not building or planning any new additions, Alpha Xi Delta spent the summer redecorating the entire main floor and dining room.

Of a less spectacular nature of campus redecoration are Alpha Omicron Pi's new furnace and Sigma Kappa's new dining room furniture.

Other campus face lifting includes the redecoration of Chi Omega's dining room and bedrooms, the re-furnishing of Kappa Kappa Gamma's chapter room and Kappa Delta's completion of the top floor of their new addition.

Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi and Zeta Tau Alpha did just minor repainting of rooms.

New Annex
The fraternity side of campus face lifting saw only Acacia acquiring new floor space. Not wanting to build, Acacia did the next best thing and purchased an annex at 306 N. 17th, which will house ten more members.

The rest of the fraternities were satisfied with remodeling what they already had.

Alpha Gamma Sigma redecorated their house mother's quarters and dining room and repainted the outside; Alpha Gamma Rho, with their new house, were fortunate enough not to have to do any touching up; Alpha Tau Omega re-did their chapter room, while Beta Theta Pi went all out with new rugs, combination windows and new electrical wiring.

Another ambitious house,

Delta Tau Delta, re-tarred their roof, graded and smoothed out their parking lot and painted the inside.

Touch-Up Work
Doing just repainting and touch-up work on their houses, but nothing extensive were Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma and Beta Sigma Psi.

Other minor work was done by Delta Sigma Phi, Delta Sigma Pi, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Mu, Sigma Nu, Zeta Beta Tau, Theta Chi, and Phi Gamma Delta who are planning to move to a new location in a year or two.

Sigma Phi Epsilon did some rebuilding of porches and windows plus getting new gutters. Theta Xi also did extensive rebuilding of their kitchen.

Rounding out fraternity row fix-up is Farmhouse with new rugs; Phi Delta Theta with new tile on the second and third floors; and Sigma Chi who put in new rugs, desks and beds. Sinks and ventilation were added in the kitchen and re-upholstered furniture in the living room.

Top Honors Go to Xi's For Rally

AOP's, Phi Psi's Get Recognition

Theta Xi won the Corn Cob banner contest at the Minnesota football rally in front of the Student Union Friday night. Runners up in the competition were Alpha Omicron Pi and Phi Kappa Psi.

Approximately 1,000 students attended the rally as fraternity pledge classes carrying their banners followed the cheerleaders and band on to the Union patio.

Some signs were destroyed but police kept the high spirited crowd under hand.

According to Yell King Al Krizelman, it was "the largest rally in the last 3 years and the sign contest showed the most preparation."

"I hope this spirit will continue for the rest of the season," Krizelman said.

He added that there will be a contest each week for house spirit at the games. The organized house winning the trophy the most times during the next five games will retire it until next year.

Winners for last year's season were the Tri Deltas.

Judging, to be done by cheerleaders, will be based on the organized yelling of the house. Original ideas such as banners, noise makers, balloons, flags or pom poms are encouraged.

The contest is open to both men's and women's organized houses and the trophy will be delivered to the winning house at the end of each game.

University Enrollment Up

With one week of registration remaining, enrollment figures show promise of being higher than the final totals of a year ago, according to Dr. F. L. Nicolai, deputy registrar.

FORWARD MARCH!

Forces are up for this year for the Cadence Countesses, who kept time in a Sunday afternoon practice. Twenty-eight countesses reported for the practice to prepare for several of the campus activities. Connected with the Army ROTC program, the countesses are again under the direction of Capt. Charles J. Svoboda.

Ak-Sar-Ben To Host 100 Ag Students

Almost 100 Ag students will be feted tonight by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben as they attend the annual Ak-Sar-Ben dinner in Omaha.

These students are all recipients of Ak-Sar-Ben scholarships for both freshmen and upperclassmen.

Besides the dinner, these students will also be guest of their host at the annual Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo.

The students will leave Lincoln by bus at 4:30 Monday afternoon.

Among the faculty that will attend the banquet are Dean and Mrs. J. P. Colbert, Dr. and Mrs. David P. McGill and Dr. F. E. Eldridge.

Scrip Mag Sale Starts Tomorrow

Scrip, the Nebraska student literary magazine, will go on sale tomorrow in five places.

Among the authors are Lee Parks, Barbara Wilson, Fred Gaings, Darryl Freeland, Ron Mohl, Lyle Linder and Dick Gilliland.

Writers may pick up their manuscripts in Room 205 Andrews.

Copies may be purchased at the Union, Andrews Hall, Nebraska Book Store, Miller and Paine's and Peden's. Back issues for those who wish to complete their collections will be sold in Andrews Hall.

TODAY ON CAMPUS
Late fees for graduate students begin.

AUF DRIVE

Organizations Selected By Student-Faculty Poll

Four organizations to be supported by the All University Fund will be selected by a student-faculty poll on October 17.

AUF is the only organization authorized to solicit the campus for contributions to charity. It gives the students a chance to support those organizations which they feel are most worthy.

The drive for student contributions will be from November 6 to 19. A faculty drive is to be conducted in the spring.

