Huskers End Season Saturday Against OU

By Hal Brown
Nebraska, a 7-6 loser to Oklahoma State Saturday, will need a victory this weekend against Oklahoma, if the Huskers are to match last year's 4-6 season record.

The loss to Oklahoma State was the fourth consecutive defeat for Coach Bill Jennings' Huskers and a loss to Oklahoma would match the five straight losses suffered during the 1958 season, the last time Nebraska lost five straight.

The Huskers have scored only 12 points in the last four games with six coming against Colorado at the beginning of the losing streak.

The Sooners are experiencing their poorest season since 1942 when they won three, lost five, and tied two. Oklahoma has a record of one win, three losses, and one tie in the conference and a 2-5-1 record overall.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners have now lost three straight with Colorado, Iowa State, and Missouri downing the Oklahomans.

Nebraska stopped the Sooners' 74-game Big Eight unbeaten string a year ago with a 25-21 Homecoming Day win.

Davis Boots
Oklahoma State quarterback Jim Elliott's touchdown and an extra point kick by Ted Davis with 1:19 remaining in the game gave the Cowboys a 7-6 win over Nebraska Saturday.

Oklahoma State's Frank Parker, a 6-5, 230-pound right tackle, recovered a fumble by Husker quarterback Pat Fischer on Nebraska's 29-yard line with 4:15 left in the final quarter. The Cowboys needed seven plays to drive for the winning score.

With a fourth and seven situation on the Husker 26, Elliott hit left halfback Tommy Jackson with a pass for 13 yards and a first down at the 13. Oklahoma State moved to the seven and, with a fourth and four, Elliott faded to pass.

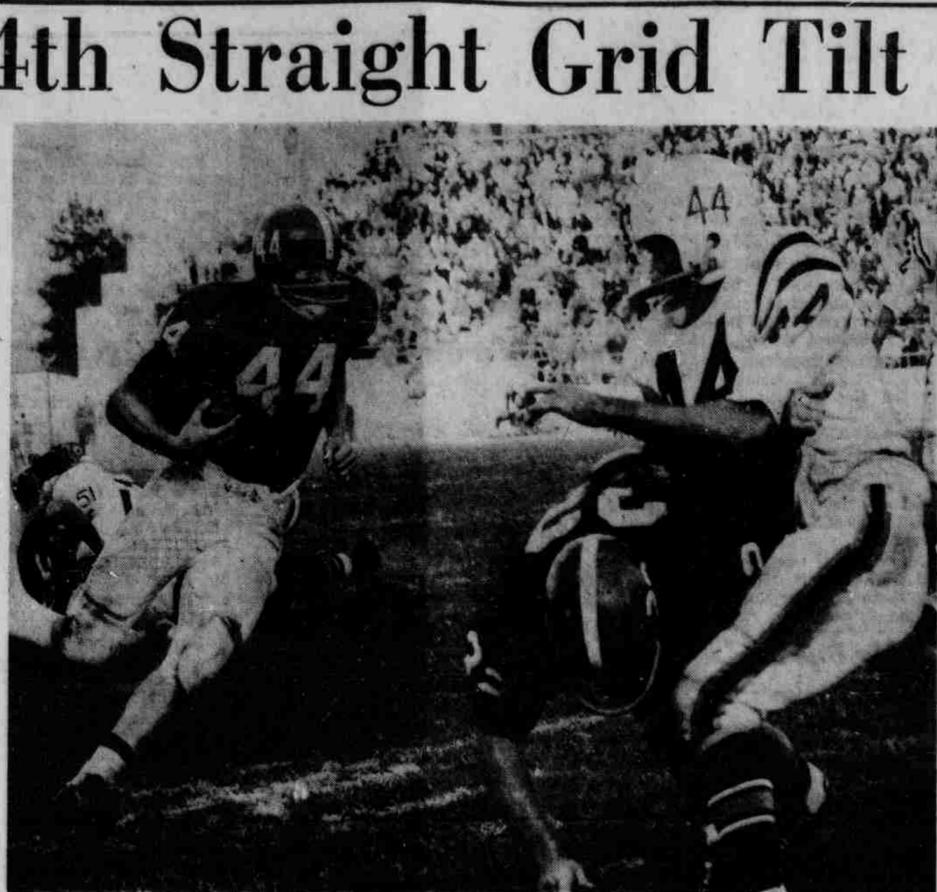

When he found his receivers covered, Elliott went up the middle, and carried two Nebraska tacklers into the end zone with the tying points.

