

Huskers Seek .500 Mark Against KU

Nebraska's gridders, seeking to climb back to the .500 mark, must stop a potent Kansas backfield when they take on the Jayhawks Saturday at Lawrence, Kan. Kick-off time is set for 1:30 p.m.

Kansas ranks second to Missouri in total offense with 1,806 yards. Of this total, 1,379 yards have come on the ground and 474 via the aerial route.

"We hope we can stop their offense and with Coan and McClinton at full speed they have potentially the finest backfield in the conference," Husker coach Bill Jennings said.

Bert Coan and Curtis McClinton are tied for fifth in the conference rushing statistics with 331 yards. Jayhawk quarterback John Hadl is the Big Eight's leading passer with 29 completions on 57 tosses for 414 yards.

"We must be able to move the ball and score to win," Jennings said. "Regardless of how good your defense is, you still have to score to win."

Sports Signals

By Hal Brown

This corner received the following letter Thursday. The letter was signed by 51 members of the Nebraska football team.

Hal Brown:

We shall skip the formalities being as how you threw out all journalistic ethics in your bigoted attack on head football coach, Bill Jennings. If this is your idea of what the Daily Nebraskan should represent then we are truly disappointed in the voice of this university.

In the first place before you start to write you should try to thoroughly understand those who you are trying to crucify. If you will bother to go back over Coach Jennings' statements of last Monday you would find that he said, "We take 99 per cent of the blame, but I think one per cent of it is the problem of the other people."

It appeared from your rash statements in the paper that Coach Jennings is placing 100 per cent of the blame on the people and fans of Nebraska. We think that even you can see that this is an assinine and immature point of view.

The students rely on the Daily Nebraskan to bring forth their thoughts, feelings and ideas to the public in an ethical, purposeful and unbiased manner. It appears to us that in this case and point you have failed the Daily Nebraskan, the students, and the Athletic Department miserably.

You have failed the Daily Nebraskan by rashly or wrongly presenting false statements. You have failed the students of this university by presenting false statements. You have failed the students of this university by presenting these false statements and creating an unhealthy situation regarding our head coach. The Athletic Department, mainly the football team, has been put into an unfavorable and uncomfortable position due to these false statements.

Now regarding Coach Jennings' true statements at the Monday morning quarterback club in Omaha. His figure of 99 per cent and one per cent are not quite an accurate ratio. Coach Jennings is being quite generous in taking 99 per cent of the blame on his and the team's shoulders.

We think that you will have to agree that it is very demoralizing for our quarterback, Pat Fischer, to come off the field to the cries of "We want Faiman!" and then to have this same crowd turn around and chant for some other sacrifice. At times it would appear that the loyal Nebraska fans have come to be spectators at a modern match of gladiators.

True, the cheerleaders are able to generate some spark of life by starting a chant, "All The Way To Roca!!!" We are not sure whether the fans are spurring the team on to greater heights or are trying to work themselves up into a frenzied thirst. We are not trying to be facetious in pointing this out; we are merely trying to point out that these Nebraska fans might be able to channel this enthusiasm into more appropriate outlets.

Concerning your final statements, "If Jennings doesn't think the state is giving him a fair shake, he knows where the airport and the train depot are and I doubt if there are many Nebraskans who would be unhappy to see him go." We question your right to speak of Coach Jennings on behalf of the state of Nebraska.

We challenge you to produce evidence that the state feels toward Coach Jennings in this light. We doubt that a whole state could feel this way about a man who has in his four years given this state a number of nation-wide recognitions, i.e., Penn State and Pittsburgh—1958, Oklahoma—1959, Texas, Army, and Minnesota—1960.

And if you wish to challenge us on Minnesota all you need to do is look at Minnesota's record after they played Nebraska. If you do look at the record you will find out that Nebraska was the only team to score on Minnesota more than once so far this year.

Based on the above it would appear that Coach Jennings' generous statement of 99 and one per cent is indeed quite generous. Furthermore we feel very strongly that you as sports editor of the Daily Nebraskan owe Coach Bill Jennings a public apology for misconstruing his statements in Omaha on Monday.

NU Team Runs In Midwest Meet

Nebraska's varsity and freshmen cross country teams will compete in the Midwest AAU Cross Country Championships in Omaha Saturday morning.

Husker varsity runners competing are Ray Stevens, Bill Kenny, Joe and Clarence Scott, Rich Kier and Paul Nielsen.

Freshmen harriers running for Nebraska are John Portee, Tony Cruz, Stuart Tucker, Woody Moore, Andy Steele, Jim Lewis and Tom Stutzman.

Phi Psi Cops Grid Crown

Phi Kappa Psi trounced Selleck, 28-6, last night to cop the residence hall-fraternity intramural football title and earn the Phi Psi's a place in the playoff game tonight against the independent league leader for the all-university championship.

Joe Malone, standout quarterback, led the Phi Psi attack by throwing three long touchdown passes, running for an extra point, and passing to Bob Eyth for another extra point.

Dick Harr was on the receiving end of two of Malone's passes and Ron Svoboda caught the other.

Other Phi Psi scoring was on a pass from Pat Anderson to Eyth, and a safety in the first half.

The lone Selleck score came on a pass from Bob Krall to Pat Bottorf in the first quarter.

Freshman Gridders Set for Cyclones

Nebraska's freshman football team gets its first taste of competition today at Ames, Iowa, when the young Cornhuskers play Iowa State's freshmen.

Freshman coach Jack Bralley, making his debut after replacing Warren Schmackel, who led the Nebraska freshmen teams to undefeated seasons in 1958 and 1959, could toss a line which averages 226 pounds from end to end at the young Cyclones.

However the line he expects to start will average 218 and his backs 191. The starting tackles, Ed Mitchell of Galveston, Tex., and Robert Brown of Cleveland, Ohio, weigh 235 and 245 respectively.

Iowa State bowed to Missouri in its opening game at Columbia, Oct. 21, by a 19-0 count. Nebraska will play its final game Nov. 11 when the Cornhuskers meet Kansas

State at Memorial Stadium.

What it takes to be a winner!

Everyone likes to win at sports. Winning takes practice, muscular development, endurance and other attributes. We can't all be winners but there is a way to help. You can increase your endurance. You can start out feeling in top shape and keep going longer.

Now science proves a rub with Absorbine Jr. WARM-UP before exercise is so effective it almost doubles muscle endurance! The amazing results of Electromyograph Research reveal that in case after case, the time required to fatigue a muscle treated by WARM-UP is almost double that of an untreated muscle.

Prove this good news to yourself. When you take part in sports or exercise, rub the muscles you will use most with WARM-UP—before you start!

See if you don't do better at sports because your muscle power will last longer after rubbing with WARM-UP—the pre-exercise rub that fights fatigue! Available at drugstores.