Students will usually be asked to contribute by personal contact with one of the 50 AUF members or one of their representatives in fraternities, sororities, or dorms. A booth will be set up in the Union for independent.

The 12 charities to be voted upon are divided into three general sections. These are Health, Unfortunate Children and Improved Living and Education.

Under the first section, Health, are included in the National Association for Mental Health, United Cerebral Palsy, the University Speech and Hearing Laboratories, the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Nebraska, and the Nebraska Division of the American Cancer Society.

Included in the second section, Unfortunate Children, are the Nebraska Orthopedic Hospital, LARC (Lancaster Association for Retarded Children) School, and the Child Welfare League of America.

The colleges showing increases in enrollment at 4:30 p.m. Thursday were Arts and Sciences, Engineering and Arts and Sciences, Engineering and Architecture and Business Administration.

The latest tabulation showed Arts and Sciences had 1,749 students enrolled compared to 1,546 first semester last year. The women breakdown shows 1,130 men in Arts and Sciences compared to 1,046 a year ago. There were 619 women registered Thursday as compared to only 500 a year ago.

'Streetcar' Characters Announced

Theater Promises 'Year of Surprises'

Characters for "A Streetcar Named Desire" have been announced by Dr. Joseph Baldwin, director.

Those in the cast are Fran Thompson, a Negro woman; Loretta Luce, Unice Hubbell; Dennis Shreefer, Stanley Kowalsky; Louise Shadley, Stella Kowalsky; James Baker, Steve Hubbell; Larry Long, Harold Mitchell; Leslie Smith, a Mexican woman; Leta Powell, Blanche DuBois; Curtis Green, Pablo Gonzales; James McDonald, a young collector; and Joan Jelinek, a nurse.

Dr. Baldwin said it would be "a year of surprises" and that everything from range wars to madness would be viewed by theater-goers this coming season.

"Streetcar Named Desire," the surprise has become classic in that deep and beautiful human tragedy can arise from bitterness and misery, said Dr. Baldwin.

Tennessee Williams' talent is seen at its best, Dr. Baldwin continues, in the creation of the character, Blanche DuBois, a woman of great delicacy and love of beauty lost among the hostility of the crass, real world. She finally takes refuge in dreams which lead to madness.

Williams' drama will be presented by the University Theater Dec. 14, 15, 16 and 17.

The cast of Luigi Pirandello's "Six Characters in Search of an Author," scheduled for Nov. 2, 3, 4, and 5, has not yet been announced.

Phi Delta Phi Fetes New Law Students

Approximately 75 freshman law students were the guests of Phi Delta Phi, professional legal fraternity, at a luncheon in the Union Thursday noon.

Fraternity functions and programs were explained by Magister Sam Jensen and officers Sam Van Pelt, Bud Sidles, Duane Hubbard, Mick Neff and Don Treadway.

794 enrolled compared to 930 a year ago.

Undeclared Few
One marked drop is the Junior Division. There are only 87 undeclared students compared to 103 a year ago.

Junior Division is dropping each year due to better advising. Frankly, we would be worried if it (Junior Division) didn't drop each year," Nicolai explained. Other College enrollments show:

Law is up 10 with 148 compared with 138 a year ago. Pharmacy is down one with 31 now compared with 32 last year.

Teacher's Advanced Professional student enrollments dropped sharply from 312 of a year ago to 219. Nicolai ventured a guess that the drop was due to the teachers taking their courses by extension around the state instead of coming to Lincoln as they did a year ago.

Freshman Total Up

As for a final estimate, Nicolai said that the total figures were "problematic" when trying to figure but it is "certain now that the freshman enrollment is up about 200."

He said that this increase is due to "concentrated efforts to attract freshmen."

"It does look like there will be more girls this year when all the chips are in," Nicolai added.

The Thursday figures showed 7,863 enrolled on the city and agriculture campuses compared to the final total last year of 7,945. There are 5,573 men and 2,290 women registered so far contrasted to 5,744 men and 2,201 women a year ago.

Nicolai explained that these figures do not include the extension enrollment numbers and the medical and nursing schools in Omaha.

KK Tryouts Coming Soon

Tryouts for the fall Kosmet Klub shows to be held October 14 will be scheduled within the next two weeks, according to John Schroeder, publicity co-chairman.

The theme this year is "Historical Hysterics", Schroeder announced.

Don Epp, who is in charge of the traveling acts asks that any group or individual contact him before October 1.

"A house with a skit may also have a traveler act too," Schroeder explained. He added that traveler acts may be musical or humorous.

"These acts are individuals or small groups performing for five minutes. The traveler acts will be judged and a trophy will be awarded to the winning act," Epp said.

Phi Kappa Psi won the top honors last fall in the KK review. Gary Parker, Delta Tau Delta won the traveler's act trophy.

Not Just Anyone Can Wear Beanie

Who's entitled to wear those little red beanies seen around campus?

Well, not just anyone. According to a 1958 Interfraternity Council ruling, freshman pledges are the only ones required to wear the beanies. Many houses, however, do not enforce the rule.

