

OCT 14 1960

Ten Homecoming Queen Candidates Revealed

Homecoming Queen—the dream of every girl, will become a reality to one of the ten candidates announced today.

The ten girls vying for the title are Nancy Tederman, Shirley Parker, Jeanne Garner, Ginny Hubka, Sharon Anderson, Diane Tinan, Mary Erickson, Linda Sawvell, Gladys Rolfsmeier and Gunel Ataisik.

Junior Girls

They were selected from a group of 28 junior girls representing independent and sorority houses.

The queen and her two attendants will be announced October 27 at the Pep Rally.

Basis for judging during the interviews to determine the finalists were scholarship, leadership and service to the University, campus loyalty and school spirit, poise, general appearance and personality.

An all campus election October 24 will determine the queen and her attendants.

Sharon Anderson, a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, is enrolled in Teachers College. She has been active on Red Cross Board, ACE board, cheerleader, Presby House choir and UNSEA.

Gunel Ataisik an exchange student from Turkey represents Independent Women's Association. She is active in Delian Union, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Home Economics Club, Foreign Student Orientation and YWCA. She is enrolled in the College of Agriculture. Mary Erickson is a member of Alpha Phi. She is president of Aquaquettes, publicity chairman of Tassels, Delta Phi Delta, past board member of WAA and member of YWCA. She is enrolled in Teachers College.

Jeanne Garner, also in of Coed Follies, member of Lincoln Project and vice president and pledge trainer of her sorority.

Ginny Hubka is secretary of Gamma Phi Beta and also in Teachers College. She is on the Union Activities Board and member of Tassels. She is in Teachers College.

Shirley Parker is a member of Alpha Xi Delta. She is president of WAA, treasurer of UNSEA, board member of Coed Counselors, and member of Alpha Lambda Delta honorary. She is in Teachers College.

Gladys Rolfsmeier is president of Love Memorial Hall. She is secretary of Home Economic Club, state president of VHEA, member of AG YWCA, Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Upsilon Omicron and Ag Exec board. She is in the College of Agriculture.

Linda Sawvell is a member of Delta Delta Delta. She is on the boards of AWS and Builders and member of Young Republicans. She is double majoring in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and Teachers.

Nancy Tederman is a member of Alpha Chi Omega and enrolled in Teachers College. She is a member of Tassels, AWS board, Student Council and UNSEA.

Diane Tinan is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and is enrolled in Arts and Sciences and Teachers College. She is treasurer of Tassels, member of Builders Board, Spring Day Committee and Newman Club.

All girls must meet at 12:30 today at the Delta Delta house for a short meeting. At 4:30 they will meet in the Womens Residence Halls dressed in Cocktail dresses for pictures.

—Student Council—

Rule Enforcement Strict This Year

"Student Council is really going to enforce its regulations," John Hoerner said Wednesday. He is a member of the Judiciary committee of the Council.

Hoerner was referring to those rules and regulations concerning student organizations that are not in good standing with the University and Student Council.

Hoerner told the Council that his committee had been meeting with the University officials all week.

"The administration delegated us the power to watch over student organizations and they stand behind us 100 per cent," Hoerner said.

He explained that the Council could either freeze an organization's funds or deprive them from Student Union facilities if that organization is not on the list of organizations in good standing that will be published Nov. 1. Any action of this sort will be decided at the Nov. 2 meeting of the Council, he said.

"Surprisingly enough, very few organizations are in good standing at the present time," Hoerner said.

A motion asking the Student Union Board of Managers cooperation by denying Union facilities to organizations not in good standing was passed.

In other business, Bill Connell of the Migration committee, said the likelihood of an Administration sponsored migration for this year "is out of the question."

He added that he is presently working with University officials and has written to several other universities for ideas for an official migration next year.

Late Date Night

Tonight is a late date night sponsored by Mortar Boards in conjunction with the Kosmet Klub Fall Show. Girls' hours will be extended from 12:30 a.m. to 1:30 a.m. for the fee of 1 penny for each minute.

Pub Board Members Chosen

Three students were named to the Publications Board Wednesday after interviews at the Student Council meeting.

Mary Lou Reese, senior, Al Plummer, junior and George Krauss, sophomore are the new student representatives on the Pub Board. All are new members except Plummer. He was the sophomore student representative last year.

