

IFC Provides for Rush Film, Changes Jr. IFC Elections

Four motions concerning the rush book, rush film, assessment for Christmas display and the Junior IFC were passed by the Interfraternity Council in a short 50-minute meeting Wednesday night.

Plans were laid for the rush film and the number of copies for the rush book was set at 2,200, which will cost the IFC about $1,828, according to vice-president, Joe Knoll.

Ben Priebe, rush chairman, estimated the cost of the black and white film to be used next summer and during the school year at $266. Priebe moved the IFC appropriate this money for the film and the motion was passed.

He urged that fraternities submit a list of activities and functions which might be used in the 20-minute film. The film will be used on rush trips next summer and in future rushing.

The rush book, which will be edited by Don Ferguson and Steve Gage, will reach every incoming male student and will also be distributed among rush chairmen and the state legislature, according to Knoll.

In other business, public relations chairman Ron Gould revealed plans for the publication of a booklet containing information about the IFC.

In a short discussion, President Marty Sphir promised a "vast reorganization of the political committee to keep posted what's going on."

A motion was passed to assess each fraternity $2 to pay the IFC cost in the Christmas display suggested by the Student Council.

A majority vote put the okay on a constitutional change covering elections in the Jr. IFC. The motion, presented by Phil Tracy, read, "The Junior IFC advisers will act as chairmen for the first three meetings and at the third meeting, the election will be held with this meeting being closed to all except the Junior IFC representative and the Junior IFC advisers."

Sphir said he received a letter from the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce thanking the IFC for the transportation they provided voters on Election Day.

SDE Honors Six Charter Members

Six charter members of Sigma Delta Epsilon, national society for graduate women in science, were honored last night at a dinner meeting of the society.

All of these women are distinguished scientists and active members of the Lincoln community. The six include Dr. Eula D. McEwan, Lulu L. Runge, Mrs. James P. Vance, Drs. Elda R. and Leva B. Walker, and Dr. Ester S. Anderson.

Dr. McEwan is a geologist and has specialized in invertebrate paleontology. She is an emeritus assistant professor of the University.

Miss Runge is a mathematician and was made assistant professor at the University in 1913.

Mrs. Vance is an instructor in geography and has taught in summer school at Nebraska Wesleyan.

The Drs. Walker are both botanists. Both are now emeritus associate professors of the University.

Dr. Anderson became assistant professor of geography at the University in 1955.

Earth Honorary Initiates Five

New members of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, earth science honorary, were initiated recently at Morrill Hall.

The new initiates are John Boellstorff, Ithel Herrick, Marvin Machovec, and Francis Montgomery.

Moot Court Competition Begins; Teams Named

The first round of Nebraska Moot Court competition yesterday at the College of Law.

Moot Court is held to develop research ability in students similar to what they will find as an attorney. The student will also receive practical experience in formulating briefs and presenting oral arguments.

Moot Court was named in honor of Thomas Stinson Allen, first graduate of the College of Law. A moot question is one which can be argued from two sides.

Associate Prof. Richard Harnsberger, head of the competition among sophomore law students, announced the eight teams of 32 students.

They are Joseph Krause and Donald Treadway vs. John Ilich, Jr. and Don Fitch; Michael Lazer and Gordon Hull vs. David Herzog and Bernard Lake;

Bridge Anyone? Tourney Soon

Contract bridge will be played in the Campus Bridge Tournament which will be held Dec. 3 at 1 p.m. in the Student Union.

Contract bridge is played in the usual manner except that all hands are present and by rotating tables everyone will have played the same hands in the course of the tournament.

The entries must be made by teams. Entrants must be undergraduate students carrying at least 12 hours. Students may get their entry forms Nov. 28.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Union Tournaments Committee. It will serve refreshments for the entrants and award the trophies.

LOST IN THE HIGH WILDERNESS!

THE STOREKEEPER SAID THIS OLD TRAIL WAS NOT USED MUCH... SURE IS HARD TO FOLLOW!

I DON'T THINK WE'RE EVEN ON IT!

YOU'RE RIGHT... NO MORE BLAZE MARKS ON THE TREES! WE'RE LOST! WHAT DO WE DO?

LET ME THINK... HE SAID THAT TRAIL... USED TO BE USED MOSTLY IN THE WINTER...

LOOK—THERE ARE THE BLAZE MARKS! THIS TRAIL HNS MARKED OUT IN WINTER!

WHAT DO THEY USE—A LADDER?

NO... SHORSHOES!

Note: Tim figured that a man traveling on 15 feet of snow would leave "blaze" marks about 5 feet above snow level... or, twenty feet high when the snow melted.

Ag YWCA Retreat Tonight

The Rev. Allan Pickering, minister of the Evangelical and Reform Fellowship, will speak to the Ag YWCA tonight at their annual fall retreat at the Warren Methodist Church.

All members and interested students should meet at the Ag Corner College Chapel to the south of the Ag campus at 7 p.m. Transportation to the church will be provided.

Discussion of goals and committee assignments will follow Rev. Pickering's speech. Both Ag groups are currently staging drives for new members and encourage students to come to the retreat and become better acquainted with the youth fellowship.
