KUON-TV To Present Khrushchev

The only TV appearance of the current Khrushchev visit will be shown in a 3 1/2 hour presentation Sunday over campus station KUON-TV.

The showing, designed as a public service by the station, will mark the first time KUON-TV has gone on the air on Sunday.

The program begins at 1:30 p.m. and will last until 5 p.m. with the first portion consisting of a "spirited verbal exchange" between Khrushchev and host moderator, David Susskind.

According to KUON-TV program specialist, Betty Meisinger, the original program "has created a great deal of controversy" since it first appeared on the show "Open End."

Among those in the panel are Marguerite Higgins of the New York Herald Tribune, syndicated columnist Max Lerner and Frank Conniff, national editor of Hearst Newspapers.
