

Seven States Represented On Top Frosh Grid Lineup

By Hal Brown
Seven states are represented on the top unit as the Nebraska freshmen prepare for the season opener against Iowa State Nov. 4 at Ames, Iowa.

Three members of the first unit are from Nebraska with two from Ohio and two from Texas. Other states represented are Colorado, Kansas, Illinois, and Arkansas.

Fischer, Kirby and Sittler are from Nebraska. Fischer is a 6-2, 194-pounder from Norfolk while Kirby hails from David City and Sittler is from Crete. Kirby is 6-3 and weighs 213 pounds. Sittler is 6-0 and tips the scales at 206 pounds.

Brown and Young are both from Cleveland, Ohio, with Brown being the largest lineman on the team at 6-4½ and 245 pounds while Young is the heaviest back weighing in at 215 and standing 6-2.

Representing Texas on the number one unit are Rudy Johnson, a 5-11½, 180-pounder from Aransas Pass, and Ed Mitchell, a 6-2, 235-pounder from Galveston.

Heavy Line
Fischer is the only member of the first line weighing less than 200 pounds. The top line averages 215-pounds-per-man. The backfield is considerably lighter with only Young tipping the scales at the 200-pound level.

No player on the number one line is less than six feet tall with Sittler and Howe at that figure. The number two line averages 203-pounds-per-player.

High Hurdlers Qualify Tonight

Qualifying continues in intramural track tonight and Thursday at the Stadium.

The 60-yd. high hurdles will be run at 5:00 p.m. tonight.

Thursday the mile run starts at 5:00 p.m. and the broad jump qualifications begin at 7:15 p.m.

Entries will be taken on the field prior to the running of each event.

Four IM Football Teams Risk Undefeated Records

By Chip Wood
Four undefeated intramural football teams will meet in important league games Wednesday and Thursday.

Phi Gamma Delta A squad goes against the Phi Delta Theta A team Wednesday in a game that could decide the league 2 title. The Phi Gams have a 3-0 record with only two games remaining to be played. Farm House, the other undefeated team in that league, plays the Alpha Tau Omega A team.

The Farm House-Phi Gamma game scheduled for last Thursday was cancelled due to rain so the two teams won't have a chance to meet in league play.

Farm House plays the Alpha Gamma Rho team Thursday in a tilt that could be crucial depending on the outcome of the Farm House-Alpha Tau Omega game.

In other action Thursday Canfield plays Selleck in a game that could decide the league B title. Canfield leads the league with a 2-0 record but Selleck (2-1) is presently tied for second with Burnett (2-1).

NEBRASKAN SPORTS

—Star Of The Week—

Fischer Receives Nebraskan Star Presentation 2nd Time

Nebraska quarterback Pat Fischer earns the Daily Nebraskan Star of The Week award for the second time this season with his outstanding performance in the win over Army Saturday.

Fischer led the Huskers Saturday with an 8.8 rushing average on 10 plays and uncorked a strike to left halfback Bennie Dillard for a 57-yard touchdown play that provided the winning points in the third quarter.

The Nebraska signal caller scored the other Nebraska TD on a two-yard plunge to cap a 78-yard drive in the second quarter. A 64-yard dash by Fischer moved the ball from the Husker 22-yard line to the Army 14 and set up the touchdown.

The senior quarterback played 55 minutes against the Cadets and was taken out only in the final few minutes and when Ron Meade entered the game for extra point kicks.

"Fischer played a great ball game. He called all of the offense," Husker coach Bill Jennings said after the game. Jennings picked Fischer's bootleg play that went for 64 yards and set up the first touchdown, and the pass from Fischer to Dillard as two of the outstanding plays in the game.

Surprise Play
"I didn't know what was coming off for a while," Jennings said when asked about the bootleg play. Army coach Dale Hall mentioned Fischer as one of the top players in the game Saturday.

Fischer was mentioned by United Press International as one of the top backs in the nation for his play against Army. He was named to the UPI Backfield of The Week after the Texas game.

The former halfback was converted to the signal calling spot in spring drills and has shown steady improvement at the position this fall. His bootlegs and fakes kept the Cadets off balance much of the afternoon.

Fischer ranks among the top six in three statistical departments in the Big Eight. He is number two in punt returns, fourth in scoring, and sixth in rushing yardage.

The Husker quarterback has returned 11 punts for 184 yards, an average of 16.7 yards per return to rank second to Donnie Smith of Missouri. Smith has returned five punts for 113 yards, an average of 22.6 yards.

Fischer has scored 24 points for a fourth place tie with Dave Hoppman of Iowa State in that department. Iowa State's Tom Watkins and Bert Coan of Kansas lead the scoring race with 46 points each.

The Star of The Week has gained 261 yards on the ground in 57 carries to nail down the sixth spot in rushing yardage. Hoppmann is the leading rusher with 440 yards on 78 carries. Fischer ranks ninth in passing yardage with 90 yards on 15 aerials.
