BLACKSTONE TORT

Pride of the law school. Blackstone has never lost a moot trial. But there's nothing moot about his preferences in dress. He finds that when he's comfortable, he can trap a witness and sway a jury like Clarence Darrow.

So he always wears Jockey brand briefs while preparing his briefs. Exclusive Jockey tailoring gives him a bonus of comfort he gets in no other underwear. Fine Jockey combed cotton is more absorbent, smoother fitting, too.

To look your best, feel your best, take a tip from Tort. Always insist on Jockey brand briefs, $1.25. Your campus store has them now!

Lincolmites Now Offered Scrip Orders

Yearly subscriptions to Scrip student literary magazine, are being offered to Lincoln residents in a special fund raising campaign this week.

Approximately five hundred people throughout the city will be offered the two dollar subscriptions. A special "Contributing Membership" is also being offered for $10 per year.

Tentative plans are also being drawn up to sell memberships on campus, according to Bill Johnson, editor.

Undergraduate students are encouraged to submit material for publication in Scrip. "We want original, creative stories, poems, and essays which deal constructively with the modern situation," Johnson said. "Humorous material will also be greatly appreciated."

The deadline for submitting manuscripts is Friday. They should be turned in at 205 Andrews.

Student Art Work In Union Display

Student art work is now on display in the lounge outside the Pan American room of the Student Union.

The exhibits are sponsored by Delta Phi Delta, art honorary.

Paintings in the display were done by Carol Hartman, David Ryan, Judy Wilson, Gabrielle Burchardt, Ray Howlitt, James Johnston, Thelma Christenson, Don Williamson and Clark Metcalfe.

Harold Alexander Jr., Betty McKeown and Mary Raben have contributed prints, and Ray Knaub, a drawing.

Pottery in the exhibit was made by Jim Purtzer, Stan Rice and Richard Haswell.

Faculty Women 'Adopt' Foreign Students' Wives

International friendships are being cemented by a group of faculty women who have "adopted" the wives of University foreign students.

The Faculty Women's Club has set up a new international interest group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Otto Hoiberg.

The purpose of the project of this 15 member group has been to become acquainted with the wives of faculty members from foreign countries, the wives of foreign students, foreign wives of American students and foreign wives who are themselves studying at the University.

"In turn, we want them to gain a better understanding of our country and customs," Mrs. Hoiberg said.

"For those of us who have not had the thrill of traveling abroad, this has proved to be a wonderfully enriching opportunity," she commented.

Each member of the club has "adopted" two or three foreign wives, taken them shopping, riding and visiting and entertained them in their homes.

Communication problems are apparently minor.

"You would be surprised how much a person can talk with his eyes and hands," Mrs. Hoiberg said.

Council Asks 'What Is Function?'

What exactly constitutes a social function? The Student Council social committee, under the direction of Mike Milroy, is trying to establish an answer to this question.

Milroy said that the social function is an "ever constant question" and his committee is trying to secure a written policy from the Administration stating requirements and regulations.

If such a criteria of a social function can be ascertained from University officials, according to Milroy, a copy of the regulations and qualifications will be sent to each organized house on campus.

Ceres To Greet All on Thursday

University faculty members and employees will have the opportunity to meet Ceres, the transparent talking lady, from 7 to 10 p.m. Thursday.

Students and their parents may view the $14,000 anatomical model on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 4:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Kickoff Dinner For YM Tonight

Tonight is the kickoff dinner for persons who will be surveying Ag campus for YMCA members.

The drive which will continue through Nov. 16 is the Ag YMCA effort to build the membership.

The dinner at 6 p.m. tonight will feature Wendell Groth, chairman of the Student Committee of the West Central Area Board, who will interpret the importance of the Christian concern on campus and the methods by which the YMCA can meet the needs of the students.

Don Brugman is heading the drive and has selected Allen Christenson and Neal Grothen as his section aids. They will be in charge of 35 men making between 160-200 calls this week.

Representative John Horner, a member of the Vocational Education department on Ag, will be contacting faculty men for membership.