Miss Reese is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences and a journalism major. She was opposed by Grover Kautz.

Plummer is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences, majoring in pre-medicine. His opposition came from Shirley Parker.

Krauss, elected on the second ballot, is enrolled in the College of Engineering and Architecture. His opponents were Marguerite Plum and Steve Joyn.

Military Party

Arrives for Game

A military party of one major general, two brigadier generals, 16 colonels, a chaplain, a physician and eighteen cadets, including two male riders and several cheerleaders, will arrive in Lincoln today and tomorrow for the Army-Nebraska game.

Among the arriving West Point military academy personalities is Maj. Gen. William C. Westmoreland, superintendent of the academy, and a partial representation of the cadets at the Point from Nebraska.

Included in the weekend's military activities is a dinner in honor of Gen. Westmoreland Friday night, luncheon Saturday with Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin, attending the football game, and informal reception for the cadets.

the

DAILY

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 74, No. 17

Lincoln, Nebraska

Friday, Oct. 14, 1960

CORNERSTONE PLACED

A copper box, containing documents including the names of all the Nebraska contributors to the building, was placed in the corner of the Nebraska Center by Regents Frank Foote (left) and Clarence Swanson (right) in ceremonies held yesterday. Dr. Maurice Seary, representing the Kellogg Foundation, told the audience "Education should be planned for a life cycle; education should be continuous." Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin said that the continuing education program will "attend the needs of young people whose educational plans and interests are varied and serve adults whose backgrounds reflect a wide variety of education, experience, interest and capabilities." Regent J. Leroy Welsh presided at the ceremonies.

Inside the Nebraskan

Strictly Partisan

Sam Jensen challenges Sen. John Kennedy's charge that the United States is losing prestige around the world. Editorial Page

Jennings Praises Defenses

Husker football coach, Bill Jennings, praises the Nebraska defense for play in the first four games of the season. Page 5

Religious Activities

Campus church groups plan a panel on the election, a contemporary drama and a dance. Page 6

Hello Dance

Independents open their social season Saturday night at the Student Union Ballroom. Highlight of the evening will be the selection of "Miss Hello Girl" and her escort. Page 3

Social Calendar

Freshman football functions and picnics dominate the social activity this weekend. Page 6

Curtain Going Up On "Historical Hysterics"

Doors to Pershing Auditorium will open at 7 p.m. tonight, one hour before Kosmet Klub's "Historical Hysterics" begins, to accommodate the voters for Prince Kosmet and Nebraska Sweetheart.

Gary Hill, Kosmet Klub business manager, has ordered 2000 additional tickets because of the great number which have already been sold.

Four voting booths will be set up in front and another will be placed by the stage door for the convenience of KK workers. All voting is supposed to be done before 8 p.m.

Each student must have a ticket and student identification to be eligible to vote. No campaigning can be done within a block of Pershing Auditorium or the candidate will be disqualified.

While the skits and traveler acts are being judged, the Nebraska Sweetheart and Prince Kosmet will be presented.

The Nebraska Sweetheart will be chosen from one of the ten finalists:

Barbara Bakker is a junior in Teachers College and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Kay Hirschbach, is a senior in Teachers College and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Donette Keyes is a senior in Arts and Sciences and a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Lee Anne Kittle is a junior in Arts and Sciences and a member of Alpha Phi.

Bonnie Kuklin is a freshman in Teachers College and a pledge to Sigma Delta Tau.

Connie Papas is a junior in Teachers College and is representing the Women's Residence Halls.

Jane Price is a sophomore in Agriculture and is representing Peddie Hall.

Nancy Wilson is a junior in Arts and Science and a member of Alpha Xi Delta.

Mary Dee Wicher is a junior in Arts and Science and a member of Delta Gamma.

Finalists for the title of Prince Kosmet will be chosen from these ten candidates:

Henry Banermeister is a junior in Business Administration and a member of Beta Sigma Psi.

Don Fricke is a senior in dentistry and a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

John Gutschlag is a junior in Teachers College and a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Fred Howlett is a senior in Engineering and a member of Theta Xi.

Chip Kuklin is a sophomore in Engineering and a member of Sigma Alpha Mu.

Ron McKeever is a senior in Agriculture and a member of Farmhouse.