Also expected to have the red hats are members of Kernels.

The beanies are to be worn until the Nebraska gridders win their first home game, or until the first snowfall.

Costing $1.50 each, they can be purchased from any Innocent or at the Division of University Services in the Administration Building.

794 enrolled compared to 930 a year ago.

Deadline Saturday

Depending upon the remaining graduate students left to register and a few undergraduate students, plus figures from Omaha and the extensions, "the final number should be close to 8,600," Nicolai estimated.

Mrs. Irma Laase, assistant to the registrar, asked to remind students that the deadline for registration is noon Saturday, Oct. 1.

She also said that students can still add until the Oct. 1 deadline.

NU Student's Art To National Show

Five paintings by Larry Johnson, a senior in art, have been selected to be displayed with paintings by thirty other artists at the Young America 1960 Exhibition.

The exhibition is now being housed at the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York and runs through October 30th. After that the exhibition will travel to Brooklyn, Cincinnati, and St. Louis art galleries.

Be a Shooter; Join NU Pershing Rifles

Any basic ROTC student interested in joining Pershing Rifles is invited to attend a smoker, tomorrow evening at 7:30.

This informal get-together will be held in rooms 232-234 of the Student Union.

Those unable to attend the smoker are urged to stop in at one of the weekly meetings, held Mondays and Wednesdays at 5 p.m.

'Big Gun' Sounds For Huskers

Nebraska's first home touchdown of the season was announced with a bang Saturday afternoon.

Signalling the scores this year for the Huskers is a 75 mm howitzer purchased last spring for the athletic department by Bob Blair, and Col. V. R. Rawie, professor of military science and tactics.

The "big gun" will be fired to signal each home touchdown of the season as an answer to the shotgun fired by Oklahoma and the mortar used by Missouri.

Strict peacetime conditions will be in effect to prevent mishap. No live rounds will be fired, only half charges will be used, and the howitzer will point away from the stadium.

To prevent waste of taxpayers money, all expenses for the howitzer are being paid through athletic funds, said Col. Rawie.

IFC Award To Promote Scholarship

The annual IFC scholarship award will soon be presented to a sophomore fraternity man with a 6.0 or higher overall average.

Each house is urged to submit two candidates for the award, the IFC suggested Wednesday night.

The IFC Scholarship Committee will pick six finalists, then narrow down the field to three. A special committee of faculty representatives will then pick the winner.

Last year's award went to Roy Arnold of Farm House.

In other scholarship business, IFC Scholarship Chairman Byron Dillow suggested three ideas to improve the IFC average: 1. Investigate the new Study methods course, possibly making it compulsory for all pledges, 2. Obtain ideas from the sororities on the secret of their high average, 3. Recognize fraternity men with high averages through publicity.

In the four groups of second semester scholarship rankings, released this week, no fraternities were in Group I (6.0 or above). Six houses placed in Group II (5.5 to 6.0), sixteen in Group III (5.0 to 5.5) and one in Group IV (below 5.0).

The All-Fraternity average for second semester last year was 5.376 which was slightly lower than the All-male average.

A meeting is planned for next Tuesday with Dean Frank Hallgren and a representative of the counseling service to discuss IFC scholarship.

Rappaport Studios from New York will begin taking individual pictures today for the panel pages of the Cornhusker yearbook.

The studio will be in town only until November 18. All pictures must be taken by that date. If appointments have not been made, students should contact the Cornhusker office in the Student Union immediately.

This year's price is $2.00 per sitting compared to $2.50 last year.

Pictures will be taken in the Student Union basement in the southwest room.

Foundation Meeting

All students involved in the Nebraska Human Resources Foundation project are asked to meet in the ballroom of the Student Union today at 4:50 p.m. Pictures will be taken during the 15 minute meeting.

According to Carol Vermaas, publicity chairman, those enrolled in Education 37 should also be present.

Ag Campus 'Fall Fiesta' Held Friday

All Ag campus students will be corralled Friday night as the Ag Union presents its 12th annual Fall Roundup.

Theme for this year's affair will be "Fall Fiesta," according to Fran Johnson, chairman of the event.

The "Fall Fiesta" semi-formal has been one of the big events during the fall semester on Ag campus.

Leading off the roundup affair will be the faculty reception line at 8 p.m. Faculty and guests invited to be in the reception line include Chancellor and Mrs. Clifford Hardin, Dean and Mrs. E. F. Frolk, Dean and Mrs. F. E. Eldridge;

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Epp, Miss Mary Jane Mulvaney, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McNeil, Miss Sally Neilson, Ag campus Moriarboards and innocents and the Ag Union board members.

At 8:30 p.m. Bud Holloway and his Orchestra will play in the Ag Union ballroom until 11:30 p.m. with a floor prize drawing at intermission.

Movies will be shown continuously through the evening by the Ag Union film committee.

Applications Due For Fulbrights

Applications for Fulbright Awards for the 1961-62 year are due now.

The applications for study abroad must be filed in the graduate office, 306 Administration before October 31.