Davis booted the conversion to provide the winning margin for the Cowboys' second straight Big Eight victory. The triumph leaves the Cowboys with a 2-3 record in the conference and 3-5 overall. Nebraska is 1-5 in the conference and 3-6 overall.

Nebraska scored first when Fischer returned Dave Hannah's punt 84 yards for a touchdown with 1:55 remaining in the first quarter.

Ron Meade, making his first appearance in three weeks, missed the extra point boot and the Huskers led, 6-0.

CUT HIM DOWN, NOEL

Nebraska's Pat Clare (44) takes off on one of the eight plays that gained him a total of 50 yards against Oklahoma State Saturday. Clare gets a helping hand from Noel Martin (32) as Martin cuts down Oklahoma State's Tommy Jackson, a would-be tackler.

000 saw the teams exchange punts most of the afternoon with Oklahoma State's Hannah punting 10 times for a 34.8 yard average, and Nebraska's Archie Cobb punting seven times for a 36.3 average.

Nebraska threatened twice in the first half. Early in the second quarter, the Huskers drove to the Cowboy 16 on a 12-yard run by Fischer, but a clipping penalty moved Nebraska back to Oklahoma State's 48.

After a punt exchange, Nebraska drove from the Cowboy 40 to the 22. The Oklahoma State defense held and, with a fourth and nine, Meade's field goal attempt from the 30 was short.

Oklahoma State was unable to drive past Nebraska's 45 in the second half with the exception of the touchdown drive. The deepest Husker penetration in the second half was a drive that ended on the Cowboy 36 midway in the final quarter.

Fischer led Nebraska carriers with 65 yards on nine plays for a 7.2 average. Pat Clare gained 50 on eight carries for a 6.2 average and Noel Martin contributed 38 yards on six plays for a 6.3 average.

Jim Dillard was the leading ground-gainer for the Cowboys with 85 yards in 21 plays, a 4.0 average.

Nebraska outgained the Cowboys in the first half with a 128-59 rushing lead. Neither team was able to complete a pass in the first half with Nebraska attempting 10 aerials and Oklahoma State throwing four passes.

Oklahoma State completed three of five passes in the second half for 31 yards while the Huskers didn't attempt a pass in the second half.

The Cowboys also out-rushed Nebraska in the second half with 97 yards to 73 for Nebraska.

Husker Frosh Complete Third Unbeaten Season

By Roy Katskee
Nebraska's freshman football team for the third consecutive season went unbeaten by registering a 21-6 victory over Kansas State Friday.

Kansas State drew first blood when quarterback Ralph McFillen weaved his way through the Husker defense for a 23-yard score. The try for extra point was no good and the Wildcats had a 6-0 lead with only 5 minutes gone in the first quarter.

The Huskers, proving again that they can come from behind, jumped to 7-6 half-time lead behind the powerful running of fullback Don Heldt of Yutan, and halfback Maynard Smidt of Cozad.

Nebraska had to wait until the remaining 50 seconds of the first half before breaking the ice. Heldt, for the second Friday in a row, again made himself known with a 47-yard burst to the Kansas State nine.

Smidt, an ex-service player and oldest member of the team, plunged over from the three on the third play of the series. Heldt came back to put Nebraska in the lead for the rest of the afternoon with his first of three successful conversions.

The second Husker TD came midway in the third period when Willie Ross of Helena, Ark., swept right end and raced 64 yards down the east side lines for his second

Frosh Win Postal Meet

Nebraska's freshman cross country team lost a dual meet to Missouri in postal competition, 23-32. Husker John Portee ran the two-mile course in 9:33, far ahead of Missouri's second place Ray Bryant, timed in 9:45.5.

The 9:33 clocking by Portee broke the unofficial record of 9:34.8 set by him earlier this year, and is his best time of the season.

The Tigers took third and fourth places with Bill Rawson and Jerry Mathis, both timed in 9:48.9.

Nebraska's Tony Cruz finished fifth in 9:51, and Stuart Tucker was seventh in 9:54. Huskers Jim Lewis finished ninth in 10:02.7 and Woody Moore was 10th with a 10:03.

Cross Country Set for Tonight

The 1960 intramural cross country run will be held Tuesday on the Stadium track at 5 p.m. Fraternities, resident halls, and other organized groups are limited to three entries in the one and one-half mile event.

The entries will be taken on the field prior to the running of the event.
