NU Matmen Triumph Over Adams State

By Hal Brown
Nebraska's grapplers scored their first win since Febr. 12, 1959, when they defeated Adams State College, 18-6, Wednesday night at the Coliseum.

Coach Mickey Sparano's matmen had little trouble with Adams State as the victory ended a 16-meet losing streak.

The Huskers won the first five matches, lost the next two and Heavyweight Jim Raschke then came through with a 9-5 win in the final match of the evening. All matches ended in decisions.

Mike Nissen won his third match of the season in the 123-pound opener with a 4-0 decision over Adams State's Gail Frank. Nissen scored his four points on a takedown with eight minutes left in the nine-minute match, and a reversal with 2:40 remaining.

Husker Dick Van Sickle needed riding time to take a 3-2 verdict over Jim Wilharm of Adams State in the 130-pound division. Van Sickle took a 2-0 lead on a reversal in the second period, but Wilharm tied the match at two-all with his second escape of the match with only 19 seconds remaining.

Faiman Wins
Jim Faiman gave Sparano's wrestlers a 9-0 lead with a 2-1 decision over Larry Moore at 137 pounds. Faiman's reversal with 2:19 left gave him the two points and the victory.

Bert Peterson decided Gene Moses of Adams State, 13-8, in a wild and woolly match. The 147-pounders thrilled the small crowd with repeated offensive maneuvers.

Peterson scored six takedowns and allowed his foe to escape the same number of times so that the Husker grappler could try for another takedown. Peterson's strategy was to trade one point for two. Two points are scored for a takedown with one point being awarded for an escape.

Nebraska's Bruce O'Callaghan led all the way in moving to a 7-3 decision over 157-pounder Larry Hibbs. O'Callaghan piled up his winning margin on three takedowns and an escape.

The two Husker losses came at 167 and 177 pounds where Adams State's Rich Duvall decisioned Stan Fraley, 5-1, in the 167-pound class, and Husker Pat Fitzgerald dropped a 1-0 verdict to Al Tolle at 177 pounds.

Tolle's winning point came on an escape early in the final three-minute period.

Raschke completed a successful evening for the Nebraska wrestlers with a 9-5 decision over Merlin Miller, 1-1 Record

The win leaves Nebraska with a 1-1 mark for the season after a loss to Kansas State last Saturday. Wednesday night's win broke a 16-meet loss string that started at the end of the 1959 season with two losses, was extended by 13 last season and reached 16 straight against Kansas State this season.

The next meet for the Huskers is Jan. 14 when they entertain Fort Hays State College of Fort Hays, Kans. Several Husker grapplers will be competing unattached in the AAU College Invitational Regional Wrestling Tournament at the Omaha Civic Auditorium Arena Dec. 20-21.

Whites Nip Reds, 16-13

Huskers Seek 4th Straight Cage Win

Nebraska, after completing a successful four-game home stand, now must face two of the top teams in the country beginning with Detroit Saturday night and meeting Cincinnati Monday night.

The Huskers will return Wednesday for an encounter with Arizona in the final contest prior to the Big Eight pre-season tourney at Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 26-29.

Detroit was ranked number three in the nation prior to its first loss of the season Monday against Purdue. The Titans are led by one of the nation's best in Dave DeBusschere, who averaged 25.6 points and corralled 19.8 percent of his team's rebounds last season.

He was the only player in major college statistics to rank in the top ten in both categories. Teaming with DeBusschere for a potent one-two scoring and rebounding punch is Charlie North. North averaged 19.8 points per contest last season.

Both North and DeBusschere are juniors. John Morgan, a 6-6 transfer from Coaling, a Junior College in California, will join DeBusschere (6-5½) and North (6-5) to give the Titans a tough front line. Morgan averaged 25 points per game at the junior college last season.

Detroit will probably have 6-3 Larry Hughes and 6-1 Frank Chickowski in the backcourt. Hughes averaged 11.7 points per game last year while Chickowski averaged 4.3

Same Records
Both Nebraska and Detroit have 3-1 records. Detroit won its first three games at home against South Dakota State, Utah State, and Indiana before dropping a decision on the road to Purdue Monday.

Nebraska's lone loss was suffered at the hands of Wichita and the Huskers have wins over Iowa State Teachers, Utah State, and Denyer.

Each team's win over Utah State came in the final seconds. Nebraska scored five points in the last 16 seconds for a 65-60 victory. Detroit scored a field goal with six seconds remaining for a 62-60 triumph over the Aggies.

Coach Jerry Bush will start the same lineup that opened against Denver Tuesday night. This will find Jan Wall (6-6) and Tom Russell (6-7) at forwards, Bill Bowers (6-5) at center, with Jim Kowalke (6-3) and Al Roots (6-2) at the guard posts.

Kowalke is pacing the Nebraska scoring with a 16.9 average. Wall is second in the scoring figures with a 12.9 average and Russell has an 11.9 mark.

Varsity Mermen Compete Tonight

Nebraskans will get their first chance to see the Husker swimmers in action this season when the varsity takes on the freshmen tonight at 7:30 in the Coliseum Pool. No admission will be charged.

The varsity expects to be stronger this year in the relay events and stronger depth-wise in the individual events with the exception of the individual medley and the backstroke.

"We should set varsity records in the medley relay and free style relay," Coach Dick Klaas said.

The Husker varsity has the top three scorers returning from a year ago in Larry McClean, Joe Stocker, and Kuni Mihara.

Stocker was third in the 100-yd. breaststroke and fourth in the 200-yard breaststroke in the Big Eight championships a year ago. McClean was sixth in the 100-yd. butterfly and fifth in the 200-yd. butterfly.

The freshman swimming outlook is very good, according to Ron Bucklin, freshman mentor. "The yearlings could crack six of the existing freshman records with ease," Bucklin says.

Jeff Amsler in the backstroke and individual medley, Bill Fowles in the butterfly, and Bill Henry in the backstroke are past state champions.

Fowles did his high school swimming for Lincoln High and Henry was a member of the Omaha Benson squad. Amsler was a standout at Sioux City, Ia., Central High School.

Other top freshman swimmers who will be performing against the varsity tonight are Dave Roberts in the free style; Chuck Levy, diving; Don Copas, breaststroke; Jim Fosnot, breaststroke; and Jim Dermeyer, free style.

Bucklin says his squad will be strongest in the backstroke, butterfly, individual medley and medley relay events.

Nebraska traveled to Lawrence, Kans., last year for the first meeting between the two clubs.