Dave Myers is a junior in Teachers College and a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

Roger Myers is a sophomore in Arts and Science and a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Essie Mortazavi is a junior in Engineering and is representing Mennet House in Sealeck Quadrangle.

Chip Wood is a sophomore in Arts and Science and is a member of Sigma Chi.

After the Nebraska Sweetheart and Prince Kosmet are presented, awards will be given to the prize-winning skits and travelers acts.

First and second place trophies, plus two participation plaques will be given for the skits. There will also be a first place trophy for the best traveler's act, and plaques will be given to the other houses participating in this category.

First skit on the program will be Alpha Tau Omega with "Smelly Mess and the Unmentionables." This is a take off on a TV show dealing with crime in the 1920's.

Phi Kappa Psi will then present "The Spirit of the Thing," which takes place in Heaven and gives a panoramic view of historical events.

Theta Xi's skit, "A True Tale of Robin Hood," portrays Robin Hood and his followers as a fraternity going through rush week.

Last skit on the program is the Beta Theta Pi's with "Time Machine Blues." This tells of the invention of a television time machine which transports a student back into the past, finally ending up in ancient Egypt.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.

Judicial Board Charter Presented To IFC; Drinking Discussed

The Interfraternity Judicial Board charter was presented at the IFC meeting Wednesday night, and discussion centered upon the drinking problem and the upcoming meeting with the Board of Control.

The Judicial Board, which is modeled after the Student Tribunal, would be responsible for "the judgment of fraternity discipline."

The purpose of the organization will be "to serve as the fraternity court on matters of fraternity discipline that are referred to it by the Division of Student Affairs and/or the Interfraternity Board of Control."

The powers of the board will be to "hear all cases of fraternity discipline referred to it, to recommend a decision and to establish its own rules of procedure."

The board will be composed of three judges, who are seniors, three junior judges and one member of the IFC Board of Control.

Qualifications for judges are that a fraternity man must be in the upper 50% of his class and not be on IFC Exec Council.

Selections of the applicants will be made by a two-thirds vote of the IFC members.

Dr. C. Bertrand Schultz, IFC advisor, attacked the drinking situation on campus and stated that "fraternities are in danger if they continue the parties."

Further discussion proved that the supposed five or six people from a fraternity constitute a function is false, and that, according to Dr. Schultz, the trouble arises when the officers of a house, who are charged with the responsibility, are present.

The IFC decided to send out some presidents of the houses to Monday night meetings to "spell out the responsibilities toward drinking, its rules and regulations," said IFC President Marty Sophir.

Bill Connell, Don Gable and Ron Gould volunteered for this project.

A five man committee was selected to work with the Executive Council to analyze the proposed IFC reorganization plan suggested by the Board of Regents.

The original reorganization plan was not accepted by the IFC at an earlier meeting.

Serving on the committee which will submit its plan on Oct. 28 will be Tom Matthews, Al Chummins, Bob Hedgecock, Dave Goldstein and Ron Gould.

The IFC Ball date has been changed to Mar. 3, 1961, Social Chairman Gary McClanahan announced.

The new date, which is a Friday, falls between the weekends of Coed Follies and the State Basketball Tourney and is the fourth weekend of the second semester.

McClanahan also announced that he will select the band within a week. The three under consideration are the bands of Les Brown, Glen Miller and Jimmy Dorsey. The cost will run from $2,000 to $2,500, he said.

Scholarship Chairman Byron Dillow announced that the deadline for application for the IFC Scholarship is Saturday. The applications should be turned in to him at the Phi Kappa Psi house.

The date for the Pledge Dance has tentatively been set for Nov. 4 or 5, Tom Tracy of the Jr. IFC announced.

A motion was passed to appropriate money to photograph a rush film after introduction of the proposal by Rush Chairman Ben Priebe.

Priebe also said that interviews for serving on the IFC Rush Committee are Friday night at 7:30.

AND A-A-A-WAY WE GO

These gentlemen are absolutely not bidding for the last coke. Rather these elderly professors (disguised as Betas John Abrahamson, Phil Swaim and Jim Hamsa) are going to push the button that will take them (and you too, if you attend the Kosmet Klub show tonight) on a whirlwind tour of the ages in their time machine.