

Kappas 'Out Spirit' Tri Delts for Trophy

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority has won first place in this year's organized spirit contest with three weekly wins.

The Kappas broke a tie with Delta Delta Delta sorority, last year's winner, for the top honors. Prior to the Nebraska-Oklahoma State football game both houses had won two weekly cheering contests.

The traveling trophy was presented to the winning house shortly after the game Saturday in the Kappa house by Yell King Al Kritzelman.

The trophy and the contest was created by and is presently sponsored by the Daily Nebraskan in an effort to promote school spirit at home football games.

"Competition for the trophy was a lot more spirited and original than in the past," Kritzelman noted.

Thanksgiving Holiday Begins Next Wednesday

The five day Thanksgiving vacation officially begins Nov. 23 and ends the following Monday morning.

Most of the campus buildings will be closed with the exception of the library which will be closed only on Thanksgiving Day and the following Sunday.

The dorms will close Nov. 22, at 4 p.m. and reopen Sunday, Nov. 27, at 2 p.m.

The Union schedule is as follows: Crib and Games areas will close Tuesday at 3 p.m. and open again early Monday morning. The Cafeteria discontinues service at 1 p.m. Tuesday and resumes business on Monday at 11 a.m. The Student Union closes at 9 p.m. Tuesday and reopens Monday at 7 a.m.

Classes will resume Monday morning at 8 a.m.

Main Feature Clock
Varsity: "Inherit The Wind," 1:40, 4:11, 6:42, 9:13.
State: "I Aim at the Stars," 1:14, 3:15, 5:16, 7:17.
Nebraska: "Walk Tall," 1:00, 3:35, 6:10, 8:40. "Freckles," 2:00, 4:35, 7:10, 9:45.
Lincoln: "Where the Hot Wind Blows," 1:00, 3:00, 5:05, 7:10, 9:20.
Stuart: "Lincoln Symphony," 8:30.

"The Tri Delts and the Kappas deserve a great deal of credit for the amount of spirit shown. I feel that in the future years this contest can be expanded to a much larger scale. First, second and third place trophies might be given to both male and female organized houses showing the most spirit," he added.

Kay Swoboda, president of Kappa Kappa Gamma said they would "definitely" try for a repeat performance next year during the 1961 football season.

"We were very happy to be awarded the trophy. We all worked hard to create spirit and appreciate the efforts of the Daily Nebraskan to promote school spirit. It is good for the school," she said.

The Kappa president noted several factors that helped them win the trophy. Each girl wore white gloves, white hats with red feathers, displayed spirit signs, used pom-poms and rang noise makers.

The biggest reason for so much spirit, according to Miss Swoboda, was the "nearly 100 per cent attendance for all six games."

Parking Lot Opens After Vacation

The parking area south of the new Nebraska Hall will be opened for student parking after Thanksgiving vacation, according to Carl Donaldson, University business manager.

Arrangements earlier this fall were made with the ROTC department to have the lot open for student parking during the inclement months between Thanksgiving vacation and spring vacation, said Donaldson.

The lot has been closed off all fall and the area has been used as a drill area for ROTC training. The area will accommodate approximately 230 cars.

About 100 spaces will still be roped off for the parking of employees and construction men working in the Hall.

'GO BIG RED' HELPED

A rousing cheer greets Yell King Al Kritzelman as he presents the Kappas with the first place trophy in the 1960 spirit contest. The Kappas out yelled the Tri Delts during the Nebraska-Oklahoma State football game Saturday to win the traveling trophy.

Knoll Finds England A 'Foreign' Country

by Nancy Whitford

A University English professor has discovered that, contrary to popular opinion, England is a very "foreign" country with many traditions dissimilar to those in America.

Associate professor of English Robert Knoll returned recently from England where he spent a year studying under a Woods fellowship.

"English and American societies are built on diametrically opposed principles. England is 'foreign' because it follows the assumption that excellence must come from the top. Americans start at the bottom," Knoll commented.

Knoll termed English society an "aristocratic culture which strives for the excellence of excellent men," and American society "an egalitarian culture concerned with the equality of the common man."

Welfare

As a result, Americans initiate welfare programs for the downtrodden while England produces the best education for top scholars and the Rolls Royce, one of the best cars in the world, Knoll observed.

In many ways, according to Knoll, England is more like the Orient where the majority are sacrificed to the few. In America, the few are sacrificed to the majority.

"The machinery for popular government is present, but the people don't care. They want an aristocratic institution," Knoll emphasized.

Conservative

He said this may be attributed to the "essentially conservative" attitude of the English people which occurs because the country is small and surrounded by the monuments of the past.

"English journalism is superb on the upper levels—everything is divided into class levels—but the bottom

Debator Places In Tournament

Susie Moffitt won first place in the women's division of extemporaneous speaking at the Central States Debate Tournament in Edmond, Okla., last weekend.

Linda Hillyer and Judy Brunim won five out of six in preliminary debate competition, but they were eliminated in the quarter finals.

Miss Moffitt and Gary Hill won four out of six debates in the senior division.

Tom Chandler and Jon Froemke won four out of six in the junior division.

Seven states sent a total of thirty-two colleges to participate in the tournament.

Open Rush Places Five

Panhellenic has announced the pledging of five girls during open rush.

They are Marcia Hahn, Delta Delta Delta; and Shari Dobbbs, Judith Jaspersen, Beverly Emanuel and Sherrilyn Stigge, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Madeline Girud, Panhellenic director, announced Monday at Panhellenic meeting that approximately 40 girls were participating in open rush. Any girl who has received no dowry is eligible to go through the rush.

House quotas are still limited to 65 members. Any house on campus may entertain any University woman, but the house may not ask her to pledge until they have dropped below their quota.

Varsity Rifle Club To Meet Thursday

A new constitution will be presented to the Varsity Rifle Club members at a special meeting Thursday.

All new members are especially encouraged to attend the meeting to be held in the M & N Building at 7 p.m.

Military Men Will Spend 'About $3' for Corsages

Men attending this year's Military Ball should expect to spend $3 or more for corsages for their dates, according to a recent Daily Nebraskan survey.

Out of the 48 girls questioned what their favorite corsage would be, 30 girls or 62.5% of those asked preferred roses. A local flower shop reported that roses cost from $3 up.

Broken Down
The rose popularity was broken down into the following categories: eleven girls pink roses, four wanted yellow roses, three chose sweet heart roses and three preferred rosebuds, two just wanted "any rose" and one female said she wanted a "nice rose."

The second-most popular corsage in the survey was a tie between orchids and gardenias, with seven votes apiece.

The remaining four girls divided their choices among carnations, violets, pink camellias and one girl who "didn't want a corsage."

The view from that of the girl, then is if she is clad with a rose, orchid or gardenia, she will be right in style.

Orchids Cost Most
On the money side of the picture, the most expensive is the orchid, which costs from $5 to $10. Gardenias will cost from $2.50 to $3.50, carnations from $1.50 up and violets and camellias from $3.50 up.

Flower shops reported that the Military Ball will start the fall social season and that they will be able to aid to the characteristics of this year's Ball, "Glitter and Glamor," with various combinations and arrangements of the corsages.

Specifically, this will include the use of a French trickateen, a very fine netlike material and dusting the flowers with a gold sparkle. Irv Rosewell, co-ordinator of the decorations committee for the Ball, said, "We will carry the theme throughout all the flowers and will tie it in with the decorations on the tables. The leaves on the table will be dusted with the glitter gold."

The letters —Military Ball 1960 — and the individual services letters will also be gold, according to Rosewell.

IWA Soon to Have Annual Card Sale

The annual IWA Christmas card sale will begin on Dec. 1 and extend to Dec. 16.

They will be sold in both the Ag and City Student Unions and in Burr Hall and Seleck Quadrangle.
